WHAT THE PRESS HAS TO SAY:

"Politikken", Copenhagen, Denmark 1913—Skarning's Concert last night at the Theatre Hall was held for "sold out" house. Mr. Skarning proved himself to be an unparalleled virtuoso on his instrument. Mrs. Skarning, Soprano filled brilliant the big hall, etc.

"Karlsted Tidning", Karlsted, Sweden, 1913—Mr. Skarning proved himself to be an artist of his instrument (accordion), etc.

"Sveriges Ostrom", Archangelsk, Russia, 1914.—We in unison with the international press: He is at the present time the greatest accordion soloist (Garonist).

1917, "Staats Zeitung", Chicago, Ill.—To the finish Mr. and Mrs. Skarning played from Per Gynt Suite (E. Grieg). "Death of Asse" and "Anitra Dance". The artist simply left the audience in wild enthusiasm.

"Madison State Journal"—Mr. Skarning played well-known Compositions of various noted Norwegian Composers and showed himself a master in the technique.

"Borgens Aftenblad", Norway.—Mr. Skarning is a marvelous player. He is surely the most wonderful performer on that instrument in the world today.

"Tidens Tegn", Norway.—Now as many times before Mr. Skarning showed himself as a master on the accordion.

OBITUARY

MABEL SWENSON.

Miss Mabel Swenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Swenson, died Sunday, February 10 in Minneapolis. She was born Sept. 28, 1891, in Norway Lake township, and grew up to womanhood at her parental home.

Mabel was one of the few quiet unassuming ladies, was a good attentive scholar at school showing great ambition, was a member of the Young People's society, aiding greatly with her readings and songs. She was a talented and accomplished pianist. A valuable member of the choir. She was her sisters' and brothers' good companion and her mother's and father's pride. Was confirmed Feb. 15, 1906 by Rev. J. S. Halstead at the Lutheran church. When grown to womanhood, she left for the cities to shift for herself. She made good but never forgot to pay her regular visits to her home.

She was taken ill January 31, with scarlet fever. On Saturday, Feb. 9, a telephone message to her folks advised them of her illness, and her sister, Anna and brothers, Melvin and Ed, responded immediately. They left for Minneapolis on Sunday morning. On their arrival, she knew them and tried to reach her weak arm for a hand grasp but her sickness being of such nature she was unable to do so. She was brought home for burial on Wednesday and laid to rest at the East Norway Lake cemetery on Feb. 15, where four grandparents and one brother are resting. Rev. M. A. Sotendahl officiated. An unusually large gathering of relatives and friends were present to partake of the last sad rites. The beautiful display of flowers was contributed by the following: Mrs. O. M. Mankel, Mrs. O. M. Berg, Mrs. Fred Lamphire, Anna and Lydia Swenson.

This was the second funeral in this family in two weeks, her grandmother, Mrs. Agard was buried on Jan. 22. The pall bearers were Carl Mostue, John Berg, Martin Stene, Leonard Rustad, Julius Skaalrud and Cornel Halstead.

MABEL SWENSON.

We shall miss you in the church And at our homes Underneath The sod we placed you When the snows melt away Sweetest memory Be with you In your still and silent tomb Yes, Miss Swenson We shall miss you In the church And in our homes. Also beg leave to quote Mabel's favorite song: When the cares of life have ended And I cross the silent stream As I reach the heavenly portal And its glories on me beam. I shall hear the song of welcome And praise Him that gird meeting; Precious that it thrills me now I shall hear him bid me welcome Feel his kiss upon my brow. There I'll sing the song of Zion And praise Him that gird meeting. There I'll shout hallelujahs Safe within the heavenly fold. —Contributed.

SABBATH SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT CAMPAIGN.

The Presbyterian church has over one hundred Sabbath school missionaries in the United States, one of whom is Rev. Thomas Scott, who has made Willmar his headquarters for the past two years. The following report for November and December of last year which is given below shows the kind of work these men are doing. Rev. Scott is seventh year superintendent for the Missionary Board, receiving his commission July 1, 1912. His field is St. Cloud Presbytery—fourteen counties—10,000 square miles.

OAKLAND SENSIBLE SIX

Unusual Service and Savings

Many a man who can well afford a car much higher in price is buying an Oakland Sensible Six today, because the car fully serves his need without imposing any penalty of unnecessary cost.

Light in weight, ample in power, simple and enduring in construction, economical in action, any Oakland Sensible Six model represents a saving both in its purchase and in its operation. The high efficiency of its famous 44 h. p. engine, delivering one full horse-power to every 48 pounds of this car's weight, makes it exceedingly capable under all conditions.

We believe you will be well pleased with the full body comfort of its roomy body sprung on long, slow-acting, semi-elliptic springs. The appearance of the Oakland Sensible Six is quite in keeping with its ability and it is in every respect a car well calculated to arouse your honest pride.

DREAMLAND.

The "Perfection Pictures" star, Taylor Holmes, will be seen at Dreamland Thursday in one of his best five reel feature comedies, entitled "The Small Town Guy," in which he plays the part of a village greenhorn—yet not too green to make two city crooks see red. It is said to be a scream from start to finish. In addition to the feature picture, the Animated Weekly will be shown; also one of the popular Athlete series of pictures, and a two reel Keystone comedy. A long program, but an exceptionally good one, and all at regular prices—10c and 15c.

A great deal has been written and printed about the picture, "I Believe," but a fair conception of it can only be obtained by seeing it on the screen. It will be shown at Dreamland Friday, matinee and evening. Critics pronounce it one of the really great pictures of the past twelve months.

The feature picture for Saturday is a patriotic production, "The Gown of Destiny," with Alma Reubens as the star. While in no sense a war picture, it has a number of intensely interesting scenes, particularly one showing the allies going "over the top" and capturing a German trench, with a visit to the home of the American boys in the army and navy. If you have not already subscribed to this fund, come prepared to give assistance to this splendid cause. Give liberally that the church may meet the duties now confronting it. All are invited to attend this meeting. Program and refreshments.

HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which, if not remedied, causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!
