 K. H. Helling announces, and in such a manner too as to be unmistakable, that he does not want his name considered in connection with the office of sheriff. His choice all along, he says, has been Nels Anderson, the present incumbent.

The New Ulm Review is making unrelenting war upon an institution located opposite New Ulm in Nicollet county. For the good reputation of Nicollet as well as for the sake of decency and right we hope the Review will be successful in its fight.—St. Peter Herald.
 M. D. Adams, general agent for the American Express Company, was in the city Friday and stated that in all probability the company would appoint Geo. B. Vietz as agent. Vietz is the gentleman who first had charge of the office after the retirement of Mr. Heideman.

August Berndt came very near losing his life last Saturday. While working in J. B. Arnold's well, the ladder on which he stood broke and let him fall about forty feet into the water below. Luckily for him, the water was about twelve feet deep and he escaped injury with the exception of a few bruises.
 The May term of court now being held at St. Peter will decide the following cases of interest to people in this vicinity: E. P. Sommer vs. The Winona and St. Peter Railroad Company; Fred Wichstadt vs. Philip Poehling; Jorgan Thorndson vs. Board of County Commissioners; J. H. Doty vs. John R. Bowen; and State vs. Reuben Gordon of Ridgely, charged with horse stealing.

 Dr. J. H. James, the Mankato eye, ear, throat and nose specialist will be at the office of Dr. Schoch in this city on the 22nd and 23rd of May.

A Chinaman, with all the distinctive characteristics of his race, was in the city Wednesday. His purpose was to consider the advisability of locating a steam laundry here.
 The long-drawn strains of the Scotch bag-pipe were heard on our street corners Monday morning. They were the strains of that same old song—the song that reached our pockets.
 W. Eibner's plate glass front is nearly completed and it makes one of the neatest and showiest fronts in the city. The entire ground floor will hereafter be used for restaurant purposes exclusively.

Editor Rea of the Tracy Trumpet and Galen A. Merrill, superintendent of the Owatona State School for neglected children, were listeners to the habeas corpus proceedings before Judge Webber on Friday.
 The standing at the last rifle shoot was in the following order: John Lilla, Chas. Hauenstein, F. Grebe, Ernst Brandt and Julius Krause. Gustav Goetsch, who is considered as one of the best shots in the club made the poorest score and secured the leather medal.
 Dr. Fish, of St. Paul, A. D. Stewart of Redwood county and C. H. Johnson of Renville, who have been holding an alliance jubilee at Sleepy Eye this week, have issued a challenge to Geo. W. Somerville of Sleepy Eye and J. Lankard of Redwood Falls to meet them in political debate.

A. E. Rhodes of Mankato was in the city Thursday in the interests of the Phoenix Cure Co. of that city. This institution for the cure of those afflicted with the drink habit was established only recently in Mankato and is already doing a flourishing business. Mr. Rhodes himself is a testimonial to its curative powers.
 J. W. Hardy, a representative of an electrical machinery firm of St. Paul, was in the city during the week and consulted with the proprietors of the Empire and Eagle Roller Mills relative to furnishing both institutions with electric lighting power. Each company will adopt some system within the course of the next few days.

The marriage of Anton Gag and Miss Lizzie Biebel was solemnized late Monday afternoon by Justice Nix at the home of the bride's mother. This event was news to most of our citizens, for no announcement had been made of the wedding and few, if any, excepting the relatives were permitted to share the secret. The friends of both, however, in their surprise, will unite in wishing the couple well. Both parties are well known in New Ulm, the groom having been a photographer here for several years and the bride having followed the same trade in the gallery of him, who is now her husband.

At the Lutheran church yesterday afternoon the marriage of Ernst Sauer and Miss Wilken, both of this city, was solemnized by Rev. Albrecht. The contracting parties are not widely known by the people of New Ulm, but they are none the less worthy for that and the Review extends to them its sincere congratulations.
 James McGinnis, a young man of Morgan, who will be remembered as having been confined in jail here last year on a charge of drunkenness, sued the Morgan marshal for damages to the extent of $2,500 in the Redwood County court last week and was awarded a verdict of 1 cent. The complaint alleged false imprisonment.
 Tony Wiesner narrowly escaped being shot at Hunters Rest last Sunday morning. The various members of the rifle club were trying to discharge a shell and finally A. A. Bogen fired it without realizing in what direction the barrel was pointed. The shot whizzed past the person of Mr. Wiesner, and a second time, when fired in the same careless manner, came within a foot of his body.

The monument which now adorns the grave of August Schell in the city cemetery is one of the most beautiful sights in what has now got to be a somewhat picturesque resting place for the dead. The stone is nearly fifteen feet high and is in the shape of a broken oak, around which a climbing vine winds itself with almost natural life, so exquisite and perfect is the workmanship. The monument was built by Anthony Ambrosine of St. Paul and does not fail to attract the attention of everyone who visits the cemetery.
 In a certain township of this county, it is said, there is a certain lady, who besides doing her housework and caring for three children, actually milks twenty-one cows and feeds sixty-five hogs. If it rains, her husband will kindly lend her his rubber coat, while he, detestable boss that he is, remains under the cozy shelter of his roof; if he desires to go to town, his hired man must put the team in readiness, but if she wants to go she must harness and hitch them up herself. Do you know, we despise such a man. And if eternal retribution is a settled fact, the warmth, that we read about, can hug him none too closely.

David Bowen, a liveryman of Lake Crystal and cousin of ex-Senator Thomas Bowen, was shot in a very mysterious manner last Saturday afternoon while going from home to see his brother in Mankato. He had at first telegraphed for his brother to come to Lake Crystal, but when the latter reached the village he found that his brother had already started out by team to meet him. This strange action caused the Mankato brother to follow in pursuit and upon overtaking him found him wounded and the buggy more or less wrecked. Two bullets were found lodged near his heart and the cause of the shooting is shrouded in mystery. The current opinion is that he had been drinking excessively and committed the deed himself while suffering from some terrible mental delusion.

An Alliance institute was held in Sleepy Eye Monday under the direction of such speakers as Dr. Fish of the Great West, A. D. Stewart, the Alliance candidate for congress, C. H. Johnson of Pipestone and R. L. Glasby of Dodge county. A school of economy constitutes the program for the day and a lecture by one of the above speakers the entertainment for the evening. Scattered about the hall were suggestive cartoons and inscriptions such as these: "Equal Justice to All—Special Privilege to none." "$8,500 a year on every $10,000 invested, is the chorus of the National Bank act." "Let politics alone, we can manage the government.—Old party plute." "G.O.P.—D. O. P.: is it one hog or two?" "A dead issue.—B. Harrison's hat." "Loving party more than country—very much like a collar."

Old Tramp Johnson is a notorious character in these parts. Almost everybody has had an opportunity to see him in one or more of his annual tours, and like Vetterle he will always be remembered for his curious ways and his loud but harmless style of address. Well it was this same tramp who in St. Peter the other night fell victim to one of the most atrocious acts ever committed in this vicinity. The Herald in giving an account of the affair says:
 The poor old fellow was badly under the influence of liquor when a few fellows who happened to be unknown, threw him upon the floor and with a pair of scissors cut off his beard, then struck him upon the face and head and kicked him out into the gutter. We presume the fellows thought it was a joke because the old man was somewhat foolish but it might not be so much of a joke if their identity were known. Johnson is somewhat of a nuisance but that does not entitle any one to misuse him.
