

DR. A. MARDEN,
RESIDENT DENTIST.
 Office, Corner Minnesota and 2d N. Street.
NEW ULM, MINN.
 Teeth extracted without pain by the use of the latest approved methods.

L. A. FRITSCHER,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
Female Diseases a Specialty.
 Office in W. Bosch's New Brick Block,
 New Ulm, Minn.

DR. STRICKLER,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
 Office in G. Dosh's new brick block.
NEW ULM, MINN.
 Telephone Connections.

DR. J. L. SCHOCH,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
 Calls promptly attended to night or day.
 Office over Pioneer Drug Store.
NEW ULM, MINN.

DR. C. HIRSCH,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.
 Office over Olsen's Drugstore.
 When in town, can be found at office at all hours.
NEW ULM, MINN.

A. E. BEHNKE, D. V. S.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
 Office over Brown County Bank. Fine barn to the rear of the building, where horses can be left for treatment.

DR. L. G. BELL,
Resident Dentist.
 Office in the Meridian Block.
NEW ULM, MINN.
 Teeth extracted without pain by the latest approved methods.

DR. EMIL MUELLER
Veterinary Surgeon & Dentist.
 Calls either in the city or country promptly and satisfactorily attended to.
 Office in the Masonic Block, Second Floor.
NEW ULM, MINN.

DR. A. KOEHN,
Veterinary Surgeon.
 Having treated sick animals for years I can conscientiously recommend myself to all who need the services of a competent Veterinary. Orders may be left at the Pioneer Drug Store.
NEW ULM, MINN.

JOS. A. ECKSTEIN,
Attorney & Counselor
At Law.
 Titles examined and perfected.
 Particular attention given to collections.
 Office over Brown Co. Bank.
NEW ULM, MINN.
 JOHN LIND, C. A. HAGBERG

LIND & HAGBERG,
Attorneys and Counselors at Law, Attend to Suits in all the State and U. S. Courts.
 Special Attention Paid to Collections.
 GERMAN AND SCANDINAVIAN LAN-GUAGES SPOKEN.
NEW ULM, MINN.

FRANCIS BAASEN,
Attorney and Counselor
At Law.
 Also Notary Public and Justice of the Peace. Collections promptly attended to.
NEW ULM, MINN.

C. A. HEERS
Architect & Builder
 Broadway & South 5th Str. New Ulm.
 Plans and Specifications furnished and contracts taken for all classes of buildings.

Baer & Seiter.
 Dealers in Tinware
 STOVES, RANGES,
 GASOLINE STOVES,
 GASOLINE,
 ASBESTOS ROOFING,
 IRON & STEEL ROOFING, JOB WORK OF ALL KINDS.
 Stoves and Tinware are all of the best make and give excellent satisfaction.
 Store located next to Masonic Block.
FOR SALE.
 A one horse-power engine and boiler for sale at this office. Terms will be cheap.

LOCAL NEWS.
 Chas. A. Stoll has accepted a position with C. H. Hornburg.
 A valuable horse, belonging to Carl Schramm, died last Thursday.
 Alfred Helling of Linden will go to Nebraska this week to locate.
 Wm. Huevelmann has been very sick the past few days with inflammation of the bowels.
 C. H. Ross went to Minneapolis Monday morning. Mrs. Ross will join him to-morrow.
 L. W. Peterson of Davenport, Iowa, was a guest at the home of J. H. Tappe last week.
 Frank Whitney was called home from Winona Saturday evening by the serious illness of his wife.
 Dr. J. H. James of Mankato spent Sunday here and attended to some professional business.
 Miss Sophie Berndt has returned to Chicago to resume her duties in a wholesale millinery house.
 Miss Minnie Pfander has accepted a position as teacher in one of the Kindergarten schools in St. Paul.
 Henry Rolwes was noticed on the streets on Wednesday for the first time since his unfortunate accident last spring.
 Superintendent Davis examined sixteen applicants for teachers' certificates while in this city a week ago and eleven at Sleepy Eye.
 The Sibley County Enterprise came out for Ed. H. Huebner last week for county attorney, with an excellent portrait and biography.
 The sheriff of Waseca county was here Friday in search of circus hangers-on who were supposed to have committed burglaries at Janesville.
 Miss Lena Fischer, who has been spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Schmidt, left for her Chicago home Monday afternoon.
 The street commissioner estimates the cost to the city of the heavy and constant rains during the spring at $2,000. This is figured up from repairs on streets.
 School opened Monday morning with a fair attendance. In the afternoon there was no session in order to give time for examinations and promotions.
 The mother of Thomas Anderson of Bashaw was over one hundred years of age at the time of her death. She was perhaps the only centenarian in the county.
 The man, who was arrested at Watertown a week ago for distributing posters denouncing the Sells & Rentfrow shows has been indicted and will be held for trial for libel.
 Rev. Plut departed for the east Monday morning with the view of seeking another and more congenial location. He was not satisfied with his duties here and tendered his resignation.
 E. H. Huebner, the Winthrop attorney, was in town Wednesday. The Judge claims to have a sure thing in the county attorneyship, and we certainly trust that his claims will be realized.
 Fred Harlow, one of the night switchman in the Tracy yards, is at the hospital in this city receiving treatment for his left hand which was crushed while coupling cars several nights ago.
 Col. Bobleter, Julius Hermann, Herman Schlichting and Adam Heck, all of St. Paul, stopped off here last Wednesday on their way to Murray county where they spent the week in hunting.
 Over in Courtland recently, trumps set fire to some grain stacks belonging to Fred Pauline because they had been refused food. Treasurer Webster was up Friday to adjust the loss.
 Miss Josephine Pfander, who has been spending the summer here with her parents, has returned to St. Paul to enter again upon her work as teacher of German in one of the Sainly City seminaries.

"Das Volksblatt," the new German paper, will appear next week. The editor, Mr. Sanders, arrived last week from St. Louis, where he has been employed on a Catholic journal called "America." In politics he is a Democrat.
 The fellow, whoever he may be, who is in the habit of rapping on the windows of houses at night with vulgar intentions is apt to run up against the wrong place sometime and get hurt. There are some women who are not afraid to defend themselves.
 The acquaintances in this city of Mrs.
 Helms, mother of the well-known St.
 Paul travelling man, will be pained to learn that she sustained a paralytic stroke last week from which she was unconscious for several days. A partial recovery, however, is looked for.
 Henry Crone has awarded the contract for the mason work on his refrigerator to H. Hanschen and the frame work to Rudolph Massapust of West Newton.
 Building operations have already been commenced and when completed the structure will cost between $8,000 and $4,000.

Mrs. Dr. Fritsche was a St. Paul
 visitor last week.
 Gustav Reim has accepted a position with the H. H. Johnson jewelry firm.
 N. Henningson went to the Twin Cities on business Monday morning.
 A butcher shop and also a blacksmith shop have been erected in Linden.
 The new Democratic paper will sail
 under the head of "New Ulm News."
 The Ladies Society of the Turnverein will picnic at Hunter's Rest next Saturday.
 A. A. Bogen spent several days of last week hunting the prairie fowl in Redwood county.
 Miss Clara Rehfeld and Miss Schoch
 were St. Paul visitors the greater portion of the week.
 Judge Baldwin who is well-known
 here, is a candidate for judge of probate
 in Redwood county.
 Johnny Schapka has gone from Grand Forks and is now visiting with relatives in Milwaukee.
 Jos. Seiter, a brother of August and the late Adolph Seiter, died at his home in Logansport, Ind., last Wednesday.
 Ignatius Donnelly will make one campaign speech in New Ulm and so also will Mrs. Lease, the Kansas lady orator.
 Mrs. Albrecht and children have returned to their St. Paul home after a month's visit with the family of Col.
 Pfander.
 Rev. E. Kummer, the notorious, has departed for lands unknown and the congregation of the Sibley Lutheran church are happy.
 N. Henningson was confined to his room several days of last week with sickness but is again attending to business
 at the City Drug Store.
 Dr. Martin Luther College opens this week. Judging from the number of students already in the city, the attendance will be larger than usual this year.
 F. W. Hauenstein took the Monday afternoon train for the east on a business trip. He will visit Elgin, Rock Island, Aurora, Chicago, Milwaukee and several other cities before returning.
 Editor Henry of the new Democratic paper arrived in the city last Thursday evening accompanied by his wife and daughter. They will occupy the Roos residence on Broadway.
 The Review was in error when it stated that Lienhard Bros. had bought the stock of Henry Crone, on the contrary they will start up with a stock of everything in the dry goods and notion line.
 Rev. Kristopher Jensen, who has been spending the summer with his family near Lake Hanska, returns this week to his home in Minneapolis. According to the Madella Times his two sons expect
 to go to Berlin to continue their surgical studies.
 W. T. Eckstein, A. G. Seiter and
 Chas. Hornburg started on a bicycling circuit of neighboring towns on Saturday afternoon. They visited Madella, St. James, Lake Crystal and Mankato, and returned home by way of St. Peter Sunday evening.
 A nephew and niece of M. Dengler arrived here from Bavaria on Monday.
 They came by way of Quebec and were disinfected twice before being allowed to complete their journey. Had they come through New York, it is doubtful if they would have passed so easily.
 Oliver Matthews, who lived in the town of Home previous to the Indian massacre, and who was also a partner with H. A. Sublin in the distillery venture, was in the city last week renewing acquaintances with old friends. He is now residing in California, near Los Angeles.
 B. Marschner has concluded to erect a two-story brick building on the corner opposite the Washington House which he will occupy jointly as a residence and sales room for the product of his woolen factory. Mr. Marschner intends to push this industry in the future and the Review trusts that he will receive encouragement in his efforts.
 One man at the circus was led to believe that if he could show up $1,200 he could receive $1,500 in return. The old fellow was sufficiently unacquainted with the ways of sharpers to really believe this fake to the extent of asking the banks to loan him the money.
 M. F. Propping, formerly of New Ulm, came up from St. Paul yesterday to attend the funeral of Armin Steinhauser. During his residence in the Sainly City Mr. Propping has gained the reputation of being one of its ablest and most successful attorneys.

Chas. A. Stoll has accepted a position with C. H. Hornburg.
 A valuable horse, belonging to Carl Schramm, died last Thursday.
 Alfred Helling of Linden will go to Nebraska this week to locate.
 Wm. Huevelmann has been very sick
 the past few days with inflammation of the bowels.
 C. H. Ross went to Minneapolis Monday morning. Mrs. Ross will join him
 to-morrow.
 L. W. Peterson of Davenport, Iowa,
 was a guest at the home of J. H. Tappe
 last week.
 Frank Whitney was called home from Winona Saturday evening by the serious illness of his wife.
 Dr. J. H. James of Mankato spent Sunday here and attended to some professional business.
 Miss Sophie Berndt has returned to Chicago to resume her duties in a wholesale millinery house.
 Miss Minnie Pfander has accepted a position as teacher in one of the Kindergarten schools in St. Paul.
 Henry Rolwes was noticed on the streets on Wednesday for the first time since his unfortunate accident last spring.
 Superintendent Davis examined sixteen applicants for teachers' certificates
 while in this city a week ago and eleven
 at Sleepy Eye.
 The Sibley County Enterprise came
 out for Ed. H. Huebner last week for
 county attorney, with an excellent portrait and biography.
 The sheriff of Waseca county was here Friday in search of circus hangers-on
 who were supposed to have committed
 burglaries at Janesville.
 Miss Lena Fischer, who has been
 spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Schmidt, left for her Chicago
 home Monday afternoon.
 The street commissioner estimates the
 cost to the city of the heavy and constant
 rains during the spring at $2,000. This
 is figured up from repairs on streets.
 School opened Monday morning with
 a fair attendance. In the afternoon there was no session in order to give time for
 examinations and promotions.
 The mother of Thomas Anderson of
 Bashaw was over one hundred years of
 age at the time of her death. She was perhaps the only centenarian in the county.
 The man, who was arrested at Water-
 town a week ago for distributing posters denouncing the Sells & Rentfrow
 shows has been indicted and will be held
 for trial for libel.
 Rev. Plut departed for the east Monday morning with the view of seeking
 another and more congenial location. He
 was not satisfied with his duties here
 and tendered his resignation.
 E. H. Huebner, the Winthrop attorney,
 was in town Wednesday. The Judge
 claims to have a sure thing in the county attorneyship, and we certainly trust
 that his claims will be realized.
 Fred Harlow, one of the night switch-
 man in the Tracy yards, is at the hospital in this city receiving treatment for
 his left hand which was crushed while
 coupling cars several nights ago.
 Col. Bobleter, Julius Hermann, Herman Schlichting and Adam Heck, all of
 St. Paul, stopped off here last Wednesday on their way to Murray county
 where they spent the week in hunting.
 Over in Courtland recently, trumps
 set fire to some grain stacks belonging
 to Fred Pauline because they had been refused food. Treasurer Webster was up Friday to adjust the loss.
 Miss Josephine Pfander, who has
 been spending the summer here with her parents, has returned to St. Paul to enter again upon her work as teacher of German in one of the Sainly City seminaries.

Mrs. Dr. Fritsche was a St. Paul
 visitor last week.
 Gustav Reim has accepted a position
 with the H. H. Johnson jewelry firm.
 N. Henningson went to the Twin
 Cities on business Monday morning.
 A butcher shop and also a blacksmith
 shop have been erected in Linden.
 The new Democratic paper will sail
 under the head of "New Ulm News."
 The Ladies Society of the Turnverein
 will picnic at Hunter's Rest next Saturday.
 A. A. Bogen spent several days of last week hunting the prairie fowl in Red-
 wood county.
 Miss Clara Rehfeld and Miss Schoch
 were St. Paul visitors the greater portion of the week.
 Judge Baldwin who is well-known
 here, is a candidate for judge of probate
 in Redwood county.
 Johnny Schapka has gone from
 Grand Forks and is now visiting with
 relatives in Milwaukee.
 Jos. Seiter, a brother of August and
 the late Adolph Seiter, died at his home
 in Logansport, Ind., last Wednesday.
 Ignatius Donnelly will make one
 campaign speech in New Ulm and so also will Mrs. Lease, the Kansas lady orator.
 Mrs. Albrecht and children have returned to their St. Paul home after a month's visit with the family of Col.
 Pfander.
 Rev. E. Kummer, the notorious, has
 departed for lands unknown and the
 congregation of the Sibley Lutheran
 church are happy.
 N. Henningson was confined to his
 room several days of last week with sickness but is again attending to business
 at the City Drug Store.
 Dr. Martin Luther College opens this
 week. Judging from the number of students already in the city, the attendance will be larger than usual this year.
 F. W. Hauenstein took the Monday
 afternoon train for the east on a business
 trip. He will visit Elgin, Rock Island,
 Aurora, Chicago, Milwaukee and several
 other cities before returning.
 Editor Henry of the new Democratic
 paper arrived in the city last Thursday
 evening accompanied by his wife and
 daughter. They will occupy the Roos
 residence on Broadway.
 The Review was in error when it stated
 that Lienhard Bros. had bought the stock
 of Henry Crone, on the contrary they
 will start up with a stock
 of everything in the dry goods and notion line.
 Rev. Kristopher Jensen, who has been spending the summer with his family
 near Lake Hanska, returns this week to
 his home in Minneapolis. According to
 the Madella Times his two sons expect
 to go to Berlin to continue their surgical studies.
 W. T. Eckstein, A. G. Seiter and
 Chas. Hornburg started on a bicycling circuit of neighboring towns on Saturday afternoon. They visited Madella,
 St. James, Lake Crystal and Mankato,
 and returned home by way of St. Peter Sunday evening.
 A nephew and niece of M. Dengler arrived here from Bavaria on Monday.
 They came by way of Quebec and were
 disinfected twice before being allowed to
 complete their journey. Had they come through New York, it is doubtful if they would have passed so easily.
 Oliver Matthews, who lived in the town of Home previous to the Indian massacre, and who was also a partner
 with H. A. Sublin in the distillery venture, was in the city last week renewing
 acquaintances with old friends. He is now residing in California, near Los Angeles.
 B. Marschner has concluded to erect a two-story brick building on the corner
 opposite the Washington House which
 he will occupy jointly as a residence and
 sales room for the product of his woolen
 factory. Mr. Marschner intends to push this industry in the future and the Review trusts that he will receive encouragement in his efforts.
 One man at the circus was led to believe that if he could show up $1,200 he could receive $1,500 in return. The old
 fellow was sufficiently unacquainted
 with the ways of sharpers to really believe this fake to the extent of asking
 the banks to loan him the money.
 M. F. Propping, formerly of New
 Ulm, came up from St. Paul yesterday
 to attend the funeral of Armin Steinhauser. During his residence in the Sainly City Mr. Propping has gained
 the reputation of being one of its ablest
 and most successful attorneys.

Mrs. Dr. Fritsche was a St. Paul
 visitor last week.
 Gustav Reim has accepted a position
 with the H. H. Johnson jewelry firm.
 N. Henningson went to the Twin
 Cities on business Monday morning.
 A butcher shop and also a blacksmith
 shop have been erected in Linden.
 The new Democratic paper will sail
 under the head of "New Ulm News."
 The Ladies Society of the Turnverein
 will picnic at Hunter's Rest next Saturday.
 A. A. Bogen spent several days of last week hunting the prairie fowl in Red-
 wood county.
 Miss Clara Rehfeld and Miss Schoch
 were St. Paul visitors the greater portion of the week.
 Judge Baldwin who is well-known
 here, is a candidate for judge of probate
 in Redwood county.
 Johnny Schapka has gone from
 Grand Forks and is now visiting with
 relatives in Milwaukee.
 Jos. Seiter, a brother of August and
 the late Adolph Seiter, died at his home
 in Logansport, Ind., last Wednesday.
 Ignatius Donnelly will make one
 campaign speech in New Ulm and so also will Mrs. Lease, the Kansas lady orator.
 Mrs. Albrecht and children have returned to their St. Paul home after a month's visit with the family of Col.
 Pfander.
 Rev. E. Kummer, the notorious, has
 departed for lands unknown and the
 congregation of the Sibley Lutheran
 church are happy.
 N. Henningson was confined to his
 room several days of last week with sickness but is again attending to business
 at the City Drug Store.
 Dr. Martin Luther College opens this
 week. Judging from the number of students already in the city, the attendance will be larger than usual this year.
 F. W. Hauenstein took the Monday
 afternoon train for the east on a business
 trip. He will visit Elgin, Rock Island,
 Aurora, Chicago, Milwaukee and several
 other cities before returning.
 Editor Henry of the new Democratic
 paper arrived in the city last Thursday
 evening accompanied by his wife and
 daughter. They will occupy the Roos
 residence on Broadway.
 The Review was in error when it stated
 that Lienhard Bros. had bought the stock
 of Henry Crone, on the contrary they
 will start up with a stock
 of everything in the dry goods and notion line.
 Rev. Kristopher Jensen, who has been spending the summer with his family
 near Lake Hanska, returns this week to
 his home in Minneapolis. According to
 the Madella Times his two sons expect
 to go to Berlin to continue their surgical studies.
 W. T. Eckstein, A. G. Seiter and
 Chas. Hornburg started on a bicycling circuit of neighboring towns on Saturday afternoon. They visited Madella,
 St. James, Lake Crystal and Mankato,
 and returned home by way of St. Peter Sunday evening.
 A nephew and niece of M. Dengler arrived here from Bavaria on Monday.
 They came by way of Quebec and were
 disinfected twice before being allowed to
 complete their journey. Had they come through New York, it is doubtful if they would have passed so easily.
 Oliver Matthews, who lived in the town of Home previous to the Indian massacre, and who was also a partner
 with H. A. Sublin in the distillery venture, was in the city last week renewing
 acquaintances with old friends. He is now residing in California, near Los Angeles.
 B. Marschner has concluded to erect a two-story brick building on the corner
 opposite the Washington House which
 he will occupy jointly as a residence and
 sales room for the product of his woolen
 factory. Mr. Marschner intends to push this industry in the future and the Review trusts that he will receive encouragement in his efforts.
 One man at the circus was led to believe that if he could show up $1,200 he could receive $1,500 in return. The old
 fellow was sufficiently unacquainted
 with the ways of sharpers to really believe this fake to the extent of asking
 the banks to loan him the money.
 M. F. Propping, formerly of New
 Ulm, came up from St. Paul yesterday
 to attend the funeral of Armin Steinhauser. During his residence in the Sainly City Mr. Propping has gained
 the reputation of being one of its ablest
 and most successful attorneys.

Mrs. Dr. Fritsche was a St. Paul
 visitor last week.
 Gustav Reim has accepted a position
 with the H. H. Johnson jewelry firm.
 N. Henningson went to the Twin
 Cities on business Monday morning.
 A butcher shop and also a blacksmith
 shop have been erected in Linden.
 The new Democratic paper will sail
 under the head of "New Ulm News."
 The Ladies Society of the Turnverein
 will picnic at Hunter's Rest next Saturday.
 A. A. Bogen spent several days of last week hunting the prairie fowl in Red-
 wood county.
 Miss Clara Rehfeld and Miss Schoch
 were St. Paul visitors the greater portion of the week.
 Judge Baldwin who is well-known
 here, is a candidate for judge of probate
 in Redwood county.
 Johnny Schapka has gone from
 Grand Forks and is now visiting with
 relatives in Milwaukee.
 Jos. Seiter, a brother of August and
 the late Adolph Seiter, died at his home
 in Logansport, Ind., last Wednesday.
 Ignatius Donnelly will make one
 campaign speech in New Ulm and so also will Mrs. Lease, the Kansas lady orator.
 Mrs. Albrecht and children have returned to their St. Paul home after a month's visit with the family of Col.
 Pfander.
 Rev. E. Kummer, the notorious, has
 departed for lands unknown and the
 congregation of the Sibley Lutheran
 church are happy.
 N. Henningson was confined to his
 room several days of last week with sickness but is again attending to business
 at the City Drug Store.
 Dr. Martin Luther College opens this
 week. Judging from the number of students already in the city, the attendance will be larger than usual this year.
 F. W. Hauenstein took the Monday
 afternoon train for the east on a business
 trip. He will visit Elgin, Rock Island,
 Aurora, Chicago, Milwaukee and several
 other cities before returning.
 Editor Henry of the new Democratic
 paper arrived in the city last Thursday
 evening accompanied by his wife and
 daughter. They will occupy the Roos
 residence on Broadway.
 The Review was in error when it stated
 that Lienhard Bros. had bought the stock
 of Henry Crone, on the contrary they
 will start up with a stock
 of everything in the dry goods and notion line.
 Rev. Kristopher Jensen, who has been spending the summer with his family
 near Lake Hanska, returns this week to
 his home in Minneapolis. According to
 the Madella Times his two sons expect
 to go to Berlin to continue their surgical studies.
 W. T. Eckstein, A. G. Seiter and
 Chas. Hornburg started on a bicycling circuit of neighboring towns on Saturday afternoon. They visited Madella,
 St. James, Lake Crystal and Mankato,
 and returned home by way of St. Peter Sunday evening.
 A nephew and niece of M. Dengler arrived here from Bavaria on Monday.
 They came by way of Quebec and were
 disinfected twice before being allowed to
 complete their journey. Had they come through New York, it is doubtful if they would have passed so easily.
 Oliver Matthews, who lived in the town of Home previous to the Indian massacre, and who was also a partner
 with H. A. Sublin in the distillery venture, was in the city last week renewing
 acquaintances with old friends. He is now residing in California, near Los Angeles.
 B. Marschner has concluded to erect a two-story brick building on the corner
 opposite the Washington House which
 he will occupy jointly as a residence and
 sales room for the product of his woolen
 factory. Mr. Marschner intends to push this industry in the future and the Review trusts that he will receive encouragement in his efforts.
 One man at the circus was led to believe that if he could show up $1,200 he could receive $1,500 in return. The old
 fellow was sufficiently unacquainted
 with the ways of sharpers to really believe this fake to the extent of asking
 the banks to loan him the money.
 M. F. Propping, formerly of New
 Ulm, came up from St. Paul yesterday
 to attend the funeral of Armin Steinhauser. During his residence in the Sainly City Mr. Propping has gained
 the reputation of being one of its ablest
 and most successful attorneys.

Mrs. Dr. Fritsche was a St. Paul
 visitor last week.
 Gustav Reim has accepted a position
 with the H. H. Johnson jewelry firm.
 N. Henningson went to the Twin
 Cities on business Monday morning.
 A butcher shop and also a blacksmith
 shop have been erected in Linden.
 The new Democratic paper will sail
 under the head of "New Ulm News."
 The Ladies Society of the Turnverein
 will picnic at Hunter's Rest next Saturday.
 A. A. Bogen spent several days of last week hunting the prairie fowl in Red-
 wood county.
 Miss Clara Rehfeld and Miss Schoch
 were St. Paul visitors the greater portion of the week.
 Judge Baldwin who is well-known
 here, is a candidate for judge of probate
 in Redwood county.
 Johnny Schapka has gone from
 Grand Forks and is now visiting with
 relatives in Milwaukee.
 Jos. Seiter, a brother of August and
 the late Adolph Seiter, died at his home
 in Logansport, Ind., last Wednesday.
 Ignatius Donnelly will make one
 campaign speech in New Ulm and so also will Mrs. Lease, the Kansas lady orator.
 Mrs. Albrecht and children have returned to their St. Paul home after a month's visit with the family of Col.
 Pfander.
 Rev. E. Kummer, the notorious, has
 departed for lands unknown and the
 congregation of the Sibley Lutheran
 church are happy.
 N. Henningson was confined to his
 room several days of last week with sickness but is again attending to business
 at the City Drug Store.
 Dr. Martin Luther College opens this
 week. Judging from the number of students already in the city, the attendance will be larger than usual this year.
 F. W. Hauenstein took the Monday
 afternoon train for the east on a business
 trip. He will visit Elgin, Rock Island,
 Aurora, Chicago, Milwaukee and several
 other cities before returning.
 Editor Henry of the new Democratic
 paper arrived in the city last Thursday
 evening accompanied by his wife and
 daughter. They will occupy the Roos
 residence on Broadway.
 The Review was in error when it stated
 that Lienhard Bros. had bought the stock
 of Henry Crone, on the contrary they
 will start up with a stock
 of everything in the dry goods and notion line.
 Rev. Kristopher Jensen, who has been spending the summer with his family
 near Lake Hanska, returns this week to
 his home in Minneapolis. According to
 the Madella Times his two sons expect
 to go to Berlin to continue their surgical studies.
 W. T. Eckstein, A. G. Seiter and
 Chas. Hornburg started on a bicycling circuit of neighboring towns on Saturday afternoon. They visited Madella,
 St. James, Lake Crystal and Mankato,
 and returned home by way of St. Peter Sunday evening.
 A nephew and niece of M. Dengler arrived here from Bavaria on Monday.
 They came by way of Quebec and were
 disinfected twice before being allowed to
 complete their journey. Had they come through New York, it is doubtful if they would have passed so easily.
 Oliver Matthews, who lived in the town of Home previous to the Indian massacre, and who was also a partner
 with H. A. Sublin in the distillery venture, was in the city last week renewing
 acquaintances with old friends. He is now residing in California, near Los Angeles.
 B. Marschner has concluded to erect a two-story brick building on the corner
 opposite the Washington House which
 he will occupy jointly as a residence and
 sales room for the product of his woolen
 factory. Mr. Marschner intends to push this industry in the future and the Review trusts that he will receive encouragement in his efforts.
 One man at the circus was led to believe that if he could show up $1,200 he could receive $1,500 in return. The old
 fellow was sufficiently unacquainted
 with the ways of sharpers to really believe this fake to the extent of asking
 the banks to loan him the money.
 M. F. Propping, formerly of New
 Ulm, came up from St. Paul yesterday
 to attend the funeral of Armin Steinhauser. During his residence in the Sainly City Mr. Propping has gained
 the reputation of being one of its ablest
 and most successful attorneys.

Mrs. Dr. Fritsche was a St. Paul
 visitor last week.
 Gustav Reim has accepted a position
 with the H. H. Johnson jewelry firm.
 N. Henningson went to the Twin
 Cities on business Monday morning.
 A butcher shop and also a blacksmith
 shop have been erected in Linden.
 The new Democratic paper will sail
 under the head of "New Ulm News."
 The Ladies Society of the Turnverein
 will picnic at Hunter's Rest next Saturday.
 A. A. Bogen spent several days of last week hunting the prairie fowl in Red-
 wood county.
 Miss Clara Rehfeld and Miss Schoch
 were St. Paul visitors the greater portion of the week.
 Judge Baldwin who is well-known
 here, is a candidate for judge of probate
 in Redwood county.
 Johnny Schapka has gone from
 Grand Forks and is now visiting with
 relatives in Milwaukee.
 Jos. Seiter, a brother of August and
 the late Adolph Seiter, died at his home
 in Logansport, Ind., last Wednesday.
 Ignatius Donnelly will make one
 campaign speech in New Ulm and so also will Mrs. Lease, the Kansas lady orator.
 Mrs. Albrecht and children have returned to their St. Paul home after a month's visit with the family of Col.
 Pfander.
 Rev. E. Kummer, the notorious, has
 departed for lands unknown and the
 congregation of the Sibley Lutheran
 church are happy.
 N. Henningson was confined to his
 room several days of last week with sickness but is again attending to business
 at the City Drug Store.
 Dr. Martin Luther College opens this
 week. Judging from the number of students already in the city, the attendance will be larger than usual this year.
 F. W. Hauenstein took the Monday
 afternoon train for the east on a business
 trip. He will visit Elgin, Rock Island,
 Aurora, Chicago, Milwaukee and several
 other cities before returning.
 Editor Henry of the new Democratic
 paper arrived in the city last Thursday
 evening accompanied by his wife and
 daughter. They will occupy the Roos
 residence on Broadway.
 The Review was in error when it stated
 that Lienhard Bros. had bought the stock
 of Henry Crone, on the contrary they
 will start up with a stock
 of everything in the dry goods and notion line.
 Rev. Kristopher Jensen, who has been spending the summer with his family
 near Lake Hanska, returns this week to
 his home in Minneapolis. According to
 the Madella Times his two sons expect
 to go to Berlin to continue their surgical studies.