WHAT THE PRESS HAS TO SAY:
"Politikeren", Copenhagen, Denmark 1913—Skarnings Concert last night at the Theatre Hall was held for "solid out" house. Mr. Skarning proved himself to be an unparalleled virtuoso on his instrument. Mrs. Skarning, Soprano filled brilliant the big hall, etc.
"Karlstad Tidning", Karlstad, Sweden, 1913—Mr. Skarning proved himself to be an artist of his instrument (accordion), etc.
"Sveriges Ostrum", Archangelsk, Russia, 1914.—We in unison with the international press: He is at the present time the greatest accordion soloist (Garmonist).
1917, "Staats-Zeitung", Chicago, Ill.—To the finish Mr. and Mrs. Skarning played from Per Gynst Suite (E. Grieg). "Death of Asse" and "Anitra Dance". The artist simply left the audience in wild enthusiasm.
"Madison State Journal"—Mr. Skarning played well-known Compositions of various noted Norwegian Composers and showed himself a master in the technique.
"Bergens Aftenblad", Norway.—Mr. Skarning is a marvelous player. He is surely the most wonderful performer on that instrument in the world today.
"Tidens Tegn", Norway.—Now as many times before Mr. Skarning showed himself as a master on the accordion.

DOLAN-TAIT.

The very pretty and simple wedding of Miss Edith Tait of Kandiyohi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tait, and Mr. Frank E. Dolan, youngest son of the late Mrs. C. E. Dolan of Danvers, Minn., took place Tuesday, Feb. 12 at 9 a.m. at the St. Paul Cathedral. Rev. Father Ryan performed the ceremony. Mrs. Frank Hoffman played the organ. The wedding party consisted of: Miss Katherine Tait of Lewiston, Montana, was her sister's maid of honor and J. C. Dolan of Minneapolis, a cousin of the groom, was best man. The bride wore a beautiful blue embroidery georgette crepe made of champagne colored silk crepe de chine and a large picture hat of champagne colored satin and braid. The only jewels she wore was a necklace of pearls, a gift of the groom, and she carried a bouquet of pink roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Katherine Tait was gowning in a taupe silk and wore a champagne hat to match.
After the ceremony, the bridal party partook of a beautiful four course wedding breakfast at the Aberdeen Hotel. Covers were laid for fourteen guests. The table decorations were pink carnations, violets and ferns. The bride party is very well known in this vicinity. The bride is a very charming and pleasing woman of strong personality and is very well liked by all who know her. She has been a most successful teacher in the public schools of Minnesota and Montana for several years past.
The groom is one of the best known and most respected farmers of Swift county, having lived there most of his life. He is a man of strong character and ability.
Mr. and Mrs. Dolan will be at home after April 1, Danvers, Minn.
Their many friends wish them much joy and happiness in their wedded life.

S. service. The evening was spent in playing games and delicious refreshments were served. The decorations were in red, white and blue, and flags.

OBITUARY

MABEL SWENSON.

Miss Mabel Swenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Swenson, died Sunday, February 10 in Minneapolis. She was born Sept. 28, 1891, in Norway Lake township, and grew up to womanhood at her parental home. Mabel was one of the few quiet unassuming ladies, was a good attentive scholar at school showing great ambition, was a member of the Young People's society, aiding greatly with her readings and songs. She was a talented singer and a valuable member of the choir. She was her sisters' and brothers' good companion and her mother's and father's pride. Was confirmed Feb. 18, 1905 by Rev. J. S. Halvorsen at the House church. When grown to womanhood, she left for the cities to shift for herself. She made good but never forgot to pay her regular visits to her home.
She was taken ill January 31, with scarlet fever. On Saturday, Feb. 9, a telephone message to her folks advised them of her illness, and her sister, Anna and brothers, Melvin and Gerhard responded immediately. They left for Minneapolis on Sunday morning. On their arrival, she knew them and tried to reach her weak arm for a hand grasp but her sickness being of such nature, she was unable to do so. She passed away Sunday evening at seven o'clock without her dear ones at her bedside, although being present at the City Hospital where she was placed for treatment. The remains were brought home for burial on Wednesday and laid to rest at the East Norway Lake cemetery on Feb. 15, where four grandparents and one brother are resting. Rev. M. A. Stoenbakk, officiating. An unusually large gathering of relatives and friends were present to partake of the last sad rites. The beautiful display of flowers testified to the esteem in which she was held. Flowers were contributed by brothers and sisters, St. Paul relatives and friends, Young People's society of St. Paul, Kerkhoven and Willmar friends, and others. A vocal solo, "Jog kan ei bedre fare," was rendered by Rev. M. A. Stoenbakk.
She is mourned by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Swenson; seven brothers, Sven, Henry, George, Otto, Melvin, Gerhard and William and five sisters, Mrs. O. A. Mankel, Mrs. O. M. Berg, Mrs. Frank Lamphiere, Anna and Lydia Swenson.
This was the second funeral in this family in two weeks, her grandmother, Mrs. Negaard was buried on Jan. 23. The pall bearers were Carl Mankel, John Berg, Martin Stone, Leonard Rustad, Julius Skaalerud and Cornel Halstad.

Mabel Swenson

And I miss you
In the church
And at our homes
Underneath
The sod we placed you
Where forget-me-nots
Sweetest memory
Be with you,
In your still and silent tomb
Yes, Mabel Swenson
We shall miss you
In the church
And in our homes.
Also beg leave to quote Mabel's favorite song:
When the cares of life have ended
And I cross the silent stream
As I reach the heavenly portal
And its glories on me beam.
I shall hear the song of welcome
As I pass within the wall
I shall see the Saviour coming
And shall know his loving call
I shall know my blessed Saviour
When he comes to greet me there
When he takes me to him gently
Bids me share his blessings share.
I shall hear his voice so tender
And his kindly face shall see
I shall rest upon his bosom
Praise Him thru Eternity.
Oh, the joy of that glad meeting;
I shall hear him bid me welcome
Feel his kiss upon my brow.
There I'll sing the song of Zion
There with Saints, communion hold
There I'll stand with angels
Safe within the heavenly fold.

SABBATH SCHOOL

IMPROVEMENT CAMPAIGN
The Presbyterian church has over one hundred Sabbath school missionaries in the United States, one of whom is Rev. Thomas Scott, who has made Willmar his headquarters for twenty years. The following report was given for November and December of last year which is given below shows the kind of work these men are doing. Rev. Scott is seventh in years of service for the Missionary Board, receiving his commission July 1, 1892. His field is St. Cloud Presbytery—fourteen counties—10,000 square miles.
Sunday school workers' conferences

The figures would have been much larger but for the unfavorable weather conditions which have practically paralyzed all activities in rural districts. Our slogan is "Better American citizenship" and the teaching of the Bible in the Sabbath school.

CORPORAL ANDERSON HERE.

Corporal Knute W. Anderson, of Camp Dodge, Iowa, arrived Saturday for a week's visit with his father, Andrew, and brother and sister, Mattson. Knute was drafted from Nelson county, North Dakota. He is well-known in this city, having attended the Seminary two years ago and also assisted in teaching bookkeeping there a term.

WILL YOU BE ONE?

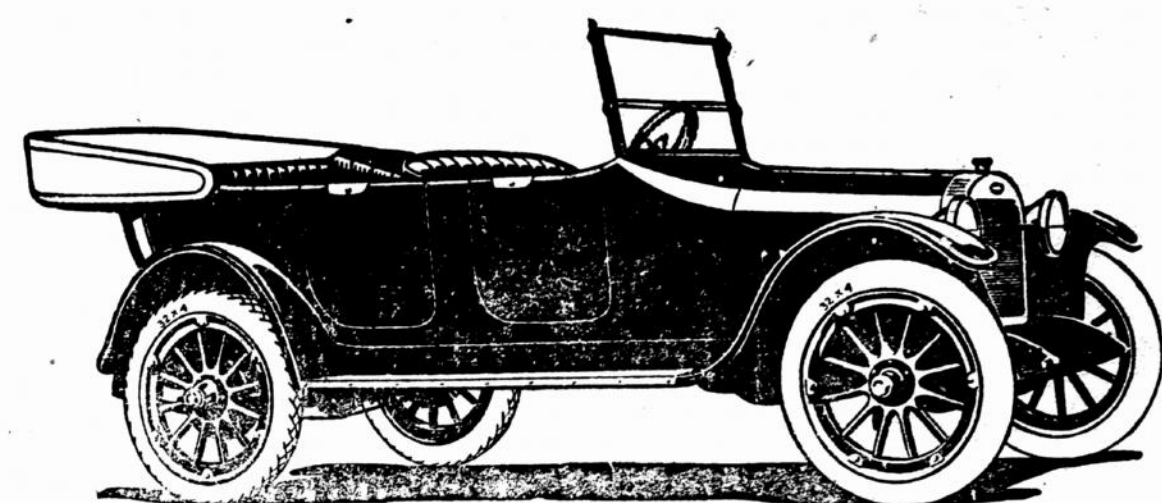

Thousands of thoughtless people neglect colds every winter. A cough follows; they get rundown—then stubborn sickness sets in. Sickness can be prevented easier than it can be cured and if you will give your system the benefit of a few bottles of you will find your whole system strengthened. It will fortify your lungs and throat and enrich your blood against rheumatism. It is powerful concentrated nourishment without alcohol or opiates. Don't neglect taking Scott's—commence today.

The imported Norwegian cod liver oil always used in Scott's Emulsion is now refined in our own American laboratories which guarantees it free from impurities.

OAKLAND SENSIBLE SIX

Unusual Service and Savings

Many a man who can well afford a car much higher in price is buying an Oakland Sensible Six today, because the car fully serves his need without imposing any penalty of unnecessary cost.

Light in weight, ample in power, simple and enduring in construction, economical in action, any Oakland Sensible Six model represents a saving both in its purchase and in its operation.

The high efficiency of its famous 44 h. p. engine, delivering one full horse-power to every 48 pounds of this car's weight, makes it exceedingly capable under all conditions.

We believe you will be well pleased with the full family comfort of its roomy body swung on long, slow-acting, semi-elliptic springs. The appearance of the Oakland Sensible Six is quite in keeping with its ability and it is in every respect a car well calculated to arouse your honest pride.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to hereby express our most heartfelt and sincere thanks to the friends who showed us their sympathy in our sad bereavement by the death of our dear daughter and sister Mabel; also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunder Swenson, Mrs. O. A. Mankel, Henry Swenson, George Swenson, Mrs. M. Berg, Anna Swenson, Otto Swenson, Melvin Swenson, Gerhard Swenson, Lydia Swenson, Mrs. Fred Lamphiere, William Swenson.

DREAMLAND.

The "Perfection Pictures" star, Taylor Holmes, will be seen at Dreamland Thursday in one of his best five reel feature comedies, entitled, "The Small Town Guy," in which he plays the part of a village greenhorn—yet not too green to make two city crooks see red. It is said to be a scream from start to finish. In addition to the feature picture, the Animated Weekly will be shown; also one of the popular Athletic series of pictures, and a two reel Keystone comedy. A long program, but an exceptionally good one, and all at regular prices—10c and 16c.

Save your Hair!

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A Little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a Little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

—Mrs. N. M. Gabrielson returned on Monday night from a visit in Minneapolis and Lake Minnetonka.

—Al Selvig returned Saturday from a few days' visit with friends in St. Paul.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.
