OBITUARY
Frank W. Nelson died at Bethesda Hospital, at St. Paul, Minn., on March 12, 1920. He had been partially paralyzed for the past eight years and went to St. Paul last October to seek medical aid at the Bethesda Hospital. About a month ago he was taken ill with influenza. This malady left him in such a weakened condition that vitality gradually failed him. Frank was born on the Nelson homestead on Sept. 4, 1878, where he grew to manhood. He was quiet, unassuming and industrious, faithful to his home as well as to his friends. He leaves to mourn his death, his father, Peter J. Nelson, a sister, Mrs. Walter G. Shields of Minneapolis; a brother, Prof. C. E. Nelson, of Cyrus, Minn., and Albert S. Nelson of this place; besides also, numerous other relatives and friends. Funeral services were held at the Sw. Luth. church Tuesday forenoon and interment was made at the Lebanon cemetery. Rev. A. F. Almer conducted the services in the English language. Miss Ellen Olander and Miss Ruth Soderlund rendered two beautiful duets. The father and brother, Edwin from Cyrus, and the brother-in-law, W. G. Shields were the out of town relatives in attendance.
