AMUSEMENTS.

"Woman and Wine."
This week's feature picture for Friday at the Majestic will be "Woman and Wine." This is another World Film Corporation production, which in itself is enough to insure a wonderful picture. It is an extraordinary picture, dealing with life on the "great white way" of New York and in Paris. Dick Seymour, played by Mr. Elliott, has plenty of money and is well liked personally, but he is tempted by Woman and Wine on the great white way, and he falls down badly. He goes to Paris, where he goes from bad to worse, finally being accused of murder. From gaol and death there seems to be no escape, but his father and sweetheart prove to be most loyal to him and he is proven innocent of the crime. He finds happiness by shunning bad company and bad habits. The part of Dick Seymour, portrayed by William Elliott, is a dandy and calls for sustained acting through many long and trying scenes. The settings in Paris and New York are very effective and brilliant and the supporting cast is exceptionally strong.

Rumors of a Change.
It is rumored in towns along the Milwaukee line that the Milwaukee road has secured the contract from the government for carrying mail to the coast. This said they plan on running a solid steel train, with the cars all painted white, the train to be known as "The White Streak." If this is true it will mean the end of fast mail trains 27 and 28 running thru here after July 1st.

Look at Me I am Well.

"I cannot say too much for Peruna. It has entirely cured me of my trouble. My eyes lids were thick and red nearly all the time. My eyes were especially sensitive to light. Catarrh was my trouble. I had had my eyes treated and took a great deal of medicine, but nothing seemed to help me until I tried Peruna. I always use Peruna when my family need it. Always find it very good; it helps wonderfully. You can find my testimonial anywhere you wish to." So says Mrs. C. Skehan, No. 314 S. Leavitt St., Chicago, Ill.

THREE BACHELOR BROTHERS BRUTALLY MURDERED

Danger of Hoarding Money at Home Proved Very Real in Lowry Murder Case.

Glenwood Herald, May 21:—Sven, Johannes and Amund Mitmoon were found dead at their home in Ben Wade yesterday afternoon by their neighbor, Andrew Knutson, who came to their place for some hay.

The two oldest, Sven and Johannes, were found in the house, one in the front room and the other in the kitchen. Amund, the youngest, had been killed in the barn and left there.

Sven and Johannes had been gagged with handkerchiefs tied tightly around their mouths. Their skulls were crushed with a blunt instrument. It seems probable that the brothers had resisted their assailants and that they were killed in the scuffle. Two empty pocket books were found. How- ever, currency and gold to the amount of $2700 left in a bureau drawer had been overlooked.

It is not known when the horrible deed was done, but the brothers must have been dead several days. The last time they were seen alive, according to present information, was last Friday afternoon.

FIND NO CLUE TO MURDERERS

Authorities Have No Definite Idea as to Who Are Responsible for Mitmoon Murder.

Glenwood Herald, May 14:—The brutal murder of the Mitmoon brothers of Ben Wade township has been the center of interest during the past week.

The coroner's inquest was held last Thursday evening and the jury returned a verdict that the three brothers had been murdered by some unknown parties. The members of the coroner's jury were: Dr. H. S. Shipstead, Arthur Irgens, J. G. Whitmore, Ed. Husted, Alf Wollan and A. N. Thorstad. Coroner H. J. Berry conducted the inquest.

Some credence has been given to the report that the older brothers had been killed by the younger brother who is said to have been somewhat irrational and that the younger brother then committed suicide. The authorities are however firmly of the opinion that this is impossible. To them it is a clear case of murder by outside parties with robbery as the motive.

While it is not known when the murder was committed the authorities think it very probable that it was done Thursday evening, May 6. The brothers were last seen Thursday afternoon. On the following morning Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Knut-

PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM JAIL AT BENSON

Two Men Waiting to be Taken to Stillwater Make Getaway.

Joe Kaper and Tom Miller, who were given a penitentiary sentence by the court on Tuesday afternoon and who were to have been taken to Stillwater the following night, made a successful escape from the county jail on Wednesday evening between the hours of six and seven. As soon as their escape was discovered Sheriff Gilbertson notified various people in the neighborhood and with the assistance of two or three men made a search all that night. On the following morning they were arrested by Marshal Chalmers at Clontarf. The sheriff went to that village at once and brought them back to jail, where they will be closely guarded until they are taken to Stillwater, which will likely be this morning.

At the time of their escape they were not locked in the cage and they made their escape by climbing on the top of the cage, which does not reach the ceiling, and cut a hole through the ceiling, which is only sheet tin. This let them into the attic and by breaking the window on the south side of the building they secured their freedom by dropping to the ground, a drop of about 12 feet. They did not enjoy their freedom very long, thanks to the prompt work of Sheriff Gilbertson.

The county commissioners, who are holding their May meeting this week, examined the jail after the men escaped. We hope that they will regard the desirability of taking steps towards the erection of a new jail. The present building is a disgrace to the county. It is quite impossible for any sheriff to keep prisoners from making their escape unless by placing a guard on the outside. Even if prisoners are locked in the cage they could secure their freedom with aid of outside accomplices, who in a very few minutes could punch a hole thru any of the walls. Besides the building is very unsanitary and not fit for occupants. This county is well able to afford a good jail building. They should not wait until the old building is condemned for that would be expensive to the county to have another county take care of its prisoners. The time is certainly opportune for a new jail. Let us therefore have one.—Swift County Monitor.

CANNOT SOLICIT ORDERS EVEN BY MAIL

All Soliciting of Liquors Orders Will Be Illegal When County Goes Dry.

On Friday, Sheriff Munroe and Deputy Clark succeeded in locating a man who was soliciting orders for intoxicating liquors in Lyon County. Orders were taken from farmers living near Marshall and Green Valley and the solicitor, M. D. Friedman, representing the Ted Distributing Company of St. Paul, was arrested at Milroy and brought here for trial. He appeared in Judge Pike's court, charged with two offences and was fined $75 in each case.

The Haynor Liquor Company of St. Paul and the Schuster Brewing Company of Rochester have been arrested for violating the new county option law, forbidding the solicitation of liquor in dry territory. Both pleaded guilty and paid fines and costs. This is the third time that the Haynor Company has been arrested in Lyon county and the president of the company has now signed an agreement to cease soliciting orders here.

The Cold Springs Brewing Company of Cold Springs, Minnesota, and the C. & J. Michel Brewing Company of LaCrosse, Wisconsin, have each been arrested for the soliciting of orders for intoxicating liquor through the mails. Both of these cases are pending and will be tried next Tuesday.—Marshall News-Messenger.
