

PRINCE ALBERT

the national joy smoke

NEVER was such right-handed-two-fisted smokejoy as you puff out of a merry pipe packed with Prince Albert! That's because P. A. has the quality!

You can't fool your taste apparatus any more than you can get five aces out of a family deck! So, when you hit Prince Albert, coming and going, and get up half an hour earlier just to start stoking your pipe or rolling cigarettes, you know you've got the big prize on the end of your line!

Prince Albert's quality alone puts it in a class of its own, but when you figure that P. A. is made by our exclusive patented process that cuts out bite and parch—well—you feel like getting a flock of dictionaries to find enough words to express your happy days sentiments!

Sore Throat

"You may not look upon it seriously, but a sore throat indicates a weakness in the bronchial tubes. If neglected it may soon develop into some chronic complaint. People who are troubled in this way are most susceptible to influenza, contract pneumonia readily, and fall easy victims to consumption.

To remove this irritation, soothe and heal the inflamed membrane, there is nothing equal to

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

It gives tone to the weakened tissues of the throat, strengthens the bronchial tubes, and at the same time builds up the system. When the throat is healthy, influenza or consumption germs cannot obtain a foothold. Above all things never neglect a child's throat, for it may mean years of suffering for it in after years."

WORKING PEOPLE ARE ORGANIZING

Enthusiastic Meetings Are Being Held at Many Places in State.

The busiest week since its organization of meetings and general activity has just been passed by the Minnesota Working People's Nonpartisan Political League.

Speakers addressed gatherings in nearly every part of the state and were enthusiastically received. A large addition has been made to the membership. The larger meetings were at Albert Lea, Mankato, Moorhead, Fergus Falls, Alexandria and Glenwood.

Among the speakers were William Mahoney, St. Paul, state president of the league and also president of St. Paul Trades and Labor assembly; Thomas Van Lear, farmer mayor of Minneapolis and secretary of the state league, and George W. Lawson, St. Paul, secretary of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor.

All these labor leaders have more invitations to speakers and will explain the work and purpose of the political league than it is possible for them to fill.

Two other speakers spent all of the past week in northwestern Minnesota addressing large meetings.

Branch state headquarters now are open on the fourth floor of the Dakota building in St. Paul. Rooms formerly occupied by the legislative bureau of the United Farmers have been turned over to the league for the transaction of its growing business.

State headquarters in the Security Bank building, Minneapolis, are one of the busiest centers in the state. Hundreds of inquiries daily are received about the league and its work. Many of these come from outside states.

Encouraged by the overwhelming victory won in the Minnesota street railway franchise fight, the league officials now are concentrating their main attention on the coming municipal campaign in St. Paul. When a meeting or city committee of any character will be elected. The primary election to nominate two candidates for each office will be held in March. The final election will be in May.

The filing of nominating petitions will begin January 2. Any citizen then can file a petition proposing his choice of a candidate for any of the positions to be filled. When a candidate receives 50 petitions his name goes on the ballot at the primary election, unless he declines to run. From all those on the ballot at the primary election the two receiving the highest vote for each office will continue in the campaign until the final election in May.

The St. Paul branch of the political league intends to have a ticket in the field of candidates for all offices. A nominating committee now is at work and will report at a close job. After Saturday night of the 200 delegates representing all unions and railroad brotherhoods in the city affiliated with the league. The action of the convention then will be referred to the unions and brotherhoods for approval by the membership.

It is planned to have four candidates for councilmen chosen from the ranks of organized labor. J. M. Clancy, present councilman and former president of the St. Paul Trades and Labor assembly, will be one of the four on the labor ticket. A. E. Smith, a member of the state executive committee of the league, likely will be another. The other two candidates for councilman will be chosen from the ranks of the St. Paul Trades and Labor assembly, is strongly favored for one of the places.

Mr. Smith was a candidate on the labor ticket in 1918 for councilman, but was defeated by a close vote. After election he brought a contest on the ground that there were frauds and votes were improperly counted. The frauds were proven and three men were serving prison sentences at Stillwater for the ballot fraud. While another is at liberty on bail awaiting the supreme court's decision on his appeal from a conviction in district court.

Little doubt but that Mr. Smith was elected and would now be one of the councilmen in St. Paul if there had been an honest campaign and fair election. The fact that he was defeated on election last year has made the labor forces more determined than ever to see that he gets a square deal in the coming campaign. The league already is making arrangements to see that the ballot-box stuffing of 1918 is prevented and that labor men to office will be repeated.

In addition to placing four union men in the field as candidates for councilmen the league also proposes to endorse a strong progressive outside the labor ranks for mayor and two candidates for the other places in the council who are not affiliated with organized labor.

Action along this line will not be taken until after all candidates have been presented.

The league also will be active in the Minneapolis city campaign, which will be a reality in all next year. The strength of the league in that city was shown by the vote on the proposed street car franchise, which was opposed by the league and defeated by a majority of nearly 7,000 votes.

Further, the league is to take part in the state, congressional and legislative campaigns.

Organization work now is well under way in all parts of the state and officials of the league are devoting a considerable part of their time to formulating campaign plans and otherwise getting ready for some of the liveliest political fights ever seen in Minnesota.

Loize place Wednesday night was well attended, all had a very good time.

Wm. McLaughlin has finished his job keeping score of the sugar beets that were shipped out this fall from Raymond. All beets were harvested except ten acres, seven belonging to George Straka and three to D. Holtzman. The beets froze in the ground and could not be lifted.

Special W. C. T. U. Meeting. A special W. C. T. U. meeting will be held Tuesday, Dec. 30 at the home of Mrs. Leonard Johnson, 807, 5th St. at 8 P. M. Mrs. Farnell will finish giving report of the National W. C. T. U. convention held at St. Louis, Mo. Refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to all.
