

CAUGHT BETWEEN THE BUMPERS

Thomas Dougherty Meets With Serious Accident at Kokato Last Monday.

Tom Dougherty, a conductor on the Great Northern met with a serious accident Monday morning at Kokato. While doing some switching Mr. Dougherty stepped in between two cars and pulled a pin, the train pulled up and thinking that it was going to pull up further he stepped in between the couplings, intending to go thru and at the same moment the train stopped and when the air was applied the slack in the cars went back and caught him about the hips. Mr. Dougherty's condition is very serious.

Today's issue of the Litchfield Independent gives the following particulars of this sad accident: Last Monday afternoon Tom Dougherty, a great Northern freight brakeman, was badly hurt at Kokato while on his run from Willmar to the cities. He is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Weis of this city, having married a daughter recently.

It seems that the victim was uncoupling cars, and had drawn the pin and the engineer had pulled ahead enough to separate the cars. Dougherty stepped to the center of the track at the same moment the cars came together, catching him between the bumpers. He was badly crushed over the hip and lower part of his body. He was taken to the hospital at Montrose, where he was still alive yesterday, but not much hope was held out that he would recover. Rev. Fr. Boland was called from this city shortly after the accident and went down on the afternoon train to minister to him. He returned yesterday noon, but thought the young man's chance for recovery was slim.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. West spent the first part of the week in the cities.

OLD SETTLERS IN ANNUAL RE-UNION

A Pleasant Time Was Had By Pioneers at Willmar Yesterday.

The Seventeenth Annual re-union of the Kandiyohi County Old Settlers' Association at Willmar yesterday proved an enjoyable event. Beautiful weather blessed the occasion, but wet roads from the continuous rains prevented many from coming from outlying parts of the county.

The forenoon business session was held at the court house yesterday. J. G. Freeberg presiding. Reports of officers were read. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

E. M. Stanford, president; Ole R. Sletten, first vice president; Zakarias Jones, second vice president; A. O. Forsberg, secretary; C. W. Odell, treasurer.

The committee on memorial reported a recommendation that a popular subscription be taken in every precinct of the county beginning next November for the purpose of raising necessary funds for erecting a memorial commemorating the pioneers of the county in the courthouse yard. This project has been talked of two years with no definite result. The old settlers are a unit, however, in favor of the proposition. It was brot out in the discussion that the school children of the county might be induced to assist in the work.

At the close of the session the members were taken to Assembly Park by auto, where dinner was served. The dinner was very creditable under the direction of Mrs. Jas. Sanderson and Sheriff Peter Bonde, and the guests did ample justice to the repast.

The afternoon's program began with instrumental music by a boy's orchestra. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. Ostling. The old settlers were bid welcome by Judge T. O. Gilbert, President of the Willmar Commercial Club in a neat little speech. President Freeberg responded in behalf of the association. He said:

Fellow Citizens and Friends: In behalf of the Old Settlers' Association of Kandiyohi County, I most heartily thank the good citizens of Willmar for again giving us an invitation to come here, that we might hold this Seventeenth Annual Meeting at the beautiful Chautauqua park and auditorium.

I assure you, fellow citizens, that as long as any of the members of this Association are living, they will have a warm spot in their hearts for the city of Willmar, and for the good will and hospitality they have shown and for the comfort given the old settlers on this day.

I am not able to speak of the very early pioneers of this county, not having been a resident here at that time.

I arrived at Castle Garden, New York, 1868, on the 5th of July. On the 16th of the same month I landed in Boone county, Iowa.

The grasshoppers had consumed nearly all the crops on the Des Moines river valley for two years. People from northern Europe, mostly Swedes, had made their home in the valley, some for fifteen years. There was no new style in dress or living and no one had heard of the speed limit. From what I learn the grasshopper ravages there compared with the destruction of the crops in this county in 1875 and 1876. 1876. When I came to the county, marks could be seen on the small cottonwood trees from the work of the grasshopper.

Now a few words to the younger people, born and raised within the border of the county.

When you pass judgment on the early farmers and men in business go slow. Take a good hold of your thinking cap and consider at what cost these people came here from hichly civilized countries of Europe. Many came here with their families, some had large and some smaller fortunes, with them but by the larger number had only the cash value they possessed in their strong arms and willing hands and these people have done all things for us.

These people came here for the purpose of making a home for themselves and their families in this country, then a wilderness, and stayed here, worked up farms, building school houses and churches. Roads were also given some attention.

I think at least, some of you will agree with me, that we live in a beautiful and good a county as there is in the great state of Minnesota.

You tell us old fellows some times, that we are too slow to catch up with the modern condition of life and do not even keep speed with the latest time table on the modern education and its branches.

Maybe we are a little slow. All of us have come to this county and state to better our conditions for ourselves and families, wherever we came. The land was new and the language was new to some of us.

When you leave the home of your mother, to get away and see this great world, you will most likely make a promise to write her at the earliest date. Do not forget this. Write often. Can you ever think of all she has done for you? How she loves you, how she with tears, in her eyes, waits and waits to hear from you, her dear son or daughter? Again say, write to your mother and do not forget the language of your mother.

The Mission choir under direction of Rev. A. J. Ostling then sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and "Just Before the Battle Mother." The singing of old familiar songs by this fine choir was one of the great features of the convention and was thoroughly appreciated by the old settlers.

Secretary Forsberg read the memorial address, giving brief biographies of members who have departed this life during the year.

More music by the boy's orchestra was followed by the reading of a paper by the editor.

The Mission choir sang "Marching Through Georgia" and "America," the audience rising and joining in the latter.

The orator of the day, Hon. M. J. Dowling of Olivia, then appeared and gave a splendid address well brot back to the pioneers, especially the prairie pioneer, the incidents of early life very vividly. He spoke with feeling and in his own inimitable humorous way for a time which seemed short to his hearers, but really long. "Mike" had warmed up to his subject and had his audience with him and he held the audience to the last.

The closing number was "Auld Lang Syne" sung by the audience. Mrs. A. N. Lewis playing the accompaniment on the piano.

The crowd had been augmented by fresh arrivals during the program so that there was more people there than at the dinner. The annual picture was taken by M. Simons, the photographer, with his swinging camera and will prove one of the best taken. The annual group pictures of the association will no doubt prove a most valuable part of the archives of the association.

The members dispersed to their various homes apparently well pleased with the day.

WEST LAKE. West Lake, June 22—The "Green Farmers' Club" had an ice cream social in the Ytterboe school house last Saturday evening.

Brewery Agent Caught. Recently a wholesale brewery agency located in a shack on wheels was brought over the Meeker county line and located in a grove rented from Fred Upbeher in Harrison. The place was run by Peter O. Hawkins, who had given considerable trouble to various Meeker county townships. He believed he could operate such a place in any town where no express vote has been taken. His appearance in Harrison where he placed a stock of one carload of Hanna's beer in August was the cause of much consternation in the neighborhood. The old records were examined and it was found that the town voted no-licenses in 1874. Sheriff Bonde went out and after securing a number of proofs of sale, arrested the man, and brought him in to Willmar. On arraignment he waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury. He furnished a $200 cash bond, promised to remove all liquor and empties from Kandiyohi county at once. The authorities hold a large number of cases over his head in case he should attempt to remain in the county.

Flygare-Engvall. A very pretty church wedding was solemnized last Friday afternoon, when Miss Emma Engvall was united in marriage to Mr. Bernhard Flygare. The ceremony was performed at 2:30 o'clock at the Swedish Lutheran church by the pastor, Rev. G. O. Schoberg.

The bridal couple was attended by Misses Carrie Halberg and Jennie Flygare as bridesmaids and Messrs. Elmer Engvall and John Salberg as groomsmen. Little Alice Flygare of Ruthon acted as flower girl. The wedding music was furnished by Miss Mary Anderson, who presided at the organ, and Miss Linnea Holm, who sang, "Oh Promise Me." A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erick Engvall. Mr. and Mrs. Flygare will go to housekeeping on the groom's farm near Lake Minnetaga. They have a host of friends who will wish them a most happy union.—Atwater Republican Press.

OBITUARY. GUSTAF NORD. The funeral of the late Gustaf Nord who died in California will take place at Tripolis next Tuesday, June 30. The remains will arrive at Willmar on the 1:30 train, when the start for Tripolis will be made at once. The Rev. G. H. Hanson of Chicago will officiate. The remains will be accompanied by the son and daughter, Prof. William A. Nord and Miss Thilie Nord. The local arrangements are being made by Undertaker Peterson, the Anderson brothers, and other friends of the family.
