By a rule, recently adopted by the revenue collectors, no saloon-keeper or other person is allowed to sell beer by the keg to anyone except he is authorized to do so by contract with the brewer.
A heavy penalty is attached to any violation of this law, and it would be well for all to keep this fact in mind, as collectors give it out that the provision will be strictly enforced.
Hon. R. G. Evans stopped off in New Ulm Monday evening on his way home from Sleepy Eye. Evans is one of those straight Republicans who believes in placing party before individual at all times and conversation with him always leads to the expression of loyal and eloquent sentiments. There is not a more deserving or genial man in the state.
Never asking for office, he is always prepared for faithful work. It is such men that the party should reward.

The young barber, who stood behind a high board fence the other day with his mind intensely bent upon hurling a snow-ball against the person of a fair and unsuspecting creature should she chance to come within reach, and who in turn was punished for his neglect of business and ungentlemanly intentions by a sharp, stinging snow-ball from another quarter, learned a good lesson.
Never try to get the best of anyone under cover. Someone may be watching your boyishness from another side.

A St. Paul item is in substance as follows: An Indian was in the city Tuesday investigating the right of his sister to secure a divorce after the manner of the "pale faces." This is a novel case, from the fact that there is no record of an Indian asking for divorce, at least so far as application to the civil laws is concerned. He was advised to go to the nearest state court, which in this case is New Ulm. He stated that his sister had married a fearless warrior, who deserted her the next day and has not since returned to his tepee. The deserted woman has some property in her own right which she wants to keep from the interference of her unfaithful husband and to be free to make such future alliance as she shall desire.

Gasoline stoves of every style can be secured of Baer & Seiter. During the hot summer months no home should be without one.

It is held at Sleepy Eye and Elects was then elected permanent chairman and F. W. Johnson permanent secretary.

A committee on resolutions, consisting of F. W. Johnson, A. Blanchard and Oscar Erickson, was appointed, and then the convention settled down to the election of delegates to the state and congressional conventions by ballots, the chairman appointing A. Blanchard and H. M. Ball as tellers.

The delegates elected are as follows:
State convention, John Lind, C. L. Roos, A. G. Anderson, Hans Mo, F. P. James and H. M. Ball. Congressional Con-

LIND DOESN'T WANT IT.
Positive Assurance that he will not be a Candidate for Governor.

A Washington special to the Pioneer of Monday says: A great deal of misinformation has been spread abroad about a visit of Gov.
Merriam to Washington, and especially regarding his influence and desires as to his successor. He met Representative Lind on the floor of the house and said:
"Are you candidate for governor?" "No" replied Mr. Lind; and that was all that passed between the gentlemen regarding the gubernatorial question. Intimate friends of Mr. Lind have been aware for some time that he is not a candidate for governor. He has refused to be interviewed on the subject, but his personal friends know that he will not be in the race, and they have known it ever since his name was mentioned in that connection. Senator Davis has been credited with being behind the Lind movement for governor, but Senator Davis has known all along the position Mr. Lind occupied. One by one the little fairy stories of the acute imagination are knocked in the head by the light of cold facts.
