Removing the Fatal Pressure

THE pictures tell a story—crudely perhaps, but nevertheless to the point, wherein high priced specialists often-times fail in their diagnosis of cause and effect.

CHIROPRACTIC is revolutionizing health restoration. It locates the source of all bodily ailments—makes the adjustment scientifically and sure. It frees the nerves of the pressure from the deflected bony structure of the spinal column, and permits the health-building and life-giving nerve currents to perform their normal functions. Free, unimpeded nerve force means HEALTH.

Chiropractic is nature's agent to make the sick well and keep them so.
