Catching on Bobs Stopped

A few days ago two young people were killed at Grand Forks when the sled slewed to one side of the auto they had caught the pull rope on, just as a passing auto in the opposite direction came along and crushed them.

At Detroit Saturday Mat Walz caught on behind a farmers sled and had a fine ride, expecting to let go at the edge of town and catch another sled coming back. When he let loose from the farmers sled, he stepped directly in front of another team coming the other way and was run over before the man could stop the horses. His skull was badly crushed. He was rushed to a hospital and it is believed he will recover. The city dads of Detroit have forbidden boys to catch on behind bobs in the streets. —Fergus Falls Tribune.

—Mrs. M. Fritz and daughter Margaret were at Willmar Monday to consult Dr. Davison about Miss Margaret's eyes.

—Mrs. J. J. Ulferts is at the Willmar Hospital where she is being treated for heart trouble. She went over last week and expects to remain for about three weeks.

—Bontje, the seven year old son of Mr and Mrs. Ben Bontjes, had his leg broken in two places last Saturday while he was coasting with some of his playmates near the creek on the south side of the track. Dr. Foshager was called immediately and set the broken parts and the little fellow is getting along nicely. —Clara City Herald.

—Two farmers near Ada fastened a grindstone to the shaft of a wood saw in order to save labor. The stone flew in a hundred pieces while it was revolving at great speed. One piece hit one of the men breaking his jaw and nose. —Paynesville Press.

Gustaf P. Erickson

Gustaf Peter Erickson, an old pioneer of this county and a respected resident of Lake Lillian since his arrival to this country in 1881, passed from the scenes of this life on Jan. 13th, death being caused by cancer of the stomach. The late Gustaf Erickson was a man of good character and highly esteemed.

The deceased was born on Sept. 17, 1863, at Mockfjard, Sweden, where he attained the age of manhood. As stated, he came to this country in 1881 and had made our midst his constant home since that time. Special music at the rites consisted of vocal solos by Samuel Nelson and K. C. Meyer at the home and at the church two solos by Samuel Nelson, a duet by Mabel Lundquist and solos by M. Walner and Mabel Lundquist.

In 1891 he wedded Mary Peterson on May 16th to which happy union the following children were born: Mrs. William Blomquist of Roseland, Alger, Walter, Phillip, Joel, Lester, Minnie, Maria and Rachel.

The deceased's parents, Eric and Anna Erickson, two sisters and one brother have their home in Sweden.

Funeral rites were conducted at the Free Baptist church on January 16th, Rev. J. S. Nordell being the officiating clergyman.

Interment was in the Free Baptist cemetery to which resting place the departed was borne by Messrs. P. P. Hanson, H. P. Hanson, E. J. Hedlof, L. J. Peterson, H. Peterson and Wm. Heglund.

NEVER INTENDS

TO BE WITHOUT IT

Since Taking Tanlac St. Paul Man Feels Fine—Could Hardly Turn Over in Bed

"Before I was half thru my first bottle of Tanlac I began to straighten right up," declared Ernest Kluegel, of St. Paul, Minn., 1476 Iglehart Ave., St. Paul, Minn.

"About four months ago my kidneys got all out of fix and I suffered untold agonies from pains in the small of my back. Actually, I couldn't turn from one side to the other in bed without my back hurting me so I could hardly stand it. Then my appetite failed, nothing looked good or tasted right, and I got to feeling dull and languid and had little strength.

"Well, sir, I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac, and my back never hurts me a particle and I sleep fine. Meal-time never comes quick enough for me now and everything agrees with me perfectly. I feel good all the time and have as much strength as I ever had in my life."

Tanlac is sold in Willmar by Carlson Bros., in Roseland by Isaac Gort, and in Lake Lillian by Erickson Bros.—Paid Adv.
