WILLMAR TRIBUNE

Published every Wednesday at 328-330 Benson Ave., Willmar, Minn., by Victor E. Lawson, under the firm name of Tribune Printing Company. [Entered December 5, 1902, at Willmar, Minnesota, as second class matter, under act of March 3, 1879.] OFFICIAL PAPER OF KANDIYOHI COUNTY AND CITY OF WILLMAR

A. O. Moreaux, editor of the Rock County Herald, and E. H. Canfield, lawyer, promoted a mass convention of voters of Rock county to protest against the direct primary law. Moreaux's paper said there was "about" one hundred and twenty-five present. Mr. Canfield opened the meeting and gave the primary law "a terrible grilling." Senator S. B. Nelson and A. C. Fiske spoke in favor of the direct primary. Canfield's resolutions were adopted, however, and in due time will no doubt make their appearance before the legislative committees as a spontaneous outburst from a long suffering people. The force with which this "bunch of Rock" was thrown will not harm the primary law, we are thinking. When the primary law is to be amended, it should be done by its friends and not by men who believe direct nominations spell anarchy. We always had the idea that Ex-Senator Canfield was of a progressive type, but since reading two long letters he has written on the direct primary law we cannot so classify him.

THE PRESENT AND THE PROMISE On the last previous occasion when I saw Jim McPartland, he was a trifle sassy. Today, he was resplendent, the bonhomme fully restored, the diamonds replaced, a picture of sartorial elegance. Only we who know him well think of him as "Jim McPartland." The rest of his rather large world knows him as Col. James McPartland, the colonel part of it being a matter of courtesy, of course, albeit not in the least discouraged by the recipient of the doubtful honor. McPartland is a promoter; not merely an organizer or re-organizer of business, but a promoter and typical. Hence the kaleidoscopic financial varieties obtaining with him from time to time. If he ever did an honest day's work of real produce, it was in New York for a fortnight; and two or three weeks in London, you know. I rather guess your Uncle Dudley is getting in touch with the real people, what? I never bother with these "pickers" around the home plate, abroad, and hereafter we are going to elect only Presidents and Congressmen who will do those very things, and don't you forget it," concluded McPartland, dramatically.—Robert S. Doubleday, in The Public. One Reason for Invading Mexico. Those Doubting Thomases who hitherto have been unable to see the necessity or advisability for this country's spending a billion dollars, and sacrificing tens of thousands of lives in conquering Mexico, may be convinced by the announcement that the new mining law is about to be put into effect in that country. A striking feature of this law, according to the press dispatches, is its provision for discouraging large holdings of undeveloped claims for purposes of exploration and exploitation. The old custom of holding everything in sight and holding the claims idle while negotiating for their sale, is to be broken up. It is estimated that claims to the amount of $1,000,000,000 owned by foreigners may be surrendered under this law. This is a matter for the American to ponder. It has been the custom in this country to give away the public domain, with its mineral and timber and its water power, to any who may wish to have it. We have given them not to use and develop, but to hold in idleness while the growth of population and industry of the country made its owners fabulously wealthy. Are Americans to have less rights in Mexico than in their own country. Is the Mexican peon to have rights denied to the masses of the people in this country? And all because we have become such molly-coddles, that we are afraid to give a little blood in behalf of the divine right of Privilege?—The Public.

ANOTHER CORN SHOW WILL BE HELD THIS YEAR

Second Annual Show to Take Place During Month of December. One of the important events of the Northwest for 1916 will be the Second Annual "First National" Corn Show, which will be held in St. Paul, Minnesota, December 11-16, inclusive. Contests will be open to every farmer and farmer's son in the Northwest. The Corn Show territory will remain the same as last year, and includes the following states, divided into districts: Minnesota, six; North-west Wisconsin, two; N. Dak., six; S. Dak., six; Montana, six; Washington, two. The Corn Show territory will be divided into a men's and boys' class, and is confined to districts only, there being no competition between states or between districts. District No. 4 of Minnesota is composed of counties of Traverse, Big Stone, Swift, Stevens, Chippewa, Lac qui Parle, Yellow Medicine, Renville, Pope, Stearns, Meeker, Kandiyohi, Lincoln, Lyon, Redwood and Brown. Four prizes will be awarded in each district, one for first, one for second prize for men and a first and second prize for boys, trophies for the latter to be of like design and equal in value to those awarded the adult exhibitors. Each exhibit must consist of ten ears of any variety of Indian Corn raised by contestant in a field of one acre or more, but not less than one acre. No fee will be charged for entry of exhibits. A judge of recognized standing will make awards at the show and in so doing will judge exhibits by what he considers to be a recognized standard for any variety of corn raised in that particular district. Increased productivity, breed type and general appearance will be the governing factors. Exhibits will be returned in every case where contestants request that this be done at the time of making entry. BANKERS HAVE ENTRY BLANKS. "Corn and Cattle Contribute Capital for Bigger Bank Balances," is the slogan that has been adopted by the First National Bank and the Northwestern Trust Company of St. Paul and Bankers of their Corn Shows. Increased interest in corn production means the ultimate raising and maintenance of more livestock and diversification in farming methods, to the financial advantage and prosperity of the entire Northwest. Pamphlets giving full details regarding the second annual "First National" Corn Show and form of entry blank may be secured on application from bankers in the corn contest territory.

REFLECTING MILITARY MODES. Singapore is on the Malay peninsula, that shoe tongue that hangs down from the southeast corner of India. A Singapore mosquito will be slothfully around all day, not turning a hand, but the moment it sees you retire for the night and pull down the bed netting it leaps to its feet, trembling with eagerness. They will pass up thousands of Chinese and Malays a few blocks away, sleeping without cover of any kind, to come and work and plan the whole night through to get just one taste of white meat. Their persistence is a wonder. An ant in comparison to a Singapore mosquito is a happy-go-lucky creature, with no thought of the morrow. Here in the luxurious tropics mosquitoes grow to splendid proportions, perfectly formed and splendidly muscled, and in any catch-as-catch-can conflict can defend themselves against all comers, irrespective of nationality. In a pinch they have a way of balancing on their tails and leaping on to their opponent and tearing him with their hind feet, after the manner of the cornered trallan kangaroo. — Homer Croy in Leslie's. Tiger Shark. When a Hawaiian sees a shark near the surface with eyes which shine red, as though they had red glass in them, he will not go in the water or even on the water or if he is on the water he will get to shore, for the red eye is the tiger shark, and it does not hesitate to attack. They will not only attack a man in the water, but they will follow a fisherman in a canoe after he has taken a lot of fish aboard, and it is said they will attack and overturn a canoe if they are very hungry. Men who know fish do not want to have anything to do with the tiger shark. A shark does not turn on its back to bite, as is the common opinion of those who have not lived near shark infested waters. It turns on its side and when in this position can travel almost as fast and handle itself almost as well as when it is in its natural position.—Honolulu Star. Frozen Food in Siberia. The markets of Irkutsk, in Siberia, are an interesting sight, for the products offered for sale are in most cases frozen solid. Fish are piled up in stacks like so much cordwood, and meat likewise. All kinds of fowl are similarly frozen and piled up. Some animals brought into the market whole are propped up on their legs and have the appearance of being actually alive, and as one goes through the markets one seems to be surrounded by living pigs, sheep, oxen and fowls standing up. But, stranger yet, even the liquids are frozen solid and sold in blocks. Milk is frozen into a block in this way and with a string or a stick frozen into and projecting from it. This, it is said, is for the convenience of the purchaser, who is thus enabled to carry his milk by the string or stick handle. Crownell and Quinine. We owe to Sir Clements Markham the introduction of quinine yielding trees to British India and the consequent cheapening of the drug from a guinea to a halfpenny an ounce in Calcutta, but the medicinal properties of cinchona bark had long been known. They were discovered by the Jesuits, after whom it was called Jesuits' bark. Concerning that, Sir Clements used to relate an odd coincidence. Oliver Cromwell died of tertian ague, and quinine might have saved him. In the very newspaper in which his death was announced, the Mercurius Politicus, there was an advertisement of Jesuits' bark for sale. But the name of Jesuit was abhorrent to the Puritans, and hence Cromwell's medical advisers would have nothing to do with it.—London Chronicle. Impossible. "Do you think it safe to marry on $25 a week?" "My boy, no amount of money can guarantee marriage to be safe."—Detroit Free Press.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING. Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp. Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!
