FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Corner Trott Ave & 3rd Str. Ernest A. Lagerstrom, pastor
Do the scripture passages and proof texts show valid evidence to a candid inquirer the Deity of Christ beyond a shadow of doubt and to his entire satisfaction? Does the Bible actually assert in unmistakable terms the Deity of Christ? Was this supposed claim recognized and acknowledged by those who knew him best and were in a position to know the facts? Is there any conclusive and convincing evidence outside of the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ? These are practical and vital questions, which any candid, honest inquirer and every discerning mind is concerned over? The Pastor will endeavor to present this matter next Sunday evening.
Services commencing next Sunday, Jan. 19th.

Thursday: 7:45 p. m. Mid-week devotional service.
8:45 p. m. Choir rehearsal.

Olson-Johnson

A quiet home wedding was solemnized Dec. 29, 1920, at 1:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Carrie Johnson of Lake Lillian when her daughter Miss Freda became the bride of C. Oscar Olson. The Rev. J. S. Nordell of the Fahlun Baptist church read the ceremony in the presence of the immediate family.
The bride wore a dark blue tulle dress, trimmed in iridescent beads. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses.
The matron of honor was Mrs. Albert Johnson. The groom was attended by Albert Johnson, a brother of the bride.
Miss Cecelia Johnson played Lohengrin's wedding march, as the bridal party entered the parlor.
A four course wedding dinner was served to the guests after the ceremony, covers being laid for seventeen.
The rooms were prettily decorated in pink and white streamers.
The guests from a distance were Miss Emma Johnson, a sister of the bride, and Martin Larson, a cousin, both of Niobe, N. D.
Mr. and Mrs. Olson will be at home to their many friends after Jan. 1st, 1921, at 505 Nelson Ave in this city.
The Tribune extends congratulations.
Several ladies were entertained at the home of Mrs. Wm. MacKenzie of Priam last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. P. A. Engwall and little son Freddie of Willmar were honored guests.
