HARDING WILL BE NEXT PRESIDENT

Preus Leads For Governor on Early Returns. Fight For Congress Close

Early returns from cities and towns give Preus a big lead over Shipstead for governor in the state. It will probably require several days until all the precincts are in and the final result will be known. ALEXANDRIA IS HELD SCORELESS

Undefeated Elevens Lock Horns in Close Gridiron Grapple Conceding No Score

An example of good stirring football was staged on the ball park field last Sunday afternoon when the much credited Alexandria eleven met a solid impediment in the Willmar American Legion Team and were held firm-107 ly from scoring. The exhibition was 185 one of the best brands of gridiron sport witnessed in this city for many years and the talk about it has not subsided at this writing. Willmar set down its reputation in prominent letters that day and sent the unde-162 feated Alexandria outfit back acknowledging the par quality of the locals and deeply regretting its inability to score.

The Alexandria team has a remark able record and has several victories to its credit in which they have never been scored against. She is undefeated and came to Willmar Sunday determined to keep its slate clean and to the utmost strive to overrun the locals. In the latter attempt they 129 failed as they encountered an opposition worthy of their best efforts. In the first attempt she succeeded as her slate is still unmarked with any losses. Yet when one compares the two 134 teams and the experience and records accomplished it appears that Willmar had the shade the better of the argument. Alexandria has played four games against strong elevens and thereby derived some splendid practice while the Willmar boys have but played one game against Glenwood which she won with ease by a score of 34-0. Alexandria practices faithfully three times a week while the locals meet once a week. Alexandria is at least 10-15 pounds heavier to a man and showed it on the field Sunday. When they appeared on the field it looked sort of dubious for the home boys because the towering and bulky Alexies made a fine impression. Yet the locals held them and critics agree that the game itself was a nip and tuck affair with the teams very closely matched. The locals are to be commended in that without any great degree of practice and with lighter men they were able to hold the visitors and split the card. The salient facts of the game can be stated in brief. The two 'teams see-sawed up and down the field or more exactly crossed and recrossed the kick-off line with neither team going beyond the 20 yd. line. The mass of men oscillated up and down the space in the center of the field with both elevens making spurts but being barred effectively at all times. The only instance where a score was a possibility was when right-half Archie Carlson galloped off with the oval 99 around left end but when he was in 73 easy distance from the goal he stumled and slipped on the wet sod. Out-82 side of this one chance to annex a 135 score no danger of gaining points ap peared evident. Altho the Alexandria line was heavier they failed to make 131 their ground gains come in when needed the most. When on the twen-110 ty-yard line they failed to get farther 169 and lost the ball. Willmar tho lighter had more snap and jumped to their work with alacrity and when they forged ahead they did it with snap altho the stout defense of Alexandria was something to contend against. Had the visitors line been less massive the Willmarites would have cut thru the defense with Hartwick plunged thru the gaps cleaved. As it was 62 the result was the two teams moving un and down the center of the field without either scoring. Alexandria employed a number of forward passes and completed half of them altho they brot very little advantage. The lo cals succeeded in one aerial stunt but failed in several others tried. 1077 The audience which saw the game was not as large on the Willmar side

FIFTH of the field as it might have been but goodly sized crowd came out and eturned with the conviction that they had attended one of the best exhibitions of football in Willmar and the best in the last few years. Alex-115 andria had several special cars jam 155 med with rooters and boosters who 147 kept up a constant cheering thruout 18 the game. Doubtless the people of Alexandria are better boosters their home eleven than our local folks. Yet they possess no better team but they have loyal backers. Alexandria returned undefeated suffering the trials of a severe battle in which she barely escaped with her scalp while the Willmar boys felt elated in that in counting over the credentials and the qualifications of the teams Willmar showed up far better and it is expected that with return the game and the score wil have a different face on it. The un defeated Willmar eleven may arrange another tussle with the undefeated Alexandria boys. The Willmar lineup: Conway L T. Callahan L G. Kvam, C. Goode, R G. Norling, R T. Nelson, R E. O. Christian, L H. Carlson, R H.

YOUNG MAN BADLY INJURED IN ACCIDENT

"Bill" Forsberg Suffers Painful Injuries When Caught By

To be partly caught and crushed by the bumpers on a switch engine and a box car was the painful exper ience of "Bill" Forsberg, well known switchman of this city. The accident happened in the local yards opposite the depot at about 2 p. m. on Tuesday The bumpers clinched the bone and muscled tissue about four inches be low the right hip, fractured the bone and tore loose the muscles between the leg and the body proper. Nearby aboring men on the tracks witnessed the unfortunate mishap and rushed to his aid. The shock had deadened the sense of pain and Forsberg was genly borne to the Willmar Hospital, where an examination was made without delay. He complained of no pains altho his wounds should have caused excruciating distress due doubtless to the extreme nature of the blow. He is now resting as comfortably as possible and awaiting the complete restoration in health of his leg and
