Whittall Rugs are gifts worth while

They enable you to express your CHRISTMAS GREETINGS in a remembrance of lasting beauty and recognized quality. Gifts are valued most when practical and useful.

From the wool on the back of the sheep to the beautiful rug on your floor is a long journey with many important steps. Any of these steps, if slighted in the least, will lessen the finished product. The high quality of WHITTALL RUGS is due to the great care and skill used in the process of making.

Come in and let us show you why the name Whittall, woven in the back of a rug or carpet, is so well and favorably known among dealers and housewives as "THE MARK OF QUALITY."

We also have a fine line of picture frames. Come in and look them over.

A Happy Surprise.

Last Sunday will long be remembered by the citizens of Colfax, neighbors and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Erick Dahlberg, as nearly one hundred people gathered at the Dahlberg home on that day and helped Mrs. Dahlberg celebrate her 67th birthday anniversary. When all had arrived the singing of the old Swedish hymns commenced, and after a number of these, Rev. Dahl, pastor of the Swedish Methodist church of Belgrade delivered an address. Following this there was more singing and then our esteemed citizen, Mr. Emil Thimell, in behalf of those present, presented Mrs. Dahlberg with a purse of $30.75, at the same time making a few remarks which were very touching. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dahlberg responded expressing their surprise and most sincere thanks and appreciation. Then next was the supper. The ladies had all come loaded down with good things to eat, which were prepared and placed on a large table and the guests invited to eat their fill. After the supper all departed for their respective homes, feeling that the occasion would long be remembered.

Mr. and Mrs. Dahlberg were both born in Sweden, the former March 25, 1848, and the latter Nov. 28, 1848, so they were nearly the same age. They grew up together in Sweden, came to this country with their parents on the same boat arriving here July 31, 1868. Ten years later, July 15, 1878, they were united in marriage, and have since resided in their present home in Colfax township. Mr. and Mrs. Dahlberg are loved by all who know them. The sterling character of each and their respect for God and His teachings have won for them the respect of all. May these good people live to celebrate many birthday anniversaries.—New London Times.

Wm. O'Neill, traveling grocery salesman and apostle of all around cheer, met with a painful accident at the Merchants hotel Monday morning which cost him an eye. It was because Billy has taken for practicing medicine as a wart doctor without a license.

O'Neill was removing the cork from a bottle of nitric acid preparatory to first application for removal of a wart. In some manner acid squirted into his face and a drop or two entered the eye. He hurried to a doctor's office where lotions were applied and the burnt area of the face swathed in bandages. His prompt appearance at the doctor's probably saved his eye. He left Morris the same day and his friends are more or less anxious to hear about his condition.—Morris Tribune.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

An amusing Christmas game is questions and answers, which is played in the following manner:

Arrange the players in two rows, one on each side of the room. Then two must be chosen to make questions and answers. One starts at the head of one line and one at the foot of the other. One whispers to each one in his line a question, and the other whispers to each in the other line an answer.

After each one has been told what to say let the one at the head of the question line begin by asking his question audibly of the head of the answer line, and so on through the line.

Of course the one who gives the question does not know what the answers will be, and sometimes they are very funny.

Let some of the older players supply the questions and answers, and then they will not fail to make you all laugh. This is an old game and one that never fails to bring out lots of fun.

CARD MATCHING.

Cut in halves a dozen Christmas cards (this number is for twenty-four cards). Mix the halves thoroughly in a basket and let each player take one. Until a signal bell rings every one retains his seat, simply holding his half card in readiness. When the bell is sounded, however, each player jumps up and runs about looking for the boy or girl who holds the half matching the one in hand.

The two players first to match halves correctly and bring the card so completed to the older person in charge of the frolic win a prize. The scampering and excitement which follow the signal bell are more easily imagined than described in this jolly Christmas game.

The Jumping Coin.

Tricks of all kinds are applauded at the Christmas party. The jumping coin is a jolly one. A coin is placed on the table, and a request is made for the coin to be handed to you in a person's hand. They are not to remove the coin from the table by using hands, feet or picking it up with the mouth. Now, this seems a puzzle, but is as simple as a b c. All the person has to do is to place his mouth within a short distance of the coin and, giving a strong blow with his breath, directing it at the coin at about an angle of forty-five degrees, causing the air to pass under the coin and propel it into the air, where it is caught in the hand, which is ready to receive it.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fumble, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it!

CHRISTMAS GAMES

Others are enthusiastic over these quiet games which hold the children's attention, and the youngsters like them too.

FAMOUS TREE THAT BLOOMS ON CHRISTMAS.

A very interesting group of Christmas superstitions cluster about plant and animal life. Tradition tells us that after Joseph of Arimathea had begged the body of our crucified Saviour and had laid it in his own newly hewn tomb he left Palestine forever. He in hand, he traveled many weary months and finally reached Glastonbury, in England. Here he planted his staff, and in the course of time it sent out leaves and buds. On the glad Christmas morning the buds burst into a mass of exquisite bloom. Since that day of long ago the Glastonbury thorn never fails to be covered with delicate white flowers on Christmas morning. By the following day they have all disappeared.

A cutting of the Glastonbury thorn was taken to Buckinghamshire, where it became as famous as the parent plant itself. Thousands of people from near and far were wont to go to see the blossoming of the thorn on Christmas morning. When about the middle of the eighteenth century England adopted the Gregorian calendar, which brought Christmas eleven days earlier than under the older style of reckoning time, the common people were greatly dissatisfied. To their simple minds they had actually been deprived of eleven days of their mortal life, and mobs marched through the streets carrying placards bearing the inscription, "Give Us Back Our Eleven Days!" That they had been wrong became a conviction when the Buckinghamshire thorn failed to blossom on the new date, and when the people actually refused to attend church on the 25th of December the clergy in that part of England were forced to celebrate divine worship on both the old and the new dates.

In pagan times special deities were supposed to preside over the harvest, and the people sought in every possible manner to propitiate these powerful gods. In out of the way parts of Europe the trees are still formally invited to the Christmas feast. Taking acceptance for granted, the remains of the Christmas dinner are spread about the roots of the fruit trees. This ceremony is supposed to insure plentiful harvests the following autumn. In other places the trees were in olden times beaten with clubs to make them more productive.
