Geo. H. Otterness

Candidate for Re-election for

COUNTY ATTORNEY

Kandiyohi County, Minnesota

To the Voters of Kandiyohi County:-

I trust that my past services merit your endorsement. I believe that long service gives experience, training and a better insight into the affairs of the county, and therefore submit that I can serve the county better, and more economically if re-elected, than in the past. If you will grant me your continued favor by a re-election, I pledge to the people of Kandiyohi County prompt, impartial, honest and conscientious service. In criminal matters—strict enforcement of the law; in civil matters—an honest, and economical administration of the county's business that comes within my official duty to perform.

Sincerely yours,

GEO. H. OTTERNESS

An Appeal to Save Our Forests.

An emergency faces the friends of our forests. On November 3rd will be decided the fate of the forests ever issued by the State. Shall we allow this small remainder to be ruined as in the past, or shall we adopt a better method? This better method will be submitted to popular vote on election day. It is embodied in the State Forests Amendment, the 9th on the ballot.

As most of the amendments usually fail, the Minnesota Forestry Association is attempting to inform every voter of the State of the merits of the amendment. He will obtain a bulletin on tree planting, a canoe map of Minnesota, and the two monthly magazines, "The North Woods" and "The Minnesota Horticulturist."

The Minnesota Forestry Association is the oldest organization of its kind in America. It has had an honorable career ever since its inception. Its influence particularly in tree planting is gratefully felt in many parts of the State. This is the first appeal ever issued by the organization. It needs funds; it needs them quickly. Every public spirited citizen in Minnesota who is a friend of forests, game and natural resources and of the business of the State should contribute willingly and liberally. Your contribution should be addressed to Phil H. Hanson, Treasurer of the Forestry Association, 307 State Capitol, St. Paul. Don't wait until tomorrow. Do it now.

(Signed) Gov. A. O. Eberhart, Dean A. F. Woods, Pres. Geo. E. Vincent, State Forester Wm. T. Cox.

Returned from Norway. Mr. Terje O. Kiland returned Monday from a five months trip to Norway, which he had taken in company with his brother, Mr. Anson Kiland of Minneapolis. They returned on the Kristianfjord which sailed from Bergen Sept. 19 and arrived at New York Sept. 28. The trip was a stormy one. A British vessel stopped the ship outside of the U. S. coast and searched the ship for Germans. They found one who had lived in Norway with his family three years ago. He was taken to the examination. Finding that he was past the age of war service by six months he was released and brot back to the liner. There is but little excitement over the war in Norway. When it first broke out in Germany the impression was that the allied powers would speedily crush Germany. The success of the German arms, however, has changed the views of the people considerable, and many believe that Germany will win out in the end. The Kiland's visited at Brooklyn for a week before proceeding by rail to their Minnesota homes.

Approved October 13th, 1914.

Resolved, further, that the Mayor and City Clerk be and they are hereby authorized to execute the same in the name and on behalf of the City.

Approved October 13th, 1914.

Resolved, that a warrant for $2,000 be issued against the General Fund in favor of the Water and Light Commission to apply on the old Water and Light account.

Approved October 13th, 1914.

Resolved, that the action of the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners be approved by the Council.

Approved October 13th, 1914.

An invitation to the Willmar Masonic Lodge was presented and inviting the Council to be present at exercises to be held on the 16th inst. for the laying of corner stone of the new Masonic Temple on 5th Street.

The invitation was gratefully accepted and their request for use of the streets for that day was, on motion, granted.

Requisitions for supplies from the Water and Light Commission were presented and the Clerk was on motion instructed to order the supplies.

On motion the Council adjourned.

Attest: HANS GUNDERSON, City Clerk.

A Reply to Mr. Hanson's Letter. To the Voters of Kandiyohi County: In answer to the letter from Mr. C. J. Hanson which appeared in last week's issue of the Tribune, I wish to state that I wrote to Mr. Hanson several weeks ago, in answer to a letter from him regarding the proposed school legislation. I wrote him that I was inclined to favor the proposal because it, in my opinion, afforded a more satisfactory method of selecting the county superintendent, and at the same time, gave better opportunity to compare schools and bring them up to the same high standard of efficiency.

I did not mean to give the impression that I favored the recommendation in every way, and since the letter was written, when my attention was called to it, I have had opportunity to further study the matter and have come to the conclusion that it provides for too great a change. Our common school system is not perfect, and can stand a reorganization, but in doing this we must be careful not to destroy government of the people, for the people and by the people.

To altogether do away with these local districts means taking away from the people the right to decide what they want and the opportunity for a community to do what it wants to do. In emphasizing the use of the school house as a community center I have tried to impress upon the people the importance of that side of education which deals with self-government. The practice obtained in farmers' clubs and other society meetings, has been held before the people as helpful to them in preparing them to more intelligently take a part in government.

I am not in favor of the recommendation as a whole, and would vote against it, if it came before the people today in its present form.

However, this recommendation must be acted upon by the legislature and submitted to the people for ratification. No one knows whether it will pass the legislature, nor what form it will take before being submitted to the people, nor when it will be submitted.

Respectfully yours, A. E. NELSON.

HAMMOND SCHEDULED AT WILLMAR OCT. 21

Special Train Bearing Candidate Will Stop at Willmar 25 Minutes.

The most strenuous week ever put in by a candidate for Governor of Minnesota faces Winfield Scott Hammond, Democratic candidate, on his return to Minnesota from Washington Monday.

In order that as many places in the state as possible may see and hear the candidate special trains will be used. This schedule will close at Minneapolis, Tuesday, the 27th when Secretary of State Bryan speaks at Minneapolis.

According to present plans Congressman Hammond will start from St. Paul at 7 a. m., Tuesday over the Hastings & Dakota branch of the St. Paul road and cut straight across the state, stopping at intervening towns, for Wheaton or Ortonville, where the night meeting is to be held.

From Wheaton the special will go to Wahpeton, N. D., where it will remain for the night, starting early in the morning on the Willmar branch of the Great Northern eastward.

At Willmar, Oct. 21. The special train will reach Willmar some time in afternoon (Wednesday), where a stop of 25 minutes is scheduled.

Delano will be reached about 6 p. m., and the party will take autos for Buffalo on the Soo.

There Mr. Hammond will make one of the chief addresses of his campaign. He will reply to his Republican opponent, William E. Lee, who at the Wright county metropolis on October 3 defended himself against the charges made by Mr. Hammond that he, Lee, is associating on intimate terms with the very men he has indicted as being brewery controlled.

The Zone of Greatness. Says a trenchant writer: "Around this globe is a narrow zone between the thirtieth and fiftieth parallels of north latitude, and within this belt of power have existed all the great nations of the past, and in it exist all the great nations of the present. It is true that north of this charmed circle, as well as south of it, have existed nations of wealth and power, but the peoples that have given direction to the thought of mankind, that have created philosophy and art and science and government and religion to mankind, have been crowded within this zone of supremacy."—Christian Herald.

DISCONTENT. When discontent seizes upon the mind it is like the deadly cancer, reaching out with its tentacles for sound flesh to feed upon. It must be checked in its incipient stage. The caustic of self arrangement must be uncommonly used and the salve of common sense liberally applied. Self treatment is necessary to insure a cure.—Frank B. Welch.

Dining on Woodchuck. Horace Keplart once asked old Uncle Bob Flowers, one of his neighbors in the Smokies, "Did you ever eat a woodchuck?"

"Reckon I don't know what them is." "Groundhog?"

"Oh, la, dozens of 'em! The red ones baint' no good, but the gray ones? Man, they'd just make yer mouth water!" "How do you cook them?"

"Cut the little red kernels out from under their forelegs; then bile 'em fust—all the strong is left in the water—then pepper 'em and sage 'em, and put 'em in a pan and bake 'em to a nice rich brown, and—then I don't want nobody there but me!"—Buffalo News.

CULTIVATE SMILES. Why will people put on long faces when it is so much easier and more comfortable to laugh? Tears come to us unsought and unbidden. The wisest art in life is to cultivate smiles, to find the flowers where others shrink away for fear of thorns.

Greatest Fleet of History. The largest mobilization of warships in all history was certainly that accomplished by Xerxes before the battle of Salamis. According to the detailed figures given by Herodotus, he mustered 1,207 battleships—triremes, or ships of war, with three banks of oars. Each of these carried a crew of 200 rowers and thirty fighting men. There were also 3,000 smaller vessels of war and transports, averaging eighty men each. A further 120 triremes afterward joined. Herodotus may even have understated the figures, since Aeschylus gives 1,207 triremes as the number present at the battle, and 647 had already been lost or destroyed.—London Opinion.

Mme. Nordica's Wisdom. Lillian Nordica once summed up the secret of success in these words: "Nothing comes to me but through work and perseverance. I work when I do not want to. It takes work and patience to become an artist. It cannot be brought about in a day. To me, I will say frankly, all things come slowly and through toil. Ambition is a fearful master and tyrant, but I would not exchange it for another."

She tells the truth concerning all real and continued success. A man sometimes reaches a pinnacle by what seems chance and no effort of his own, but he cannot remain there without labor.—Indianapolis Star.

Attest: HANS GUNDERSON, City Clerk.

A Reply to Mr. Hanson's Letter. To the Voters of Kandiyohi County: In answer to the letter from Mr. C. J. Hanson which appeared in last week's issue of the Tribune, I wish to state that I wrote to Mr. Hanson several weeks ago, in answer to a letter from him regarding the proposed school legislation. I wrote him that I was inclined to favor the proposal because it, in my opinion, afforded a more satisfactory method of selecting the county superintendent, and at the same time, gave better opportunity to compare schools and bring them up to the same high standard of efficiency.

I did not mean to give the impression that I favored the recommendation in every way, and since the letter was written, when my attention was called to it, I have had opportunity to further study the matter and have come to the conclusion that it provides for too great a change. Our common school system is not perfect, and can stand a reorganization, but in doing this we must be careful not to destroy government of the people, for the people and by the people.

To altogether do away with these local districts means taking away from the people the right to decide what they want and the opportunity for a community to do what it wants to do. The practice obtained in farmers' clubs and other society meetings, has been held before the people as helpful to them in preparing them to more intelligently take a part in government.

I am not in favor of the recommendation as a whole, and would vote against it, if it came before the people today in its present form.

However, this recommendation must be acted upon by the legislature and submitted to the people for ratification. No one knows whether it will pass the legislature, nor what form it will take before being submitted to the people, nor when it will be submitted.

Respectfully yours, A. E. NELSON.
