MAJESTIC THEATRE

Marguerite Clark in "Miss George Washington" will be shown at the Majestic on Friday, September 14. The mention of the name of George Washington probably recalls more vividly to mind the cherry tree incident than the fact that he was the "Father of His Country," so thoroly has that story been instilled into the minds of the youth of this country. Therefore the announcement that Marguerite Clark is starred by the Famous Players in the Paramount picture "Miss George Washington," conjures up one of the two pictures—a girl who cannot tell a lie, or a girl who cannot tell the truth.

Lovisa Gloom as a sagesbrush siren in her latest Triangle play "Golden Rule Kate" will be the feature at the Majestic Theatre, Saturday, September 15. She appears as the proprietress of the "Right-Light" saloon and dance hall in a western mining town. One of the most exciting and humorous moments of the play is supplied when Golden Rule Kate orders one of the cow punchers to go forth, lasso the village preacher and drag him into the dance hall.

Gail Kane in "The Upper Crust" is the picture for Monday, September 17. A housemaid, who broke thru the chilly upper crust of society, is the role enacted by the fascinating Mutual star in this her latest feature. She is Molly O'Toole, sent to open the magnificent Maine cottage of the wealthy Mrs. Todd, and who is mistaken for the mistress of the house herself. With the entrance of a young man applying for the position of chauffeur, the matter becomes delightfully complicated, and the ensuing solution quite unexpected.

"Souls Adrift" is the picture at the Majestic on Tuesday, September 18. Ethel Clayton, of the glorious Titan hair, in a thrilling tale of a shipwreck, a desert island and the love of a life time with the handsome Milton Sills playing opposite her.

"Wooden Shoes" will be shown on Wednesday, Sept. 19. Bessie Barriscale, as a quaint little Dutch flower girl in a charming romance of the love of a young artist for his pretty model. In the tiny Dutch village of Diepenveen lived "Pampy" upon whose shoulders rested the burden of an invalid father. She was so beautiful that a young American artist who saw her selling flowers asked her to pose for him, and the friendship thus formed ripened into love.

BREAKS WORLD'S RECORD.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 8—Seventy-nine tons of iron ore handled per minute! That is the record of one transportation line in Minnesota in its effort to overcome the obstacles that have been thrown in the way of maximum production of the Minnesota iron mines for the war industries of the United States.

It constitutes a world's record for handling ore and represents the average not for one hour or one day, but for the entire thirty-one days of the month of July, statistics of which have just been compiled. This means that this railroad with its dock system, running from the Minnesota mines to the Lake Superior ore boat terminal at Duluth, handled an average of 4,762 tons of ore per hour or a total of 3,543,874 gross tons for the month.

SWIFT'S FIRST DRAFT RECRUITS.

The Swift County contingent of recruits passed thru Willmar last Saturday, enroute for the training camp at Des Moines. They were given a rousing "sendoff" at Benson, where an immense crowd gathered to bid them Godspeed. The boys in the party were the following: Lester A. Hancock, Appleton; Jas. F. Reynolds, Clontarf; Elmer L. Perrin, Kerkhoven; J. Ross McDaniel, Benson; John C. McNellis, DeGraft; Nels A. Moline, Benson; Wm. V. Cruze, Benson; Ed. S. Flaten, Benson; Peter Newhouse, Benson; Adolph Berg, Kerkhoven; Wilton Olson, Kerkhoven; J. A. Foote, Kerkhoven.

IS THIS DISLOYALTY?

There has been considerable comment in the big press of the country to the effect that the Farmers' Non-Partisan League is disloyal to our government in the present war. To set any one right who so believes we below reprint a letter from Mr. A. C. Townley, President of the organization, which speaks for itself:

Dear Organizer: Just a few words about our work. In the present crisis in which our country is involved, we must always remember that we are American citizens—first, last and all the time. The United States is our country, the flag that floats above it is our flag, and we stand ready at all times to pour our blood and treasure in defending and safeguarding it against all foes.

The one great dominating trait of our nation is that the people believe in the supremacy of the law. This country is based upon democratic principles; therefore whether laws be good or bad, they are of OUR making, OUR public officials have been invested with power by us, and the strength of this nation lies in the unity with which its citizens render obedience to the laws of the country, and to the duly authorized officials in their administration of the laws.

While our country is now at war with the most powerful military autocracy in the world, we should not, by word or act do anything that in any measure will give aid or comfort to the enemy. At the same time we are not blind to the fact that we have enemies within our own country. These are those who wrap themselves in the flag and cry "traitor" against anyone who dares to expose their nefarious schemes and infamous plans. They are the ones, who, by the war, are making exorbitant profits at the nation's expense. They refuse to have wealth placed on a par with human life, and cry traitor against all who conscript war profits in this, our nation's need.

These enemies are the real traitors; they are the ones who are giving aid and comfort to our enemies abroad; they are the pro-Germans; for by their acts they are weakening their fellow countrymen thru raising the cost of living until we are unable to exert our full strength in this war.

In discussing the war, whenever it becomes necessary for you to do so, you can render a real service to your country and our organization by advocating that our government conscript every dollar of war profits, and levy upon wealth, to carry the financial burden of the war through income and inheritance taxes. No matter what or who was cause of this war it is enough to know that we are now engaged in war and that our nation necessities require service from all according to their capacity.

Only thus can the world be made safe for democracy. Not a single disloyal word or act will be tolerated by the NATIONAL NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE. Organization is what we are after, for only by and through organization can lasting peace and happiness be assured.

Mr. Foster also recommended the election of Miss Laura M. Peterson, a teacher of Norwegian, History and Latin at a salary of $90 per month and Miss Ora Hoy as teacher of 6th grade, Central building at a salary of $85.00 per month, and upon motion duly made and carried the said teachers were so elected at the respective salaries named.

The whales are plentiful. They have at present on hand about 13,200 barrels of oil and 450 tons of guano. Before the season is over they will have from 16,000 to 17,000 barrels of oil and 800 to 1,000 tons of guano. The weather is not pleasant. If there are any more slackers in this community they had better lay low.—Hector Mirror.

A LETTER FROM FRANCE.

Wm. Gilger of Willmar, father of Mrs. J. Wein of this city received a number of letters from a friend in the French army who speaks with nothing but praise for the American boys who have come to help them. He says they are fearless of danger and their courage has given the almost discouraged French soldier new spirit. He also says no American will ever realize the wonderful good the American Red Cross is doing.—Renville Star-Farmer.

WHERE THE BOYS WILL BE TRAINED

Conditions at Camp Dodge, Where Kandiyohi's 140 Recruits Will Go.

[Special Correspondence to Willmar Tribune.] Division Headquarters, Thirteenth Divisional Cantonment, Camp Dodge, Sept. 4.

Camp Dodge and Des Moines are ready and waiting for the 45,712 conscript soldiers who will be trained here for the First National Overseas army, United States Expeditionary forces.

For ten days, Maj. Gen. Edward H. Plummer, commandant of the cantonment, and his aides have been on the ground, organizing the 2,500 officers who recently won their shoulder straps at Fort Snelling and other training camps, to take charge of the civilian "mob" and whip it into a military organization "over night."

Barracks are ready for the complete housing of the first increment of 2,500, the vanguard of the main force. These first 2,500 will form the skeleton of the division to be trained here. They will be in camp and "at it" by September 10. The second increment of forty per cent will follow on September 19. Another forty per cent will follow soon after the first of October and the remainder as soon thereafter as possible.

Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and North Dakota are not sending their conscript soldiers to forced communion with the cows and chickens in Iowa's pastoral fields, to be isolated from the warmth of the city. Neither will they be set down in the middle of temptations that usually becken in the city.

Camp Dodge, their home for the winter, is just ten miles from the city of Des Moines with its population of 106,000. It is thirty miles ride on the interurban and the soldiers will be given fifteen minute service if they require it.

Des Moines is exceedingly "dry." It went "dry" three years ago by the voluntary vote of the city council. Councilmen, for the first time in a city of any size in the country, came to the conclusion that the people didn't want saloons any more. So they closed them all—and only the saloon men complained.

Bootlegging is at a minimum. "Booze" will be at a greater premium when the two companies of 300 conscript soldiers go on duty patrolling not only the city, but the roads and avenues leading to the cantonment.

Des Moines abolished her red light district six years ago. She wiped it out clean. She also bars cabarets but she has no objection to Sunday theatres and amusements. And to see that vice conditions do not deteriorate with the arrival of the soldiers, Mayor John MacVicar has created a special "vice squad" whose single duty is to keep on the lid.

Des Moines has made great preparations to treat his soldier boys right. There are seventeen committees at work all the time, each assigned to a special task directed toward the care and comfort of the conscripts.

One of the committees was assigned to transportation. Its first accomplishment was to secure a reduction in interurban fare of from twenty to ten cents for soldiers. Civilians will continue to pay twenty cents. Another committee has opened two large soldiers' clubs in the downtown district where thousands of books will be available for the enlisted men. An other committee, composed of the leading business men of the town, stands ready to see that prices remain the same, both to the soldier and the civilian. Another committee is listing every available hotel room and apartment house and will maintain a public bureau to find quarters for the relatives and friends who come to visit the soldiers.

The cantonment is situated in the Valley of the Des Moines river, stretching over 4,000 acres of Iowa's prize farm land. One thousand acres of growing corn was destroyed in the building. Starting at the fashionable Hyperion golf club, the cantonment extends three miles up the valley which Major Abadie, chief supervising quartermaster of the war department, said furnished the best cantonment site in the United States. The great wooden barracks for the soldiers, two stories high and built to house 250 men each, stretch in rows of four for two miles.

There are 194 of the soldier barracks and when the entire camp is completed, more than 2,000 wooden buildings, stretching out farther than the eye can see, will stand in the valley.

Camp Dodge has been awarded a remount station where 5,000 horses and mules will be cared for.

The physical welfare of the soldiers will be more carefully safeguarded than at any other cantonment. The government is constructing a huge base hospital at the cantonment to care for 1,500 patients. In addition, it has turned Fort Des Moines, the regimental army post near Des Moines, into a general hospital where some of the leading surgeons and physicians of the United States will serve their country.

Troops will be furnished as follows by the various states: Minnesota 17,854 Iowa 12,749 Illinois 9,366 North Dakota 5,806

Maj. Gen. Edward H. Plummer, division commandant, came from the canal zone to take charge at Camp Dodge. He was in command of the troops there. He comes with a record as one of the best fighters and most efficient officers in the United States army. Brigadier Generals W. D. Beach and C. C. Ballou will command infantry brigades. The latter is now in command of the negro training school at Fort Des Moines. Eric

PATRIOTISM

Patriotism and Thrift are inseparable. This is as true as that the good citizen is the patriotic and dependable citizen. The saving man believes in and practices economy and discipline; is a man of discretion because he spends his money wisely. The man who saves his money is always equipped—patriotic, thrifty and saving—is the most useful of all citizens to his country in time of need.

COLD SPRING CREAMERY BURNED

A most disastrous fire occurred in this village at midnight on Sunday, and as a result the Cold Spring creamery, owned by Henry Vogt is in ruins. The fire was discovered by Chris Dreppon at about a quarter before one. He immediately sent in the alarm and within a few minutes the fire department was out and had a stream of water playing on the building. Only one hose could be laid owing to the distance of the creamery from the nearest hydrant. The fire had gained too much headway however and it was impossible to save anything and the building and contents were destroyed. The building was insured for $2,200, this sum including the machinery, etc. The fire is of unknown origin but evidently started from the boiler which had been used in the evening for operating the cream cooler.—Cold Spring Record.

The deceased was born in this vicinity.

The funeral was held yesterday morning from the Indian Presbyterian church, of which he was a member. Rev. G. Melby officiating.—Granite Falls Journal.
