

MOST SUCCESSFUL CONVENTION HELD

Willmar Convention of Y. P. Federation Was One of Inspiration To All

That there exists a great movement aimed to build up the religious interests of the youth of the Christian church and that said movement is grasping the hearts and enthusiasm of the young people was evidenced at the impressive results of the second annual convention of the Young Peoples Federation of the Lutheran Free Church of America.

Capacity audiences filled the church auditorium at all meetings. Three meetings were held each day. On Sunday overflow meetings were held in the basement of the church. The program was uplifting and highly instructive.

An offering for two ailing pastors was actuated by an appeal of President O. H. Sletten of Minneapolis, head of the Lutheran Free church. The offering for the convention resulted in the sum of $170.

Dinners and suppers were served by the ladies of the church. The ladies were kept more than busy accommodating all who wished to dine there. At the business meeting held Saturday all the officers were re-elected. Delegates from the church schools were permitted to vote at the following conventions.

The following are the principal list of delegates who were registered:
