MUSIC FOR PALE SUNDAY.
The musical program at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, March 24, will be as follows:
Prelude, "The Palmers".....Faure
Hymn.....Congregation
Offertory, "Spring Song".....Mendelssohn
Oratorio, "The Holy City".....Gaul
Soloists, Chorus and Organ
Postlude, "Hallelujah Chorus".....Handel
Mrs. G. M. Robbins, Organist.
Henry E. Mer, Director.

The Holy City consists of fifteen numbers all of which will be given Sunday evening. Solo, duet, trio, and quartet choruses rival one another for pleasing melody and gracious setting of the religious truths presented by the text. The public is invited.

GAME NEXT THURSDAY.
The third of the series of High School-Seminary basketball games will be played at the high school gymnasium on Thursday evening of this week. This game will decide which will play the City team and no doubt, will be an interesting one and a good crowd is looked for.

Atty. George H. Otterness is seriously ill with pneumonia at his home. His place at the court is being filled by Atty. C. A. Fosnes of Montevideo.

NEW LONDON

The funeral of the late Rev. Paulson will be conducted by Rev. Paulson at three p.m., on Friday, March 22, from the Swedish Mission church with interment in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hanson and son Bernhard of Maimo, Minnesota and Mr. and Mrs. Lars Larson and baby of Minneapolis were out-of-town relatives in attendance Friday at the Lars Hanson funeral.

Saturday, some of the boys from New London school went to Osakis and played basketball with the Osakis high school team there. At the end of the second half the score stood 28-18 in favor of Osakis.

Miss Dora Lawson took our aged friend, Mrs. Charley Carlson to Willmar Thursday, leaving her in the care of Mrs. V. E. Lawson, a niece of Mrs. Carlson's. Owing to ill health, Miss Dora is obliged to close up her home here for a time and seek medical aid.

The local Red Cross branch this week solicits clean surplus clothing of all sizes for men, women and children for Belgian relief. Kindly leave same at Council room where things are being assembled for shipment Friday. Remember, too that your old auto license number does you no good but if left at the Gustafson garage it will help a bit toward a Red Cross fund.

In spite of the bad roads, a large number of people attended the Farmers' Big Red Cross auction at New London, on Thursday. The success of the sale was due in no small measure to the splendid work of a very able auctioneer, Mr. R. C. Severid. The local business men provided a splendid free lunch at noon served by Red Cross ladies, to all contributors and their families. The free moving pictures proved a good drawing card. The sale on farm produce included everything of value, from knitting needles to loads of hay. One article of special interest was a five pound jar of butter made and contributed by Mrs. Mary Geer of Burbank, age 86. Bidding was brisk and total proceeds amounted to over $400.
