OBITUARY

Leo. M. Kastel The spirit of Leo M. Kastel fled from his earthly abode on Thursday, November 11th, following a brief illness of one week from Erysipelas. The young man appeared to enjoy this temporal life only as a stepping stone to the greater and wondrous life of the Eternal as his death was one of peace and that happiness which only one of such character could experience.

Leo M. Kastel was born into this world at Millstadt, Illinois, on May 14, 1893. His early youth was spent at Athens, Wisconsin, where he attended the High School. He also studied at Wausaw Teachers Training School. He was occupied in school instruction work for a period of two years.

At the time of his passing he was employed at the Berg & Soderling Tailor Shop. In the year 1916 he took to himself as his wife, Miss Ruth Peterson, to which union two children were born: Oliver 3 years and Vernon, one year. Those intimately bereaved have the deep sympathy of the community.

The departed is mourned by his aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Kastel of Athens, Wis., five sisters: Mrs. J. L. Stiever, of Keltys, Texas, Mrs. William Hamling of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. R. Neuenschwander, Mrs. J. A.

The Late Leo Kastel

Searing and Miss Alice Kastel of Athens, Wis., and two brothers, Arthur of Saskatchewan, Canada, and John of Spicer, Minn.

The funeral rites were conducted at the home on Ella Ave. west on Monday, Nov. 15, where Rev. G. N. Tegnell officiated and at St. Mary's Catholic church where Rev. Holland was the officiating clergyman at the High mass.

Those who bore the departed young man to his resting place in Fairview cemetery were six comrades of the Tailors' Union, of which the deceased was a popular member. The floral tributes were contributed in profusion. Those present at the funeral from a distance were: Mrs. Adam Kastel of Athens, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. John Kastel and family of Spicer, Mrs. Neuenschwander and Miss Alice Kastel of Athens, Wis., Mrs. Hamling of Chicago, and Mrs. J. L. Stiever of Keltys, Texas.

At the church services the favorite hymn of the departed was rendered in a duet "Thou Art My Hope, Dear Sacred Heart."

Leo Kastel was a favorite among his companions and considered a young man of sterling character, of the highest ideals of life and an index of what was good, kindly and pleasant. Peace to his memory.

"We know there can never be darkness Nor gloom and the shadows of night, Where Leo our loved one is sleeping, Enwrapped in his Saviors' light. In our dark and dreary moments, Our sadness is driven away, HE arose in his radiance and glory, And turned the dark night into day." -Contributed.

Marie Gunderson After attaining the very venerable age of almost ninety-five years, Marie Gunderson, who made her home at Eagle Lake since the year 1867, passed peacefully away after a brief illness of two weeks due to heart weakness. Death occurred last Tuesday, Nov. 16th, the heart failure aided by the infirmities of an extreme maturity being fatal.

Marie Gunderson was born on Dec. 16, 1825, at Tyvingsberg, Norway, while her youth was spent at Grue Soler, Norway, where she received a common school education. In the year 1864 she chose America as her future home and upon arriving directed herself to Carver Co., Minnesota, where she made her home for a period of 3 years. In 1867 she came to our county, which has been her home since that date. On April 11, 1864, she was united in marriage to her now deceased husband, Gundar Gunderson, the wedding having taken place in the native land of Norway. Mr. Gunderson passed away in the year 1899. To this union five children were born of which two, Richard and John, have preceded in the years 1912 and 1887 respectively. The three who survive their beloved mother are: G. H. Gunderson of Dodge Center, Minn., Charles Gunderson of Hutton, W. D., and Estlin Gunderson of Willmar. There are also grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Other relatives are Carlus Hendrickson of Spicer, John Hendrickson and Mrs. Martha Hendrickson of Norway, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Tegner, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Gunderson, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter of Grove City.

The funeral was held at the Eagle Lake church on Sunday, Nov. 21st. The departed had always been a faithful and interested worker in that church. Revs. E. O. Larson, E. E. Gynild and Posso were the officiating clergymen. The remains of this good woman were laid to rest in the Eagle Lake cemetery. The following were the pall bearers: Peter Gilbertson, C. W. Peterson, S. T. Konsterle, A. J. Kattos, Andrew Berg and John Samuelson. Peace to her memory.

Thompson-Pearson Saturday, Nov. 20, 1920, Thomas A. B. Thompson of New London, Minn., was united in holy wedlock with Edith Victoria Pearson, at her home in Chicago.

The wedding was attended by many relatives and friends and those who were unable to attend in person did not forget to extend their wishes to the happy couple by means of the telegraph, a great many telegrams being received. The wedding was held amongst a shower of flowers and decorations and the whole ceremony from the commencement to the end was one of joy, music and song, some of Chicago's best talent performing. Last, but not least, the blissful couple received an abundance of beautiful gifts.

Wednesday, Nov. 17, 1920, a miscellaneous shower was held and attended by some sixty young people, with the result that the intended couple were the grateful recipients of numerous gifts ranging from a pin to elaborate table ornaments. -Contributed.
