INTERESTING NEWS FROM OUR BOYS

Activities in Training Camps Reported By Boys Who Are There.

Samuel Olson, a member of the second squad to leave, writes from Jefferson Barracks, under date of May 3: "We are still at Jefferson Barracks, and have not heard anything about being shipped off yet. Think we will go either tomorrow or Saturday, but have no idea where. We have been put in Company 16, Corporal Coombs squad and he has drilled us a little. Every time I see an army of civilians marching from the depot I feel sorry for them, thinking what they have to go thru. First they are brought to the receiving barracks, where their names are called off and they sign up. Then they are rushed off like sheep to the barber shop to get a hair cut. The hair cut takes from one-half to one minute, and looks accordingly. Then they are sent to the basement for a shower bath. When thru the entire bunch are marched off to sleeping quarters, where they are given a blanket and shown a cot and told to be in bed before nine o'clock. The first night we slept in a skating rink. We now have one of the largest sleeping tents used in the army, and fourteen of us sleep in it. It has a wooden floor and is comfortable. All recruits that come here have to take their turn at waiting on table in the mess hall. We had our turn yesterday and it was some job while it lasted. We started at ten o'clock in the morning to fix the tables for dinner. There are 46 tables, and each one seats 30, making 1380 in all. We served three sets and part of a fourth, so you can see how many there are to feed each day. We have received our whole equipment, consisting of two suits of clothes, one pair of leggings, two pairs of shoes, six pair of socks, four suits of underwear, one hat with a heavy red cord around the band. The red cord means coast artillery; blue is for infantry and yellow for cavalry. Friday, May 4—We leave Sunday for Fort Monroe, Va. Have had our last physical examinations. This will not be our permanent location, but we are to be trained there.

Bob Johnson in a letter written from Fort Monroe, says: "We left Jefferson Barracks Tuesday, May 1 at 4 o'clock. Went thru St. Louis, crossing the Mississippi river there. Then road east until we came to the Ohio river which we followed for a couple of hundred miles, going thru Cincinnati and Louisville. We then came to the mountains, and while I suppose they are small compared to the Rockies, they looked big to me. We passed coal mines, and went thru many tunnels, the longest taking about seven minutes. There were some beautiful scenery along the route. We had Pullman sleepers and ate on the train. Had bread, syrup, corned beef, beans, tomato sauce, and whatever we got a chance to buy when stopping at stations.

This is a beautiful place, located on Chesapeake Bay. Have had but one meal here but it was better than at Jefferson Barracks. We were assigned to companies and squads today. I am in the Elmer Company, squad 10, Hugh Hoglund and Dan Burns are also in my squad, which consists of eight men. The rest are in the sixth company.

Chester L. Nelson, in writing home from Fort Monroe says: "We have had such a wonderful trip that I can scarcely describe it. We went thru the Allegheny and Blue Ridge mountains, saw the Mississippi, Missouri and Ohio rivers, and went thru all the large cities in that section of the country. We are twelve miles, by water from Norfolk, the largest ship-building yards in the world. The lights go out at 9:15 and we get up at 6 o'clock. Elmond, Harold Severinson and I are together in Company 8. The rest are separated, but all are here at the fort. We read that $15.84 was sent after us when we left home, but we never saw any of it. I had most of my money and stick pin stolen while taking my examination at St. Louis.

Following are extracts of a letter from Richard Soderling: "We arrived at Fort Monroe this morning (May 3) about five o'clock. We lived only 23 hours yesterday because Eastern time is one hour earlier than Central. These barracks were as well. We had a pullman car all the way from Jefferson Barracks and slept two nights on the train. There were some grand scenery thru the Blue Ridge and Allegheny mountains; nothing like geography pictures. While we were going thru one of the small bays, three of the soldiers were left behind. All they talk about around here is the scenery. We traveled along the Ohio river for miles, went thru Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia and Virginia. Virginia is a dry state and they are not allowed to ship liquor in.

We can room any place on the campus and don't have to go to bed until 11 o'clock. For supper we had liver, rice and potatoes, and they sure tasted good. Our train consisted of eight cars, loaded with soldiers and a baggage car. Saw some cannon this morning that were used in the Revolutionary war. They were made of copper.

Earl Frye, a member of the last bunch to leave had the following to say in a letter received this morning: "We arrived here Sunday, all happy, broke, but in good condition. The first thing we had to do was to take a bath. The water was so cold there were icicles on the faucets, but it was better than nothing. We saw some of the fellows from Willmar; most of them left Sunday. Eddie Christopherson, Elroy Peterson, Bill Peterson, Arne Wellin and Sam Olson are in the 16th Coast Artillery, at Fort Adams, Rhode Island.

Frederick Johnson is at Fort Ethan Allen, Vt. Louis Halvorson has been promoted to corporal. We saw him last night. They sent us thru Chicago, to get us here. We layed over there for ten hours and all of us went out to Lincoln Park. That is some place. We are to be examined this morning. I hope we pass. They only reject 45 men a day out of five or six hundred, so we ought to get thru. We had dinner yesterday in a little mess hall that only seats 1500 and slept alone last night in company with 500 bed fellows.

A card received Tuesday from Albert Murphy who enlisted in the Federal militia states that he is still in Minneapolis.

J. H. Taylor is enjoying his annual vacation from the dispatcher's office.

ADD THE SPLENDID QUALITY OF THRIFT to your spirit of PATRIOTISM

Some offer themselves as soldiers, others assist their country by producing necessities, while still others do their bit by maintaining commerce and industry. All these services are necessary for the successful prosecution of the war in which we are engaged, and while we cannot all make the supreme sacrifice of the boys who offer their lives upon the altar of their country, we can all do something by assisting the nation in its efforts for increased production and saving of commodities, by full employment of labor and the continuance of ordinary business.

FOR THIS REASON OUR MOTTO IS: BUSINESS AS USUAL, BUT NO WASTE.

"THE ROSE MAIDEN"

Willmar Choral Club to Present Cantata in Near Future.

"The Rose Maiden," the cantata which the Willmar Choral Club have been rehearsing for the past three months, will be presented in the near future at the opera house. Under the capable direction of Professor Henry E. Meyer of Morris, the members have made great progress, and it will be well worth the while of lovers of good music to attend.

The argument follows: The Queen of the Flower Fairies, weary of a life of unbroken calm, prays of the newly returned Spring that he will bestow upon her also the gift of love that he bestows upon man. He warns her of the risk she runs, but finally yields to her entreaties by changing her while she sleeps, into the form of a beautiful girl. Under the name of Roseblossom, she wanders thru the world to find the love that she seeks, and meets with a girl, who having been betrayed and deserted by her lover, Roseblossom becomes the wife of a forester, with whom she lives for a time in such perfect happiness that she cannot survive his death. The elves bewail the fate of their Queen, and curse love as fatal to peace and happiness. The personnel will appear in next week's Tribune.

Is Navy Recruiting Officer.

Cornad Hedén, formerly of New London, writes concerning his activities as recruiting officer for the Navy. He states that he and another officer are in charge of a recruiting station at Virginia, Minn. "How long I will be here, I cannot say—it may be two weeks or six months. It is impossible to find out anything definite in regard to what they are going to do with me. I am sending five boys from here to tomorrow. I noticed Kandiyohi county's honor roll is getting large."

—Hugo Hoglund was a business caller in the cities the last of the week.

TELEPHONE COMPANY RAISES TWO COMPANIES

Three Willmar Boys For Camp and Field Telephone Service in U. S. Army.

Nearly six hundred telephone men in this territory volunteered for the two signal corps companies the telephone people are raising. From this number 200 will be chosen. Those will be taken who are best fitted for the work, which will be largely the building and maintenance of camp and field telephone lines. Among the number accepted are Manley Holt and J. J. Kelly of the local force, and Paul Holt of this city, who is attached to the St. Cloud District.

Government officials, in asking for volunteers for the Signal Service, emphasized the fact that at this time it is very important that the telephone service throughout the country be kept at a high rate of efficiency. For this reason, they say it should not be unduly crippled by too many men leaving for army work who are needed to keep up the service at home. A number of men volunteered for the Signal Corps, telephone officials assert, who cannot be accepted because they are needed to keep this service in operation.

All men who enter the signal service will be given their present full pay for a year by the telephone company, less what they receive from the government. These men will also retain their disability and death insurance benefits from the telephone company while away, and will be re-employed when they return.

Telephone employees here have received instructions to give any local or long distance telephone message relating to military matters precedence over all other calls. The installation of any equipment to be used for military work is also to be given preference over installation for private parties.

Any telephone calls to or from government or state officials relating to federal or state troops, army supplies or Red Cross work come under the handling instructions regarding the handling of military messages or installation of equipment.

—Announcements have been received in this city of the marriage of Tillie Katherine, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Kulzer of Valley, Wash., and Roy E. Hattrup, which happy event occurred on May 2.

WILLMAR BOYS ACCEPTED FOR AVIATION CORPS

Russell Cutter Realizes Ambition to Become Aviator and Will Serve Uncle Sam.

Russell Cutter, nineteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Cutter of this city has realized his life's ambition to become an aviator. When he was declared, he made application for admission with the aviation forces, with strong endorsements, and the other day he was summoned to Minneapolis for examination. Yesterday his father received word that his son had passed the examination and is on his way to Jefferson Barracks, from which place he will be sent to the training field.

Kuntz-Crosby.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Crosby was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Sunday afternoon, when their only daughter, Miss Olive Margaret, was given in marriage to Mr. Otto H., only son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kuntz of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Horatio Gates of Milwaukee, Wis., at two-thirty, in the presence of only the immediate families and a few intimate friends of bride and groom.

A program of nuptial music was given by Mrs. Walter B. Crosby, Miss Marion Minton and Miss Ida Sanderson, as follows: "Stella D'Amour," violin, Elgar; "Until," voice, Sanderson; "Spring Song," violin and piano, Mendelssohn; "I Asked the Sun," voice, Allen. The bride party entered the living room, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. W. B. Crosby and Miss Sanderson. The groom awaited the bride at an improvised altar of ferns, hydrangeas and primroses, lighted by tall cathedral candles. The groom's only attendant was Walter Wilson, Baldwin, who carried the ring in the heart of a lily. The bride's niece, little Jane Crosby, the flower girl, preceded her. Miss Crosby was attired in a traveling suit of midnight blue poplin, and black tailored hat. She wore a corsage bouquet of white sweet peas and sweetheart roses.

While the vows were being spoken, Rubinstein's melody in F, suggestive of the bride's class song at St. Mary's Hall, formed a soft accompaniment. While the bride and groom were receiving the congratulations of their guests, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played. The luncheon was served at small tables.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuntz left later in the afternoon on a wedding trip. They will make their home in this city. Both young people have hosts of friends with whom the Tribune joins in extending heartiest congratulations.
