

TRIBUNE PUZZLES

The second and third letters in the names of these objects spell what Minnesota town?

No. 33.

Answer to last week's puzzle:

No. 32—Crab, Alligator, Moose, Bluejay, Yak—CANBY.

Our puzzle man got himself in a hole on last week's puzzle and not being able to crawl out of the same must make a clean breast of it. We got it "Camby" instead of Canby. We can't lay it to the printer this time and we can't call that (M)ose the (N)obel prize. We can't even lay it to moonshine. No, we haven't got time to start a new town.
