He Rests In Peace

"Tis hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart.

'Dear loved one, we must lay thee
In the peaceful grave's embrace
But thy memory will be cherished,
'Till we see thy heavenly face.'

Have you joined the "SPELLING BEE?"

How many English words can you make from the letters in the word "WILLMAR?"

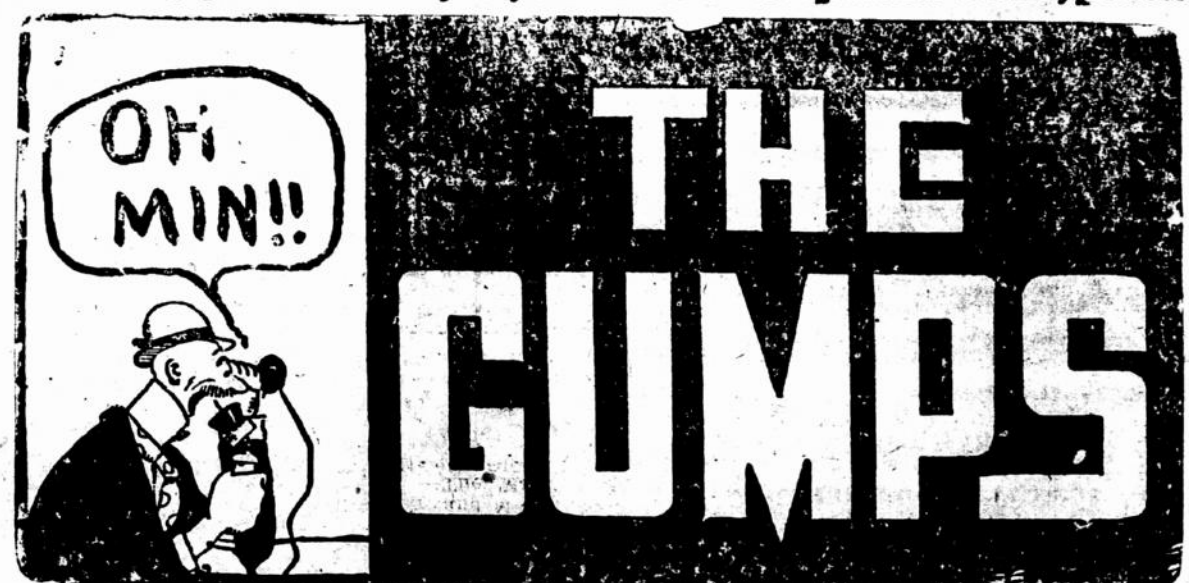

The "Spelling Lessons" are coming in pretty fast and the spelling master will have to burn the candle way into the night on March 1st, to look over his mail and see who gets the prizes. Some contestants have been a little hasty to send in their lists and no doubt before the time is up will have discovered more words. To such there is nothing to prevent sending in a second list.

RULES

None of the letters can be used more than once in each word, except "L" which appears twice in "WILLMAR" and can therefore be used twice in the same word. Surnames of people, geographical names and other words not in the dictionary will not be used. Well known boys' and girls' names will count, however, as will suffixes, prefixes and obsolete and foreign meaning words found in the dictionary. Words having two or more distinct meanings but spelled the same can only be counted once. Write plainly, use only one side of the paper and address letter to "Spelling Master", Willmar Tribune. Contest closes March 1st.
