County Engineer a Benedict.

Charles J. Estlund, the county road engineer, surprised his friends recently by setting up housekeeping in a house rented at 416 Tenth Street South, and quietly bringing home a better half to share his life for better or worse. The lucky young lady was Miss Behlida Paulson of Leonard, Minn. and the nuptial knot was tied by Rev. H. P. Johnson at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon, April 15, at the parsonage of the Park Lutheran church at Minneapolis. Rev. Johnson being a former classmate of Mr. Estlund at G. A. College. When the news leaked out among the colleagues of the highway engineer at the courthouse, a charitable party was organized and a demonstration was made at Mr. Estlund's office. When the latter admitted that there was truth in the report, the noisy playfulness gave way to hearty congratulations, and the crowd straightaway went to celebrate the event in the prevailing form of the cheering cup at Willmar. In bowls of rich brown coffee. The Tribune editor wishes to join their many other friends of Mr. and Mrs. Estlund in hearty congratulations.

Celebrate Silver Wedding.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hoglund on East Becker avenue arranged a family celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the wedding day of their parents last Sunday. Miss Alice Hoglund came down from St. Cloud and Mr. Herbert Hoglund came home from the University to celebrate the event. Mr. Carl Gustaf Hoglund and Miss Christine Erickson were united in marriage at Willmar April 27, 1890. Both are natives of Stockholm, Sweden.

The Public Health Association will meet at the Commercial Club rooms next Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock. A large attendance is requested.

A GALA MAY DAY COMING NEXT WEEK.

The Operetta "Pauline" by the High School Chorus, May 7th, at the Opera House.

The season of picnics is almost at hand, and you are invited to the first one of the season, which is to take place on Friday evening of next week regardless of weather. The participants are all young, at least at heart, full of life and vim. Even the staid village physician bends to the mood of the season and woos the queenly heroine. The Professor, young Reuben, Miss Chickie and Cullie share in the fun, to the delight of all, save one. But the rest of the story will be told by the young folks themselves in their sparkling musical numbers. Dr. Chas. H. Gabriel wrote both music and libretto, which accounts for their "vigil or with beauty entwined."

Admission will be only 25 and 35 cents, seats may be reserved at Carlson's Drug Store beginning next Wednesday morning. A large audience for this event would greatly encourage the musical work of our schools.

A List of the principal characters follows:

- Pauline—Nellie Robbins. Cullie—Mildred Smith. Chickie—Esther Larson. Naine—Ruth Sletten. Kiomi—Dora Hanson. Mother—Marion Marshall. Child—Elizabeth McNairy. Faber—Walter Erickson. Shady—Thorwald Hanson. Casady—Clarence Englund. Professor—Lars Peterson. Chilkoot Iks—Herbert Hedberg. Reuben—John Dale. The Village Physician—Robert Johnson. Uncle Joe—George Scott. Sorrow—Arthur Limperich. Morrow—Frank Sather. Grenadiers—Paul Brandt, Joe Chase, Eddie Christopherson, Axel Pallin, Irwin Peterson, Cecil Jonsson, Eugene Ohsberg, Elroy Peterson.

Chorus of Picnickers—Pearl Otterness, Cecelia Barrett, Myrtle Norine, Isabel Somerville, Edna Sanderson, Florence Magnuson, Vivian McGee, Hazel Collinson, Edna Stromert, Lenora Brevig, Florence Pallin, Mammie Olson, Evelyn Dale, Loretta Barrett, Emma Boyd, Hazel Broman, Edith Hegstrom, Ruth Olson, Minnie Olson, Elvira Jacobson, Edna Magnuson, Ruby Selin, Ethel Thompson, Lella Sundfors, Florence Styles, Volberg Engsted, Sadie Carlson, Mildred Hoglund, Hazel Johnson, Ada Falkingham, Edna Johnson, Muriel Johnson, Helga Berg, Ruth Beck, Evangeline Nygard, Pearl Pallin, Ethel Bergeson, Abbie Stromert, Myrtle Feit.

A Public Bathing Place.

Mayor Wellin has inaugurated a move to provide a place where the boys of the city, especially of the west end may feel free to bath and swim. With the arrival of fine weather swimming and diving from the bridge on the Foot Lake dump has revived. Last Sunday there were quite a few bathers. Bathing on this narrow road leads to embarrassment of those who cross, and Sunday there was a call for the police to suppress the appearance of naked bathers. Mayor Wellin proposes that the beach on the point of the fairground park be set aside for bathers and that the bath house on the grounds be fixed up for dressing rooms. Each bather will be required to wear a trunk bathing suit. A spring board for diving would be placed in position. This is a splendid idea and we hope it will materialize.

AUGUST OLOF FORSBERG Willmar's newly appointed postmaster, who is awaiting the arrival of his commission to take charge of the office, was born at Munkfors, Varmland, Sweden, Jan. 20, 1864. At the age of six years he arrived with his parents to Mamre township, April 27, 1870, thirty-five years ago. He attended Willmar high school and Willmar Seminary, and later Gustavus Adolphus College. For eighteen years he taught in the schools of Kandiyohi county. He launched the Alliance Standard at Willmar in 1892. For ten years he was associate editor of the Willmar Tribune. He has served as clerk of the Willmar School District, secretary of the Kandiyohi Old Settlers' Association and holds a number of positions in church and fraternal life. His appointment to the Willmar postoffice was just recognition of his services to the public and to his party, as well as to the progressive element which is rallying to the support of President Wilson and Secretary Bryan and the ideals of government which they stand for.
