South St. Paul, May 17.—Hog prices were on a fairly strong basis the forepart of last week but weakened at the close and declined somewhat from 30 to 40c lower for the period. On previous days, most of the trade was between $14.25 to $14.50 and occasional high real estate in said bid.

Medium and fat steers were quoted lower at one time but at the close were rated about steady for the week. Fat cows and heifers, however, suffered a decline of 50 to 75c and lighter plain cattle were rated unevenly lower also. Choice to prime steers were quotable at $12 to $12.25 but there was not much business above the $12 to $12.50 line.
