SLEEPY EYE, MINN., June 1st, '92.
PROF. BIEBER:
I would like to say a few words in praise of the pair of spectacles you fitted for me, after being troubled with my eyes for some twenty years, so that at times I could not read five minutes. I am now able with the help of your glasses to read any paper through, and my eyes will feel rested. I have had my eyes fitted by a number of the best oculists and never till now have I been fitted. Hoping that others may be benefited as I have been, I remain, yours truly,
G. M. GRESS,
Supt. of Mfg., Sleepy Eye Milling Co.

Miss Myrtle Clarke, of Jackson, Miss., is visiting her friend Miss Gilsen Campbell, of this city, and last Thursday evening attended a full dress sociable given in her honor. Dancing was kept up until a late hour and refreshments were served by a Chicago caterer. The toilettes of the ladies were exquisite, Miss Clarke's gown especially calling forth much comment. It was made by Le Monde, of Chicago, of creme de la Madagascar, en train, with puff ruffles and a double row of dove feathers artistically arranged on the bias. The bodice was tight-fitting, decollete, of rabbit eye pink, relieved by a spray of lavender carnations, and the effect was charming. The secret of Miss Clarke's beautiful complexion is, that her mother uses Horsford's Baking Powder.
