 pert of Cambria were married here a few days ago. The groom was a widower with six children and the bride had ten other children by two husbands.
 The residence of Herman Hindermann in Fairfax was struck by lightning last week, but fortunately no serious damage was done. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hindermann were formerly residents of New Ulm.
 The campers at Swan Lake are having a jolly time. All jokes on visitors are carefully avoided this year and around the glowing camp fire is being smoked the pipe of peace. Happiness, sobriety and mutual admiration prevails.
 On Monday while working the trigger of a rifle Louis Mueller accidentally discharged a cartridge that he didn't know was in the gun and sent the bullet crashing through one of the fine plate glass windows of Klossner & Mueller's store.

 European trip on Monday evening. He spent just ten days on the road after leaving his brother's home in Germany.
 Lightning struck the barn of the Nicollet county poor farm last week and at the same time killed one of a very fine team of horses owned by Harlow Door.
 Judge Huebner of Winthrop was in town yesterday. He considers his chances for the Republican nomination for county attorney in Sibley county as very good.
 The material and machinery for the new paper have been purchased and the first issue is expected to appear about the first of next month. The office will be located in the Amann building.
 Up at Tracy the two Italians, who were here a few days ago with a bear, were assaulted by five Tracy sports and were quite roughly handled. All of the assailants were arrested and heavily fined.
 The ball game which was announced to occur between the Sleepy Eye and New Ulm clubs has been indefinitely postponed. The manager of the Sleepy Eye club telegraphed that he could not get his men together.
 County Treasurer Webster of Nicollet county came up from St. Peter yesterday and we acknowledge a pleasant call.
 Mr. Webster will be renominated by the Republicans in his county this fall and will certainly be elected.
 While Mr. and Mrs. Juni were away from home one day last week the little children upset a lamp and started a conflagration that might have been serious but for timely intervention. The entire room was filled with flames when help arrived.
 A telegram was received here on Monday from Helena, Montana, announcing the death by drowning of Harry, the fourteen-year-old son of Fred Beinhorn, a son of Mr. Beinhorn of this city. No particulars of the sad affair could be learned.
 A party of New Ulm campers are at Swan Lake. Among the party are Prof.
 Nix, Messrs. Fischer, Pahl, Roos and others. Among other pastimes they are editing a paper which contains neither business, politics, religion or news.—St.
 Peter Herald.
 Excavations have been commenced at the August Schell brewery and the work of reconstruction and improvements will be hurried to completion as rapidly as possible. When completed it will be possible to see the upper portion of the buildings from town.

 September 1st.
 A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Flor on Sunday.
 The Redwood county Fair will be held on September 21st, 22nd and 23rd.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Doty of Courtland were visitors in our city during the week.
 The Empire mill is shut down for repairs. The building is also being repaired.
 The roof of the new Redwood county court house was blown off in a storm on Saturday.
 Stephen Raymond of the Bank of Glencoe is visiting with his friend, N.
 Henningson.
 Dr. Bartlett has handed in his resignaas superintendent of the insane asylum at St. Peter.
 The marriage of Fred Wendland and Miss Mina Koehler is announced to occur on the 23rd.
 Jacob Klossner is up in Redwood and the western part of Brown counties this week, selling threshing machines.
 Mrs. F. L. Randall, who has been spending several weeks here with her mother, will return to Winona to-day.
 R. H. Bingham of Sleepy Eye and Hans Miller of Lamberton called on Bingham Bros. of this city on Monday.
 John Lauer, formerly of New Ulm has announced himself as an independent candidate for sheriff in Redwood county.
 Sid Mills, the veteran passenger conductor, spent Sunday here in company with his wife as the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
 Mullen.
 Two pleasant picnics, in which young people only figured, were held on Sunday, one at Swan Lake and one on Al-win's farm.
 On Saturday C. H. Hornburg shipped a binder to Nicollet to fill an emergency by express. This is dispatch of an unusual character.
 Misses Allie Scherer, Mary McCaughin and Clara Rehfeld attended the Alumni banquet and reception in Mankato last Thursday night.
 In some places in Linden the farmers made no attempt to cut their grain. In other places the yield is falling short of the average expectation.
 At Kasota Sunday night a burglar entered a jewelry store and was not scared away until several shots were exchanged between himself and the clerk.
 The Young Ladies' Wide Awake Mission Band will give a social at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ross on Thursday evening. Everybody is cordially invited to be present.
 In many places about town trees hang so low over the sidewalk as to be objectionable to pedestrians. It won't hurt the owners, nor it won't hurt the trees if they are occasionally trimmed.
 Sells & Rentrow's Circus will visit New Ulm on the 1st of September. The bill car was here yesterday and there is every reason to believe that the show is one of mammoth proportions. Over one hundred horses, several bands, a fine menagerie and a superior ring performance will be among the attractions.
 The lawn party given by Mr. and Mrs.
 C. H. Ross as a farewell reception to their friends was attended by about fifty people on Thursday evening and the time was spent in an enjoyable manner. A pleasant feature of the event was the presentation to Mrs. Ross by the ladies present of a beautiful silver spoon.
 Mr. C. G. Krook recently departed from New Ulm, the land of beer, school board and city council altercations, and is now studying law in the peaceful precincts of M. E. Matthew's office. He says the late storm of thunder, lightning and hail reminded him of the New Ulm annual school meeting last month.— Marshall Messenger.
 Last Wednesday as happy and jolly a party of ladies as one usually finds together visited our city and spent a few hours in viewing the sights, enjoying a good dinner at the Dakota House and spreading good cheer wherever they appeared. The party consisted of Mesdames Griffith, Gress, Gieseke, Somerville, Blanchard, Hays, Murfin and Welcome, all of Sleepy Eye.
 Geo. W. Somerville, who acted as chairman of the recent Republican county convention, has appointed a county committee consisting of the following members: C. A. Hagberg of New Ulm, Wm.
 Gieseke of Sleepy Eye, H. C. Warnke of Springfield, Martin Mueller of Essig and Gudman Anderson of Linden. Hagberg was selected as chairman, but, as yet, has not made up his mind to accept.
 The Farmers' Warehouse and Elevator Company of Springfield has elected the following directors: Silas Blackum, Phillip Matter, Martin Brodsord, A. E. Lee, Julius Wendt, A. Roberts, Chas. Gamble, H. C. Warnke, W. H. Rowe, Thos. Mc-Cormick, Walter Blackum and Daniel Burns. Silas Blackum is president, A.
 Roberts is vice-president, W. H. Rowe secretary and H. C. Warnke treasurer.

 New Ulm this fall. This is the same company which appeared here three years ago.
 Prof. Yache, the piano tuner for the Century Piano Co., will be in the city to-day. Leave orders with F. W. Hau-enstein.
 Yesterday was a red letter day at Camp Pahl. The families of all the campers rode out early in the morning and spent the entire day on the shores of the lake.
 Farmers can now secure the Review and Northwestern Agriculturist combined for $1.75. The merits of the latter paper make the offer an excellent one.
 This is the way the St. Peter Herald comments on the new New Ulm paper: It will be in the German language and will expound any cause not espoused by some other paper.
 Those desiring advertisements in the Brown County Fair Premium List should leave their orders early. It is a good medium through which to reach the farmers of the entire county.
 No serious accidents have been reported thus far from binder runaways but numerous runaways have nevertheless occurred. Many farmers seem to be too careless in the manner in which they leave their horses stand untied in the fields.
 Max Dick, the young St. Peter boy, is now first violinist for the New York Philharmonic Club, which is about to make a tour of the Pacific coast. Max has been doing some creditable work in the great metropolis and his performance have called forth some flattering notices from papers like the New York Sun and Herald.
 Col. Joseph Bobleter, of St. Paul, is in correspondence with the citizens of St. Peter, the purpose of the same being to bring several companies of the national guard to St. Peter on September 16 and 17, the last two days of the fair.
 The people here will be asked to feed and provide shelter for the troops.—St.
 Peter Herald.
 While Fred Klossner was working a binder on his field in Lafayette last Thursday he accidentally drove the horses in the direction of an old well that was hidden by weeds. The well was covered, but the boards were rotten, and when the first span of horses crossed it one fell in and dragged the other in also. Several hours were spent in getting the animals out.
 Powell Akkus was brought down from Springfield Monday night by Marshal Schwartzrock and confined in the county jail for a period of thirty days. It seems that Powell had become the plaything of strong drink on the day mentioned and as a result was tempted to raise a disturbance just for amusement.
 Even after he was locked in the Springfield calaboose he continued his boisterous demonstrations and smashed everything in sight. He is a cigar-maker by trade.
 A business transfer was made this week by which Jos. Vogel retires from the lumber business and his two sons, Louis and Alfred, assume management.
 The actual change does not occur until January, but the transfer of the property has nevertheless already been made. Mr.
 Vogel, who was identified with the business for so many years, retires on account of ill health, and in order to enjoy a season of rest as the reward of untiring effort. The business he leaves to two energetic and hustling young men, who will not fail to give it new impetus.
 The Mankato Review is taking an interest in Brown county politics. It says: Ed. R. Casey of Brown county has announced his intention of being a candidate for sheriff. Ed. Casey was a good soldier during the war, and after his return home he was elected sheriff. At the time he was accredited with being the best and most efficient officer in the state. He was a terror to evil doers, and horse-thieves, then so common in Minnesota, gave him a wide berth. He is probably older now, but he has the benefit of the experience of early days, and we hope he will be elected.

The Great German Chemist, Baron Liebig, wrote to Prof. Horsford:
 "I have through a great series of experiments satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your baking powder. The bread is easily digested and of the best taste."
 To the Voters of Brown County.
 I hereby announce myself an independent candidate for the office of sheriff of Brown county. Having been a resident of this county for thirty-five years, and upon an urgent request of my friends, I have decided to run. Hoping that my former record of two terms as sheriff will be endorsed by a majority vote at the November election, I am Yours Truly,
 EDWARD CASEY.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.
 Sealed bids will be received until Aug.
 15th for the erection of a refrigerator to be built in New Ulm, Minn.
 Plans can be seen and bids will be received at the office of the New Ulm Creamery Co.
 HENRY CRONE.

GIRL WANTED.
 A good girl is wanted to do hotel work. Inquire at the Dakota House.

FOR JUDGE OF PROBATE.
 At the request of many voters of the County of Brown, the undersigned hereby announces himself as an Independent candidate for the office of Judge of Probate at the coming election.
 Dated July 16th 1892.
 Ernst Brandt.

HOUSE FURNITURE FOR SALE.
 Between now and Sept. 1st, I will have numerous articles of household furniture which I will desire to sell. Parties desiring to purchase should call at my house on German St.
 C. H. Ross.

Public Examinations of Teachers.
 Notice is hereby given that public examinations of teachers for Brown Co. will be held as follows:
 At the Court House in New Ulm Aug.
 23 and 24, at the school house in Sleepy Eye, Aug. 26 and 27, at the school house in Springfield, Aug. 28 and 29.
 Examinations will begin at 9 o'clock a. m. sharp. A full attendance is desired as no private examinations will be given except for urgent reasons; and at such private examinations certificates will be given good for three to six months only in a given district.
 Dated Aug. 9th, 1892.
