SOCIAL EVENT AT ST. CLOUD

Particulars of the Pearson-Bergstrom Nuptials Last Thursday.

Thursday evening, June 1, at 8:30 o'clock, occurred the marriage of Rev. W. E. Pearson, pastor of the Bethel church of this city, to Miss Linnea Bergstrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bergstrom of St. Cloud, at the Swedish Lutheran church at St. Cloud. The wedding was beautiful in its simplicity. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Pearson, father of the groom, assisted by Rev. Ostergren, the local pastor, at St. Cloud.

Six ushers entered first and stretched white ribbons from church entrance to altar. The six bridesmaids, the Misses Cynthia McCarthy, Hilda Satterberg, Emma Eriandson, Ellen Bennewitz, Esther Satterberg and Caroline Naegell, then came. Finally the bride entered alone and met the groom at the altar. The latter was unattended. Miss Amy Fridlund played Mendelssohn's wedding march, and played softly during the ceremony. Miss Esther Pearson, sister of the groom, sang, "Beloved, It Is Morn."

The bride's gown was of white georgette crepe trimmed in satin, made entirely of lace. A shower bouquet of bridal roses and lilies-of-the-valley and wore a veil in cap effect, caught with lilies of the valley and myrtle.

The six bridesmaids were attired in white net dresses with pale green messaline coats and small white net hats and carried bouquets of pink roses and white lilies.

The church was decorated with a large arch of lilies and palms and lilies.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors, where Rev. and Mrs. Pearson received the congratulations from many friends. There were about two hundred guests present. The parlors were decorated with lilies and white and cream crepe paper from the chandeliers. Congratulatory speeches were made by Revs. S. Pearson, Ostergren and Tillman. The bride made a very neat speech of acknowledgment to her friends at St. Cloud. Charles Wallin of Willmar voiced the congratulations of the Bethel congregation to their pastor and bride.

Out of town guests were Miss Sadie Rystrom of St. Paul, Mrs. Alfred Bergstrom, Minn., Miss Amy Fridlund, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wallin, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ohsberg, and Mr. Burt Swanson of Willmar, Rev. and Mrs. Tillman and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Eriandson, Tripoli, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Findsen of Staples, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson of Rockville, Mr. Ephraim Bergstrom of Minneapolis, Rev. and Mrs. S. Pearson of Chicago, Miss Eber Pearson and Mr. Enoch Pearson of Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Pearson left on Friday for an auto wedding tour, to Chicago, Galesburg, (where Rev. Pearson attends the Synod meeting), Kook Island, Minn. and other points. They will be at home to their friends at Willmar after July 1.

Among the wedding gifts, was a check from members of the Bethel congregation amounting to $566.

IMPORTANT BUSINESS CORNER CHANGES HANDS

S. S. Glarum Has Sold His Corner and Will Soon Retire From Business.

S. S. Glarum has sold his corner, 75x100 feet in size, at Third street and Litchfield avenue to Jalmar Nyquist for $6,000. Mr. Glarum will continue to occupy the building for some time to come, but is planning to dispose of his stock of groceries and retire from the business which he has conducted since 1878, thirty-eight years ago.

Mr. Nyquist has nothing to say about his future plans for the corner, but there is a rumor abroad that a modern business block with several stores will be erected upon the same. The corner is one of the best business locations in Willmar.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION.

A week from next Monday occurs the primary election. It is one of the supreme duties of a citizen to go to the polls and express his choice of men when called on to do so. No one should fail to vote because of trivial obstacles in getting to the polls. And it is just as important that the voter knows who he is voting for and has a reason for so doing that will satisfy his best judgment as well as his sense of right and wrong.

The sample ballots are published this week at public expense, so that every voter may have ample time and opportunity to consider the different candidates and familiarize himself with the form of the ballot, so that he need not hesitate when he steps behind the little curtain of the election booth.

—Miss Alma Johnson left this afternoon for a visit at her parental home near Kerkhoven.

Gilbert Anderson returned last Tuesday afternoon from about a week's visit in the cities.

Miss Anna Svedberg returned Tuesday after a few days' visit with relatives at Willmar.

Rasmus Rasmussen left on No. 9 Tuesday evening for Crosby, N. D. and other North Dakota points.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ling spent Sunday with Mrs. Ling's parents at Kerkhoven.

Gunder Haug was taken suddenly ill last Monday evening. Drs. Jacobs and Frost were summoned and it was found necessary to take him to the hospital at Willmar. Mr. Haug is reported at this writing, to be gaining and we all hope for his speedy recovery.

Miss Emily Berglund, who has been sick for eight months, has undergone a successful operation about three weeks ago at the Bethesda hospital at Willmar. We are pleased to report that Miss Berglund is practically well. The operation was performed by Dr. I. S. Benson.

C. G. Akerson is laying the foundation for the new creamery this week. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nelson came down from Chokio for a visit with relatives and friends last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. John Ostlund spent Decoration day with relatives and
