CLASS PLAY PLEASURES

Large Crowd Attends Annual Production and Thoroughly Enjoys Play.

The senior class play last Friday evening was produced in a manner that would put to shame many professional companies. Each and every member of the cast acquitted himself or herself in a way that brought forth much applause.

George McDonald, as the "maid" lady, was immensely popular. He had all the characteristics and mannerisms going to make up the successful character impersonator.

George Scott, as Mr. Marsland, friend of the elder Cattermole, carried the part in good shape. Bernice Peterson and Edna Sanderson, as the two mischievous girls, did their parts nicely.

The cast may well feel proud of their efforts, as the play was the equal of any amateur production ever seen here.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The conscription bill was passed by overwhelming vote in both Houses of Congress. By means of this bill it is expected to raise an army of two million men, besides the increased regular army and national guard.

World history is being made these days at a rate which few of us realize. Events which would ordinarily be considered of great importance are hardly noticed now, for they transpire in such quick succession in the great war crisis.

The railroads announce that the entire railroad mileage of the country, about 400,000 miles, has been placed in one organization, for war purposes.

The confiscation of human lives necessary to place our country on a basis where she can uphold American ideals of right and justice in the world should be followed by the confiscation of all the wealth necessary to pay the material costs of the struggle.

The study of the gopher flags has received a new impetus by the war. There are very few people who can recognize all the flags of friend or foe in the present international conflict.

The Interstate Commerce Commission on April 19 allowed the railroads to put in effect 15 per cent raise in freight rates beginning June 1.

Nearly two hundred of the pupils of the Willmar schools have entered the garden contest managed by Prof. Rodegeb.

The Nebraska State Senate passed on April 21 and the Governor signed the bill conferring on women municipal and county and Presidential suffrage.

Grim famine, the gaunt accompaniment to devastating war, threatens the world. Kandiyohi county should under Providence be made to yield every possible kernel of grain and pound of flour stuffs.
