UBIQUITY OF DIPHTHERIA BACILLUS

Widespread Prevalence of This Germ Among Unsuspecting Persons is Shown by U. S. Public Health Service.

It has long been known that diphtheria germs are present in the throats of many perfectly healthy persons and that many cases of this disease may be accounted for only by their infection from such "carriers."

To what extent these germs occur among healthy persons has been a point that has never been definitely determined.

Should this report be read by all of the inhabitants of Detroit over 4,000 of them would recall the visit of the "Health Officer" who examined their noses and throats and took "cultures" from both locations.

In the laboratory the officers of the Service examined the 8753 cultures taken from 4,993 persons; five bacteria from an average of 18 cultures a day.

One per cent does not ordinarily sound large to the average person, but let us see what it means to the individual.

to the air of a moving picture theatre during an evening. To demonstrate further what one per cent means, let us see what are the actual figures.

These data gathered by the Public Health Service, as well as data of the same nature obtained by other workers, demonstrate one of many reasons for personal care of the throat and nose, avoidance of too intimate contact with others, and the necessary early preventive measures in the case of those suffering from "sore-throat" and lesions suspicious of diphtheria.—U. S. Public Health Service.

A LETTER TO FARMERS CLUBS

The Club Exhibits Were Expressions of Community Development and Co-operation.

University Farm, St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 29, 1916.

The Farmers' Clubs which made exhibits at the Kandiyohi County Fair are deserving of well earned and much deserved praise.

As the writer acted as one of the judges, possibly a statement relative to this display with a few suggestions, would not be out of place.

Finally, the suggestion which seems to be of the most value is that the exhibits should show standardization rather than too great a variety in each class.

Very truly yours, FRANK E. BALMER, State Leader County Agent Work, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The new garage will be 50x100, with a 20x50 basement in the rear end. The garage will have a ladies' rest room, a display room for the exhibition of the latest models of automobiles and will be completely equipped with all of the latest machinery. The new building will be fire-proof and will cost in the neighborhood of $5,000.—Belgrade Tribune.

Auto Accident at Spicer.

A slight accident occurred last Friday evening on Lake Ave. in front of the Wm. Olson residence when O. Sonderson in his auto collided with J. E. Fitcher's team and buggy which contained Mrs. Fitcher and Peter Anderson, as driver. As Mr. Sonderson was going under the street light, his attention was called to the other side of the street and he did not see the team coming. No one was seriously hurt but Mrs. Fitcher received slight nervous injuries. The buggy was smashed and one light of the auto was broke and the fender bent.—Green Lake Breeze.
