Men, Women and Things

Frank M. Eddy.

If you'd have time fly, pass swiftly by. The very best of ways, is to buy a coat and give your note Made due in sixty days.

The principal part of the world's worry is about things that never happen.

The only difference between the boys of 1861 and the boys of 1917 is 56 years.

The ones that are kicking the hardest against the action of the United States in this crisis are the ones who have received the most favors from Uncle Sam.

Possibly it would not be a bad idea to make a liberal appropriation to buy gas masks for congressmen.

There is no disloyalty among the mothers whose sons are wearing the uniform of their country or among girls whose sweethearts are fighting for the flag.

The only consistent thing about a woman is the constancy of her inconsistency.

"A cat may look upon a King" but any self-respecting cat would hate to look upon some of the present day kings.

It looks incongruous to see a woman clad in full masculine habiliments wearing a veil.

"Mamma," inquired a little girl, "were you ever acquainted with papa before you married him?" "Certainly," replied the mother. "Then," said the precocious child, "I don't see how in the world you came to marry him."

Grandparents think the pranks perpetrated by their own grand-children are "awfully cute," yet they soundly whipped their own children for doing the same things.

It is the common, ordinary people that make existence possible, yet a man or a woman has to be very good or very bad before they attract any attention.

We are saddest when we sing and that is the same with the people who listen to us sing.

The first violet of the springtime is just as lonely as the last rose of summer.

It was an "awful waste" of time for Diogenes to take a lantern and go hunting through the streets of Athens for an honest man. All he needed to have done would have been to have asked the first man he met on the street where he could find one and he would have been told: "I am an honest guy myself."

An employer ought not to expect his employee to be as good a man as he is; if he was he would be working for himself.

The old English common law read: A man may whip his wife provided he does not use a stick larger than his thumb and does not strike her on the head or noble parts of the body." If there had been White House pickets in those days it would have read: "He can use a stick as large as his arm and hit her anywhere."

Those guys, who at the present time are so busy criticizing Uncle Sam ought to bear in mind that there is no law forbidding them to move outside his jurisdiction.

It is impossible for a man to be so bad that a woman will not feel flattered if he falls in love with her.

There are a lot of fellows who think that it is their conscience that keeps them out of the army when it is only their cowardice.

"The woman who declares that she says 'just what she thinks' is usually the one who always says just what she doesn't think.

Feminine muscularity developed over a washboard is of much more value to the world than that developed by playing tennis.

There is many a working man who thinks he is poor who could sell his appetite for a million dollars if such a thing were possible.

TELEGRAPHERS WANTED. Six hundred telegraphers are needed by the United States Signal Corps from Minnesota. Several schools and Y. M. C. A.'s already have classes started to train those who have an inclination for this branch of military service—a most important one. Others are preparing to do so. The Dunwoody Institute in Minneapolis is the most prominent one at present. Y. M. C. A.'s of Duluth and Cloquet also have classes. The men of the second and third draft, who are interested in this branch of service, will do well to begin their preliminary training at once.—Minnesota Public Safety Commission.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS. It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life. If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excitable; if you feel languid, weary or depressed; you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes such conditions. It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength. Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol. (Paid advertisement.)

Advertisement for Calumet Baking Powder. Includes illustration of a woman and child, and text: 'Always Welcome. This little rascal—played along the way, didn't you? Keep grandma waiting! Oh well, it's all right. Because CALUMET BAKING POWDER is always right. It's worth waiting for. Always welcome. Never shirks its work. Never fails. Never wastes minutes or materials and I know it's pure and wholesome, as Calumet contains only such ingredients as have been approved officially by the U. S. Food Authorities. You save when you buy it—you save when you use it. HIGHEST Quality Awards.'

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.

Default having been made in the condition of that certain mortgage duly executed and delivered by Anton M. Anderson and Augusta C. Anderson, his wife, Mortgages, to C. E. Holm, doing business under the firm name of Monson Brothers and Holm, Mortgages, bearing date the 18th day of March, 1915, with power of sale therein contained, duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Kandiyohi and State of Minnesota, on the 9th day of April, 1915, at 11:30 o'clock a.m., in Book No. 49 of Mortgages, on Page 427, by which said default the power of sale therein contained has become operative, and no action or proceeding at law having been instituted to recover the debt secured thereby, or any part thereof;

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try it! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderuff.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderuff. Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scrub rids the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots fall out and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Danderuff from any drug store and just try it.

And whereas there is claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date hereof, and is hereby declared by said Mortgages to be due on said mortgage, the sum of One Thousand One Hundred Forty-one and 89/100 ($1,141.89) Dollars, principal and interest.

NOW THEREFORE, Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said Mortgage, and pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided, the said Mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in and conveyed thereby, to-wit: The West half of the northeast quarter (NW1-2) of NE1-4 and the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter (NW1-4 of SE1-4) of Section Eight (8); the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter (SW1-4 of SW1-4) of Section Nine (9); the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter (NW1-4 of NW1-4) of Section Sixteen (16); and the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter (NE1-4 of NW1-4) of Section Seventeen (17); all in Township one Hundred Twenty-one (121), Range Thirty-three (33) in Kandiyohi county, Minnesota, containing Two Hundred Forty (240) acres, by the same more or less, according to the United States Government Survey thereof.

Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezeone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callus, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain. A small bottle of freezeone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin. If your druggist hasn't any freezeone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.'
