FARMS FOR SALE. I hold, in the very best part of North Dakota, a great many all sizes of ready farms for sale on very easy terms for from $25 to $45 per acre. This is a special opportunity for renters, or for people with small means and speculators; these farms will, inside of three years, more than double in value. I will gladly send a description list of these farms to anyone asking for them. The yield, of these farms, is greater than in Minnesota where common farms are being sold up to $125 per acre. Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine. If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is lustrous and healthy, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scrub robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fatten, loosen and die; then the hair falls out. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

COUNTY OPTION CONVENTION AND RALLY. A county convention and rally of the county option forces of Kandiyohi county is hereby called to convene at the court house at Willmar on Saturday, May 22, 1915, for the purpose of considering the issue before the voters of Kandiyohi county at the special election called to be held June 7, to organize and rally the temperance forces of the county and to take such steps as may be deemed necessary to insure a full representation at the polls and thus secure a result that will be in harmony with the traditions of the county. The following is the basis of representation to this convention. Five delegates at large for each precinct in the county, to be selected under the direction of the precinct committee; two delegates from each church organization, farmers' club, young people's society, lodge, union, or other organization in the county in sympathy with the purposes of this convention, and which desires to be represented. The delegates are to meet at 11:00 o'clock a. m., for organization and business. At two o'clock p. m., the rally proper will take place with speakers of state-wide reputation. This will be the great event in the history of this movement in the county, and every organization should see that it has accredited representatives present. CHANGE AT THE GROCERY WHOLESALE HOUSE R. M. Hicks Retires From the Firm and B. Y. McNairy Becomes Local Manager. After having been connected with the firm of Nichols-Hicks-McNairy Co. wholesale grocers, ever since that company was organized at Willmar, R. M. Hicks retired from the firm, his stock having been purchased by the other members. The change took place last week, and B. Y. McNairy, who has been on the road in the firm's interests, becomes the local manager, with headquarters in this city. Sophus Larsen, who has been employed at the wholesale house as city salesman, takes Mr. McNairy's place on the road. C. A. Nichols will continue to travel for the firm. We have not learned what are the future plans of Mr. Hicks. Improvements at Park. The eating pavilion at the county park has been materially improved. The board and west walls have been boarded up and provided with large shutters to keep off the wind from the lake when such proves uncomfortable to the diners. Arrangements are being made with the Housekeeper's Club to have charge of the eating pavilion during all the big events of the year on the grounds. The refreshments stand has been divided into two and placed one on each side of the main path to the auditorium. The fairground fence is being painted and a crew is doing some of the filling most urgently required. Installation of Pastor. Impressive services marked the installation of Rev. W. Bryn Jones as pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city, last Friday evening. A good sized crowd was present at the services. The pastors who assisted were Rev. J. L. Parmeter of this city, Rev. H. J. Taylor of Atwater, Rev. S. M. Marsh of Browns Valley, Rev. G. A. Holzinger of Kerkhoven, Rev. Alexander Roulston of Maynard and Rev. John F. McLeod of Litchfield. Rev. Jones preached his first sermons on Sunday, the church being packed at both services. Change of Postmasters. August O. Forsberg assumed his duties as postmaster at Willmar last Monday. Mr. Alton Crosby, the retiring postmaster, will give his personal attention to his opera house and newspaper interests. Mr. Crosby has made a very efficient and courteous postmaster during the eight years and three months in which he held the office and has set a high standard for his successor. More Lusitania Opinions. L. O. Thorpe: "It was entirely wrong for the Cunard Steamship Co. the English government, and also the United States to allow passengers to travel on a ship which was carrying munitions of war." Dr. H. F. Porter: "It is a time, when we, as Americans, with sympathies for both sides in this terrible conflict, should stand back of the President and his decisions, in perfect unison." A New 5 and 10c Store. Work has been commenced at remodeling the building recently occupied by L. A. Tjosvold. Shelving is being put in, and some time around the 20th of this month it will be occupied by a variety store to be known as Henry Morell, 5c and 10c and Variety Store. Mr. Morell will carry a full stock of goods in these lines. The Million Dollar Doll. The attraction at the Willmar Opera House for Friday evening of this week will be "The Million Dollar Doll," a musical comedy with a plot. The scenes take place near that picturesque river, the Hudson, and there are three acts. Seats are on sale at Carlson Bros' drug store. A Test of Nerve. To crouch in a trench or covered bombproof from dawn until dusk, to bear the incessant whistle of thousands of projectiles, to mark the little clouds of dust kicked up by bullets as they strike the ground near a trench or shelter, to start at the bursting of shrapnel shells, each containing 200 or 300 bullets which are scattered over many yards, is a test of human nerve which Napoleon's Old Guard was never called upon to withstand.—Walder Knappert in American Review of Reviews.

AN ESSAY ON SUMMER. The spring is on the wane and summer with all its glory is upon us. Already the man with the little tongs is delivering frozen county option liquid to the back door of our domestic habitations where dwelleth peace, love and the cook, but the greatest of these is the man. I wouldn't dare to say otherwise. He treads softly on the lawn for his shoes are full of saw dust. I had just been weeping—weeping as does the crocodile—during the valedictorian address of the coal man. I was worried lest when the coal hills cease, money might accumulate in my pants pockets.
