TRAINS CRASH IN EAST END OF YARD

West Bound Freight Collides With Snow Train Thursday Afternoon.

Another near serious wreck, the second to occur within a week's time, happened last Thursday afternoon about three-thirty, when west bound freight No. 409 crashed into a snow train, standing on the main line out near the mile crossing.

Crews have been busy in the local yards ever since the last heavy fall of snow, clearing out between the tracks, shoveling the snow onto flat cars, then having it dumped out beyond the switching limit. G. A. Copersmith was conductor of this train. Thorwald Nelson and C. O. Carlson being the crew on engine 737. With a trainload of snow they backed east, onto the main line, where the crew got busy unloading the cars. No one noticed train 409 coming down the grade, and the engine crew on the 1552 did not notice the other train until it was too late to prevent a collision. Guy Storer and Billy Kohn were the engineer and fireman on the freight, which was in charge of Conductor Archie Smith. The front end of the 1552 was pretty badly smashed and flat spots were made on each of the drive wheels, when the air was put on suddenly, causing the wheels to slide along the track. The rear end of the tender on the 737 was badly demolished and the caboose, which was next to the engine, was derailed. The men working on the flat cars were all thrown out into the ditch, when the crash came. Several of them were quite seriously injured. Peter Olson being the worst sufferer in this respect, having his back severely hurt. The others were more or less bruised and cut about the face, arms and legs, and were taken to the offices of Dr. Frost, where medical aid was administered.

The wrecking crew was called into service, and soon had the line cleared of debris, although No. 14 was delayed some on account of the wreck.

TWENTY-NINE NORWAY LAKE PIONEERS PASS AWAY

Ole O. Rindahl, a Norway Lake township pioneer and a leading and esteemed farmer of the town passed away at his home after a lingering illness caused by tuberculosis of the larynx on Jan. 25. Mr. Rindahl was born Sept. 13, 1864, at Trondhjem, Norway, and came to this country with his parents in 1869 when the family located on the farm of which the deceased became the owner in 1897. The deceased attended the common schools and later the Willmar Seminary. On Jan. 31, 1906, the deceased was married to Miss Bertha Andrine Roen, also of Norway Lake. Their union was blessed with five children, Orville, Ella, James, Florence and Rubie, who, with their mother deeply mourn and keenly feel the loss of a kind and loving husband and father. Brothers and sisters who survive him are Martin Rindahl, of Norway Lake, John Rindahl of Minneapolis and Miss Martha Rindahl, of Minneapolis. The grief stricken family have the sympathy of the entire community in this hour of sad bereavement. The deceased was a member of the West Norway Lake Lutheran church. The funeral was held on Monday, Jan. 31, the day of his 51st anniversary of married life. Services were conducted in the afternoon at his church by Rev. Sotendahl. The deceased had held positions of public trust in his town and in the community. He had considerable influence in his neighborhood. His ideals represented those things that are for the cleaner and nobler things in life. His early passing away is a distinct loss to the community.—Sunburg Enterprise.

Ole A. Hellerud. This whole community was shocked at the death of the late Ole A. Hellerud, which occurred on last Wednesday morning, Feb. 2, at 7 o'clock. Mr. Hellerud had been suffering for some time with the grippe. Late in the afternoon of the 1st, he attended to his death, he joined in doing some evening chores, when he was stricken with partial paralysis. He managed, however, to reach the house almost without any assistance. He apparently retained consciousness for a while, after which he fell into a slumber of unconsciousness until he breathed his last. The deceased was born at Orfordville, Rock county, Wis., on Feb. 1, 1853, thus attaining the age of 63 years and one day. He was married in 1872 to Miss Ingeborg Hei, also of Orfordville, and in the following year they removed to their present home in the town of Norway Lake and there reared a family of eight children. Mrs. Anton Anderson, of Brockton, Theodore Anderson of Gilchrist; Mrs. Hans C. Hanson of Gilchrist; Mrs. Emil Chelgren of White Rock, S. D.; Mrs. Emil Norberg, White Rock, S. D.; and the Misses Julia, Elvina and Edna, who are staying at the parental home. He is also survived by three brothers, one of whom lives at Wyndmere and three at Grafton, N. D. The grief stricken family and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement. ## DIGGING TOWARDS A GREATER WILLMAR.

BUSINESS MEN HELD ANNUAL BANQUET

Over One Hundred Men at Commercial Club Banquet Tuesday Evening.

The annual banquet of the Willmar Commercial Club last night was an enjoyable occasion. There were one hundred fifteen guests seated at the festive tables at the Masonic Temple and they did ample justice to the fine spread served by Mrs. James Sanderson and assistants. Between the course selections were given by the Nordmändenes Singing Society, and these were much appreciated by all present.

The speaking program was exceptionally fine, several distinguished speakers from outside being present. Judge T. O. Gilbert, president of the Willmar Commercial Club, presided and kept things moving in his usual capable manner. The first speaker was Rev. Wm. P. Remington, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church of Minneapolis. He spoke of his impressions of the City and Commerce association of his home city, and quoted Brown and its patient efforts to keep us out of the world war. Hon. Timothy O'Connor, our royal good Norwegian neighbor of Renville, was called on and acquitted himself in a happy way and incidentally vindicated his nationality. With the native wit which Northland connections, Mr. O'Connor is a combination difficult to improve upon. In speaking of a trip to Scandinavia in 1905, his reference to the manner in which the Scandinavian countries settled their difficult national dispute without bloodshed was a delicate hint that the speaker was not on the same side of the preparedness question as the former speaker. Editor Lawson was called on, and spoke briefly on the status of the Willmar Commercial Club, which he thinks is not doing what it might do for the city if the business men and people generally would join in and help. Rev. W. A. Rice of the First M. E. church was the last speaker. He gave his impressions of Willmar, and suggested that a Y. M. C. A. building and a militia company and armory would be good things to promote for the welfare of young men in the city.

The gathering broke up at a late hour and all participants seen expressed the opinion that the banquet was the best in the history of the organization.

HOLDUP ARTISTS AT WORK LAST NIGHT

Chas. Dalen Relieved of Two Hundred Dollars Last Evening—Thieves Caught.

The holding up of Charles Dalen last evening by two members of a gang of amateur thieves, that have been operating for some time past in this city, brought matters to a head, with the result that four members of the band are in the county jail, and the fifth is being sought by local officers of the law.
Mr. Dalen is the proprietor of the Pool and Billiard room on Benson avenue, between Third and Fourth streets, and Tuesday evening, after locking up for the night, he placed an unusually large sum of money, in currency, in his pocket to take home for safe keeping, until the following day. It was shortly after eleven o'clock that he left his place of business, walking east on Litchfield avenue. As he was on Third St. East, it was necessary for him to turn south on First St. As he neared the I. C. Olson residence, two masked men sprang at him, both carrying revolvers. One of them prodded him in the ribs with his gun, while the other stood a couple of feet back, holding a pistol leveled at Dalen's head. The robbers said but one word, "Dig."
Mr. Dalen "dug" all right, as he admitted this morning, he didn't fancy handing into the barrels of two pistols, especially in the following day. It was about two o'clock that officers Gilbertson, Westgard and Ruddy entered the abode of the gang under suspicion.
After quite a lengthy session between officers and suspects, the latter gave up, confessing not only to the holdup last evening, but also to numerous other petty crimes.
The money had been concealed in a way that would have made a professional holdup artist turn green with envy. The cester had been taken from one of the legs of the bed, and the hide concealed in this hollow space. The remainder was hidden in the wall of the room, part of which had been cut away for the purpose.
They were taken into custody this morning and will have their preliminary hearing some time the latter part of the week.
Many business places, particularly those on Third St., have been the objective points of this gang. Attempts have been made at entering places and coal and minor articles have been missing from several business houses.
Officers Gilbertson, Ruddy and Westgard have long been suspicious of this outfit, which seems finally to have been brought to justice, and they have been waiting for a chance to catch them with the goods.
