VOTE FOR LOBECK.

In the candidacy of Senator E. E. Lobeck for Congress the Seventh District has the opportunity to give a statesman of the finest type to the nation. As a member of the State Legislature two terms in the House and now in the Senate, Mr. Lobeck has won Statewide recognition. Only four members of the one hundred ninety-seven in the legislature has a record equal to his in securing and reporting constructive legislation. He was instrumental in passing the white slave law and in having the age of consent of girls raised from sixteen to eighteen years. In the battle between "wets" and "drys" waged during the past thirty years and which has now resulted in the Seventh District being the first congressional district in the State of Minnesota to be entirely free from legalized saloons, Senator Lobeck has been unceasing and convincing speaker and absolutely fearless in his advocacy of the people's rights and for clean government. He will handle the interests of the Seventh District at Washington ably and well. We have faith that good old Kandiyohi county will remain true to her traditions, and will roll up a majority for Senator Lobeck next Tuesday which will aid him materially in reaching the goal. Hurrah for Lobeck!

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

At Pennock the other day a straw vote was taken on President J. P. Johnson tells us one hundred votes were cast, including many farmers. The result was 57 for Wilson, 42 for Hughes and 1 ballot spoiled. On the Willmar local coming from the cities Saturday Rev. Gynild tells us a straw vote was taken which resulted in 27 votes being cast for Hughes and 57 for Wilson. At the Rexall store straw vote which is taken daily at Carlson Bros. drug store this week, the first three days shows as follows: Wilson Hughes Saturday 12 10 Sunday 42 19 Tuesday 32 20

Wilson Hughes

It certainly begins to look as if Minnesota is going to reverse her attitude of fifty years in favor of President Wilson. And why should not she?

VOLSTEAD VS. SPOONER.

Congressman Volstead has served notice on the editor that he considers the Lewis C. Spooner letter published in last issue libelous and demands that we "withdraw it, whatever that means. We published Mr. Spooner's letter in good faith in an attempt to get at the truth of current news. Whether its contents were true or not we have no means at hand to prove. We have published a communication by Mr. Volstead with the same prominence given Spooner's letter, and it speaks for itself, as did the former. This is certainly an interesting situation—two prominent Republican leaders passing the lie to each other. It strikes us that Mr. Spooner is the person that Congressman Volstead should get after with his notice of libel. In the speech delivered at Morris last Wednesday Mr. Spooner reiterated the substance of his letter as published in the Willmar Tribune with added emphasis and the Western Newspaper Union is furnishing this speech in plate form to a number of newspapers in the district. In another letter received from Mr. Spooner as we are about to go to press, he quotes what he claims is the exact language of changes made in the proposed law, to prove his contention. Mr. Volstead, it seems, had an intimation that this matter might be brought up and had something published in the Congressional Record to clear it up. Neither party has so far offered the best kind of evidence required to settle the matter. When they do we shall be glad to so inform our readers.

ELECTION NIGHT RETURNS

Plans Are Made for a Big Show at Opera House Beginning at Nine O'clock.

There will be great interest in the election results next Tuesday. Conditions are such as to leave room for all kinds of conjectures. The Willmar Tribune is making arrangements to receive the returns both national and local, by telegraph and telephone. The local returns will be tabulated from time to time as they come in. The office will be closed to visitors after seven o'clock for lack of room, as we will need all the space we have for work.

A special election show will be put on at the Willmar Opera House at nine o'clock and run out into the night. All the returns received at the Tribune office will be transferred to slides and be shown on the screen at the opera house in plain type so all can read. Between the returns a fine program of pictures and music will be given continuously. Nothing will be repeated. Manager Crosby is making arrangements for a big time. The special tickets provided for this occasion will have an identification stub which will permit the holder to come and go as he likes. This will be the only place in this part of the state where the returns will be thrown on the screen, where you can sit in comfort and take it all in, and be entertained at the same time. The price of tickets is 25 cents, and as the cost of the news service is great an advance canvass to sell tickets will be made. Come to Willmar Tuesday night and take in the big election show at the Opera House.
