

This Xmas let it be a Furniture Aristocrat

Get this Xmas guide-book to Period Furniture

Come in and let us give you a copy of "Edison and Music". Tells about the chief period designs—what they look like, what they stand for. Pithy descriptions. Beautiful illustrations. Just the information you want.

Let us show you what an exquisite thing a phonograph cabinet can be.

Every New Edison on our floor—no matter what its price—is encased in a genuine period cabinet.

Period Furniture is the world's most exquisite development of furniture. It originated in the 16th, 17th, and 18th Centuries. Europe was ruled by a Gorgeous Aristocracy. Fine living was the ideal of the day. An unparalleled race of artists, architects, and designers built palatial living-places for kings and nobles, and furnished them. The palaces of the nobility became treasure-houses of fine furniture. It was called the "Golden Age of Furniture."

So Mr. Edison had his designers go back into the manor houses of England, the chateaux of France and the castles of Italy. They adapted 17 designs from historic masterpieces. They preserved entire "the character and feeling of the best periods" in these superb phonograph cases for the modern American home.

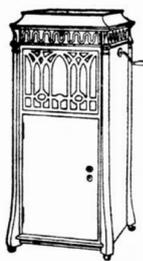

No matter which Edison cabinet you choose, you get both the arts that make your house a cultured home—music perfectly RE-CREATED and furniture of pur-est period source. What finer gift for all the family?

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

The Ford Sedan is the favorite family car, seats five comfortably. While an enclosed car with permanent top, it has large windows, and may in a minute be changed to a most delightful open car with always a top protecting against the sun. In inclement weather it is a closed car, dust-proof, water-proof, cold-proof. Finely upholstered. Equipped with electric starting and lighting system and demountable rims with 3 1/2 inch tires front and rear. A real family car. Won't you come in and look at it?

APPEALS TO PREJUDICE

In the last year of his life Abraham Lincoln said he feared that the rapidly accumulating corporation wealth would overthrow the republic. It would be done, he thought, by appealing to the prejudices of the people, and would be accomplished when wealth had been concentrated in a few hands. During the last campaign we have seen many heart-sickening evidences of what a careful judge of human nature Lincoln was. The whole campaign of organized wealth and greed against the organized farmers and workers has been one of appeal to prejudice. We have seen fathers of families, whose income was much shortened by the profiteers, raving against the farmers and workers because of an alleged free love menace. We have seen mothers of sons and daughters who must soon go out into the world repeating the same foolishness. Why? Because crooked politicians, wearing the mask of respectability told them so. They did not seek knowledge. They went up in the air on appeal to prejudice and fought the one definite hope of protecting their sons and daughters against the menace of free love. Why do so many people fail to realize that the free love menace is with us, stalking the streets of the small town as well as the big city, growing as rapidly as the profiteers are forcing more and more women to work for less than living wages, and more and more men to work for less than will support a home? And how can any clear-minded person, knowing that vice resorts are illegal, fail to realize that those now flourishing are paying protection tribute to the politicians—the same politicians who are defending the profiteering which produces the unnatural conditions? On the other hand, not only was there no basis for this charge against the farmers and workers, but there is no basis for such a charge, so far as we have been able to learn, against even the extreme Socialists. There is evidence to show that the Russian revolution freed many women from the bondage of prostitution; whereas the free love decrees were proved to be lying newspaper propaganda. We are terrified by the power of appeal to prejudice. Would that God might give its victim power to realize the weak point in their armor on which the devil is directing his assault!

SCHOOL NOTES

The Sophomore class elected the following officers: President, Maynard Lynn; Vice President, Ethel Wetherby, and Secy-Treas., Alvin Westgard. A number of Palmer Method awards were received by the following pupils, formerly of the Lafayette 7th grade: Lillian Gabbert, Louise Peterson, Esther Peterson, Angelina Snickerson, Margaret Tallman. Students' final certificates: Elizabeth Spicer, Eunice Jorstad, Viola Peterson, Marjorie Tallman, Lillian Erickson. Improvement Certificates, Olga Nelson, Pearl Enger, Hugh Ruddy, Paul Hedlund, Progress Pins, George Lawler, Richard Struxness. Palmer Method buttons. The work was done last year but owing to the large number of papers sent in the spring, the returns were somewhat delayed. The members of the Freshman class met in the Assembly Hall recently when a class organization was formed.

The following officers were elected: Pres., Maynard Johnson, Vice-President, Edmond Morrell, Secretary, Elsie Eklund, Treasurer, Verna Ruddy. Edmond Morrell was chosen roster king. It was also decided to divide the class into five groups, each group to choose its own presiding officers. This last organization is for the purpose of furthering better discipline and scholarship for the class and the entire junior high school. The presiding officers will be, in a measure, responsible for the discipline of his group while moving from room to room and at all other times. The group having the lowest standing both in discipline and scholarship at the end of the six weeks' term will be obliged to furnish some sort of entertainment for another four groups. We hope to see a decided improvement in consequence of this last organization. The pupils of the 5th and 6th grades Lafayette school and 7th grade have joined the contest given by the Road Improvement Association and are writing essays on Good Roads.

AGED COUPLE OBSERVE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING
Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Johnson of E. Lake Lillian Surprised On Anniversary Day
The 17th of Oct. at 2 o'clock p. m., the relatives, friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Johnson, East Lake Lillian, to help them celebrate their Golden Wedding. Rev. A. A. Ohren, the baptist courier missionary and Rev. L. O. Williams, the baptist state missionary, came to be present to pay tribute to them. O. P. Lovik, the pastor of the Lake Lillian Baptist church of which they are pioneer members, also spoke, after which a most delicious lunch was served and a good social time enjoyed. Many of those who helped them celebrate their silver wedding twenty-five years ago were present, but Ingebrigt Johnson was the only one there who had the honor of being present at their wedding fifty years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Johnson were married at the Tennis church, Belsjord, Norway, in 1870, and migrated to this country a year and a half later and settled in East Lake Lillian where they have lived ever since. They have three sons and one daughter living, who were present, and fifteen grand children. The flowers were white and gold chrysanthemums and several other bouquets. They were presented with a sum of money as a remembrance of the occasion. —Mrs. E. J. Boomer returned last Thursday from Minneapolis where she spent a few days visiting Mrs. Lenhart. —Miss Lena Botnen returned the latter part of last week from a two weeks visit with relatives at Watertown, S. D.

LEONARD IS NOW FULLY CONVINCED
Gained Eighteen Pounds Since Taking Tanlac And Says His Health Is Fine
"I have gained eighteen pounds since I started taking Tanlac and am now as well and sound as anybody," recently said Edwin Leonard, 234 Seventh St., North Bronx, Minneapolis, Minn. "I was in a weak, run-down condition due to a bad case of stomach trouble that had worried me nearly two years. My appetite was fairly good but what I ate disagreed with me. I would bloat all up with sour gas and have the worst sort of pains in my stomach. I suffered also from constipation and my nerves were on edge all the time and I was never able to get much sleep. I fell off in weight and was simply playing out altogether. "Tanlac has built me up until I feel like a different man and I am as strong as I ever was in my life. I have an appetite like a wolf and my big gain in weight shows how well what I eat agrees with me. I am not constipated now and my nerves are so strong and steady I sleep all night without waking up once. I am never troubled in any way whatever now and couldn't ask to be in better health." Tanlac is sold in Willmar by Carlson Bros., in Roseland by Isaac Gart and in Lake Lillian by Erickson Bros. —Paid Advertisement. —Miss Selma Christianson of Kerkhoven arrived last Wednesday for a short visit with Mrs. E. M. Olson. Miss Christianson left the latter part of the week for a stay at Minneapolis.
