- First Prize—Olive Felt, Rt. 2, Willmar.
Second Prize—Robt. B. Johnson, Willmar.
Third Prize—Henry Solmonson, Rt. 6, Atwater.
Fourth Prize—Etta Moldenhouer, 906 Carney ave., Duluth, Minn.
Fifth Prize—E. E. Hauge, Minneapolis.
Sixth Prize—Carl W. Towley, St. Peter.
GEO. O. BROHAUGH, A. O. FORSBERG, A. G. MOLANDER, Judges.

Willmar, Minn., April 22, 1922. The judges for the Willmar Tribune "P-word" puzzle contest completed their work last Saturday night. The task was not one to be done in two or three hours. It is a big job, especially when the work is done, as it was in this case, carefully and conscientiously.

Miss Felt, winner of first place and Robert B. Johnson, winner of second, established their lead quite early in the checking and were never in real danger. But for the other positions, there was a mighty lively and close race. Many contestants looked like winners only to find that others loomed up behind and came in a neck ahead of them as they came sailing in at the final spurt when the judges with their weather eye on the wire struck the gong.

Miss Felt had 196 words, 176 of which were correct and 20 unacceptable, making her penalty only 5, a remarkable showing. She evidently did not realize what a real splendid list she had or she would have qualified for the larger prizes. Being in class 1 her prize is $3.00.

Robert B. Johnson, winner of the second prize, had by far the largest number of accepted words, 218. But his penalty was 53, leaving his standing 165. He had qualified for 3rd class and wins $2.50.

Henry Solmonson, third, had 163 words with only 15 wrong. His score was 151. He was in class 5 and receives $2.50.

Etta Moldenhouer, fourth, had 172 words, 19 wrong, penalty 4. Score 143. She was in class 1 so her prize is $1.50. E. E. Hauge, fifth, with a score of 146, was in class 2 and wins $2.00. Carl W. Towley, sixth, with 143 score, is in class 5 and wins $5.00.

The following are contestants near the top who came near breaking into the winning column: Richard Harris, Willmar, Rt. 2. Ralph Anderson, Willmar. Emil Anderson, Atwater, Rt. 1. Elsa Michaelson, Marquette, W. D. Mrs. John Sandness, La Moure, N. D. Victor E. Erickson, Willmar, 609 4th St. E.

Mrs. Lee Somerville, Maynard, Minn. Dorothy Diferding, Willmar. Ralph Tatt'ng, Svea. Miss Louise Planchier, Willmar. The following is the master list. Those in light face are the artist's original lists. The bold were allowed and added by the judges.

Peas; peaches; peacock; peak or pinnacle; pears; peavy; pelage; pebble; pectus; peddler; pedestal; pedestrian; pediment; pedicel or peduncle; peen; peg; pelage; pelican;

GETTING READY FOR 1922 SEASON

Manager Gleason Will Assume Charge of Local Team on May 1

The directors of the Willmar Athletic Association are pushing their plans ahead for the best baseball season in local history. This baseball revival will be evidenced not only in the strong city nine which will be developed but also in a Commercial League. Both these enterprises will be controlled by the directors of the Athletic Association. The Commercial League of last summer terminated with the trainmen capturing the city flag. Interest somewhat lagged towards the close of the season. Some good material was brought to the attention of the fans during many of these Commercial League games. Some difficulty was encountered in playing evenings as dusk soon brot a halt to the game or in case it commenced before six o'clock in the evening it would be fully an hour later before the fans could arrive to witness the sport. It would seem desirable to have the games played during the afternoon of some day during the week. The custom of the business firms of the city during the hot summer months to close their places of business during the afternoon of a suitable day might be renewed this summer. In this event a good gathering of fans would be assured.

Manager Gleason who has been engaged to direct the destinies of the Willmar City Baseball Team will arrive on May 1st and make immediate preparations to whip a team into shape for an early opening of the season. It is probable that the season may be opened about May 14th. The directors are hard at work making preparations for the opening of the 1922 season locally. It is expected that a fine looking and capable lot of players will be trotting out on the diamond for the first game of the season.

A drive for the sale of season tickets will be held and fans will be approached by the sellers. It will be an aid financially to the team to have a large number of season tickets sold. All who can should purchase these tickets.

The Late Michael D. Manning (From an old photograph)

MANNING PASSES TO THE BEYOND

Wellknown Territorial Pioneer and Civil War Veteran Is No More

Michael D. Manning, pioneer business man of St. Paul and Willmar and well known Civil War Veteran, died at his home at Willmar, Friday, April 21, at the age of 78 years and nine months. He had been failing about three months. Manning was one of the best known citizens of Willmar in the state at large as a territorial pioneer and fireman. He seldom missed attending the annual state meeting of either.

Michael D. Manning was born of Irish parentage at Ottawa, Canada, Aug. 1, 1843. He came to St. Paul as a boy of ten. He started as a newsboy. In the Civil War he was in Co. D, First Minnesota Heavy Artillery with Capt. W. M. Loyde, and was transferred July 7, 1865, to Co. M, under Capt. Chas. Johnson. With his brother Thomas he conducted a grocery on Jackson Street, near Seventh, catering to the large river boats and the best families in St. Paul. He was a member of the first volunteer fire company of St. Paul of which the late James J. Hill was also a member.

After coming to Willmar he served as alderman in 1882 and 1883, and as president of the village in 1885. He was a close friend of the late Geo. A. E. Rice, with whom he was associated in the general store business here for many years under the firm name of Rice & Manning and later as directors in the Bank of Willmar. In the latter capacity Mr. Manning signed the last statement of the bank a few days before his death. Mr. Manning had been a member of the Willmar Fire Department since first coming to Willmar. Since retiring as an active member he continued as treasurer of the Firemen's Relief Association to the time of his death. He was a charter member of Col. Heg Post G. A. R. of Willmar, of which there are now only five surviving members. On May 11, 1921, he was elected President of the Minnesota Territorial Pioneer Association which makes its headquarters at the log cabin at the State Fair grounds.

The funeral occurred from the New Manning residence on Becker avenue at two o'clock last Sunday, under the auspices of the Odd Fellow lodge of which the departed was a member. Respecting the wishes of the departed there was no hearse and no flowers. At the house Harold Handy sang a solo, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Judge Gilbert spoke in well fitted terms of the departed as a soldier and citizen. The Masonic quartette sang "Tenting on the Old Campground." The honorary pall bearers were the surviving G. A. R. comrades and Mr. John Olson, a former business associate of the departed. Six members of the I. O. O. F. Lodge were the active pall bearers. The casket, wrapped in a U. S. Flag, was placed on the wagon, which was drawn by four horses, each led by an ex-service man in uniform.

The procession formed with the military burial squad furnished by the American Legion at the head with the colors. Then members of the Spanish-American War Veterans. Then came the Odd Fellows in their regalia and the Willmar Fire Department in uniform. Then the wagon with the casket followed, with mourners and honorary pall bearers in autos, and a long string of autos. At Fairview cemetery a large crowd had assembled. The casket was deposited in the vault awaiting final disposition, the firing squad fired three salutes, the buglers blew taps, first near at hand and later in the distance and the exercises were over. Among those present from a distance were Katherine F. McIntyre, a relative of a deceased brother, of 596 Ashland avenue, St. Paul; Mrs. Dr. Peterson (nee Bertha Bredberg) of Minneapolis, John Olson of Estevan; E. G. Bloomfield of the Soldier's Home Carl Glader and P. O. Hall of Atwater. Mr. Manning left no blood relatives. His will has not been admitted to probate as yet. It is understood that the Oscar Larsons, with whom the departed has made his home, have been given life tenure of the residence and have otherwise been provided for. The late Mr. Manning was a man of business integrity and possessed a good heart. He had a host of friends, at home and thruout the state.

BANK MOVES TO BETTER LOCATION

Farmers Security Bank Moves to New Location During This Week

The Farmers Security State Bank which has been located at 314 Fifth Street West is moving today and tomorrow to its new location, the building formerly occupied by the First National Bank. The interior of the old First National Bank building has been remodeled, papered and painted and is now in fine condition. This bank will now have a better location as it will have a more central place in the business section of the city. The fixtures in their new quarters will be used by the bank as they have been furnished and put into first class condition. The removal of the belongings and equipment of the bank from one building to another will make it a little inconvenient for them but they will serve their customers in as good a manner as possible under the circumstances.
