 lican and voters at Union Hall in German on Friday night. Turn out and hear him.
 A new switch engine has been placed in the yards here. The average number of cars shipped from here daily is twenty-five.
 Edward Gerboth of St. Paul is visiting with his parents in the town of Sigel.
 He came up to attend the Seiter-Hauenstein wedding.
 Miss Clara Doehne received her friends at her pleasant home on German St. Thursday evening and entertained them in a pleasant manner.
 A steam riding gallery is being operated on the hill west of Turner Hall. It will afford amusement to the children for the rest of the week.
 Wm. Alwin is back from his New York visit and may decide to locate here. He is at present entertaining his friend, Mr.
 Johnson, of St. Paul.
 M. Leary took his crew of bridge builders to Watertown on Monday to replace some of the railroad company's buildings that had been destroyed by fire.
 Another expert is in the city endeavoring to transform the Volksblatt engine into a machine that will do what it is advertised to do. So far it hasn't.
 Alfred, a ten-year-old son of Wm.
 Brust, died on Saturday after an illness of several years. The funeral was held from the Catholic church Monday morning.
 A. N. Faas and Theo. Kobaarsch have dissolved the partnership heretofore existing between them as plumbers, and A.
 N. Faas assumes all the assets and liabilities.
 Prof. Heller, the magician, who did the "eye deceiving" for the Kickapoo Medicine Co. when here last winter, was in town Wednesday, accompanied by his wife.
 There is a young man in New Ulm, we are told, who is so cautious that in calling he always knocks for fear if he came with a ring she might consider it a proposal. Funny, "aint it?" The Ladies' World's Fair Auxiliary of this city have decided to give an entertainment for the purpose of raising funds at Turner Hall late in October or early in November. Exact date will be announced next week.
 The family of H. S. Kennedy arrived from Mankato early this week and have taken up their residence in the Beuss-mann building over Ottomeyer's store.
 One of the first things Mr. Kennedy did after reaching town was to register.
 Columbus Day will be observed in all of the rooms of the public schools on a week from Friday. For the first time in the history of the schools the parents of the children will be invited to visit the schools together and witness the exercises.
 Brown county is to be favored with a visit from another of Minnesota's ablest men, Hon. Moses E. Clapp. This eloquent and popular orator will speak in Sleepy Eye on the evening of the 19th and in Springfield on the evening of the 20th.
 Large audiences are sure to greet him.
 A Republican glee club has been organized and will hold its first meeting this evening at the Lutheran school building. The members composing the club are: Jos. A. Eckstein, leader, Wm. Blauert, Alf. Vogel, A. Ottomeyer, Geo. Boock, Adolph and Rudolph Alwin, Fred Vogelpohl and Chas. Hornburg.

Miss Bogen returned from Chaska Saturday evening.
 Mrs. M. Zschunke has moved into her new residence.
 M. Mullen and O. C. Strickler went to St. Paul Monday.
 Simon Wellner of Lafayette will rent his farm and move to town.
 T. Crone will leave this week for California to remain over winter.
 John Lind came home from the northern part of the State Saturday evening.
 W. A. Hubbard was called to Springfield last Saturday to attend a sick brother.
 C. C. Engelbert, who recently returned from Washington, has purchased the Ohme farm in Cottonwood.
 The father and mother of O. M. Olsen were here over Sunday returning on Monday to their home in Lake Prairie.
 Miss Katie Silverson gave a party to a number of her friends, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silverson Saturday evening.
 Robert Simpson, who has been spending the summer with Jacob Klossner, returned to his Minneapolis home on Wednesday.
 Company A will leave for Chicago next week. The boys have recently been furnished with new uniforms and army overcoats.
 The railroad company are placing a deep-well pump in their new well and will receive power from the New Ulm Elevator Company's engine.
 Mrs. Froemming, a middle-aged lady of Milford died last week and was buried Sunday afternoon from the Lutheran church of this city, Rev. Albrecht officiating.
 Hennessy, the young Tracy fellow who has been cultivating an acquaintance with iron beds and stone walls in the New Ulm jail for several weeks, was released on Saturday.
 F. H. Behnke and Alex Scott attended a Masonic meeting in Sleepy Eye Monday evening. Jos. A. Eckstein and Ernst Brandt attended one in Springfield at the same time.
 Peter Scherer addressed the voters of Milford in German on Sunday. Regular Republican meetings are now being held in that town and effective work is being done for the party.
 Geo. Durbahn was treated to a pleasant surprise by his friends on Monday evening, about thirty of them having gathered at his home to spend a farewell evening, previous to his moving to New Ulm.
 One of the Democratic candidates for office is said to carry a horse-shoe for good luck. This is right in line with Charlie Heidemans' four leaf clover find, and the two ought to get together and sing "I found a horse-shoe" with variations to suit.
 Burglars entered the jewelry store of J. C. Toberer on Saturday morning and succeeded in getting away with about $40 worth of silver-plated knives, forks, spoons, gold pens, and trinkets. The entrance was effected through the rear windows and the burglars escaped without attracting attention. No trace of them or of the goods has been discovered.
 At Union Hall on Sunday evening Herman Schmidt, middle-weight champion wrestler of America, and Chas.
 Moth the heavy-weight champion from Hamburg, Germany, will amuse the lovers of sport in a wrestling match, for which reserved seats are at present selling at $1.00. They also extend a challenge to all comers to meet them in their respective fields.
 The ladies of New Ulm have decided to allow their exhibit at Chicago to consist chiefly of lace and lace-workers. A small house will be erected on the Minnesota grounds and in this will be either a Bohemian lace-maker from New Ulm with her husband or two of the women.
 The people of Albert Lea are taken with the idea and offer to erect the building, but it is quite likely that the New Ulm ladies will bear the expense themselves.
 W. A. Funk, who presided over the congressional convention and who, by the way, is a pleasing and effective speaker, and I. M. Olson of this city have been assigned for several speeches in Brown county and will visit various sections as follows: Linden, October 17th; Lake Hanska, Oct. 18th; Evan, afternoon of Oct. 19th; Golden Gate, evening of Oct.
 19th; Bashaw, Oct. 20th. Announcement will be made later as to the exact place and time of speaking.
 Two toughs sauntered about town Saturday and Sunday and seemed bent on nothing but raising a ruction. During the day they sent a telegram to young Hennessy's relatives in Tracy to the effect that the released prisoner was sick.
 This brought down two men from Tracy and when they found that they had been fooled the atmosphere and surroundings for the two toughs became portentous.
 It finally resulted in the use of revolvers and fists and then the police managed to interfere.

Henry Dirks of Springfield was a guest in this vicinity over Sunday.
 Chas. Hoerschler has returned to La Crosse after a two weeks' visit.
 Several children of Frank Altmann in Lafayette are afflicted with sickness.
 Henry Hildebrandt of St. Peter is visiting with Mr. Schrader of Lafayette.
 Casper Blethen, a brother of H. L.
 Blethen of this city, has been nominated by the Redwood Republicans for sheriff.
 Prof. McCleary, the popular Republican candidate for congress has been booked for four speeches in Brown county. These will be made as follows: Linden, afternoon of November 3rd; Lake Hanska, evening of same day; Albin, afternoon of November 4th; Sleepy Eye, evening of same day. The professor is one of the most interesting talkers on the stump and every voter in the towns mentioned should turn out and hear him.
 On a week from next Monday, the Brown County Sunday school convention will convene at the Congregational church in this city. The program has been partly arranged and among the features looked forward to with pleasure is an address by Dr. Smith Baker of Minne-sopolis on Monday evening. W. W. P. Mc-Connell of Mankato will speak the following night and Tuesday morning a paper will be read by Rev. Baumgarten of this city.
 Gerhard Schapekahn and Miss Serwina Weddendorf were married at the home of the latter's parents on Wednesday evening.
 Numerous guests were present and an evening of unalloyed pleasure was passed. The contracting parties are well known in New Ulm having lived here all of their lives. The groom is one of the thriftest and most respected young men in town and the bride holds an equal station among those who know her. Their many friends will therefore wish them abundant happiness and prosperity.
 Sunday night about 8 o'clock thieves entered F. Leibold's residence while the occupants were sitting in the parlor and stole some old clothes from a closet.
 They opened a side window and stepped across a bed where two children were sleeping and escaped without being noticed at all. After leaving the house they must have left town at once, for search was made for them about nine o'clock by the authorities without success. The old clothes which they stole, they left in Scherer's lumber yard, not finding anything in them of value.
 Cy Wellington, the celebrated criminal lawyer, spoke at Turner Hall on Saturday evening in the interests of Democracy. The hall was by no means crowded for many seats were empty and a good number of Republicans were present. He dealt chiefly with the tariff and alleged wheat combine, and held his auditors interested for nearly two hours. We had intended to publish a short hand report of his speech, but since even the correctness of these, when they appear in the Review, are challenged by the organ of the party out of common courtesy to which we publish them, we are compelled to forego even that much in obedience to their own request.
 Sometime ago the Chicago News Record published a list of twenty-five difficult questions, the answers to which are to be found somewhere in the Britannica, and offered valuable prizes to successful contestants. The result was to have been announced on the 21st, but an additional week was granted for the benefit of the Chicago school children. Four hundred and ten sent in answers in that time and the result was announced Wednesday, twenty-three of the prizes going to the contestants in Chicago. Only two prizes were awarded outside of the Lake City and these went to a girl in Grand Rapids, Mich., and to Miss Meta Seiter of this city. Had not the extra week been permitted, the chances would have been in favor of the outsiders.
 "Concord Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a specific for croup. It is very pleasant to take, which is one of the most important requisites where a cough remedy is intended for use among children. I have known of cases of croup where I know the life of a little one was saved by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." J. J. LaGrange, druggist, Avoca, Neb. 50 cent bottles for sale by O. M. Olsen Druggist.
 Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this Remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquifying the mucus and causing its expulsion the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly. For sale by O. M. Olsen Druggist.

SOME SLEEPY EYELETS.
 The Review Correspondent Writes in his Usual Interesting Vein.
 Sleepy Eye has a new practitioner in medicine. His name is C. F. Gierbach.
 Billy Gieseke spent Sunday at home.
 Marshall life seems to deal kindly with him.
 Jack Frost has put in an appearance at last and cholera alarmists draw a sigh of relief.
 Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Westaby of Apple River, Ill., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. H. C. Hess.
 Sleepy Eye had a mild attack of Kick-apoo on Saturday evening. No serious damage has resulted.
 It is said that "large bodies move slowly." If velocity is indicative of size, our Board of Health must be a plank of colossal proportions.
 Rev. Arthur Chard, rector of All Souls church, was married last Tuesday at Farmington. The bride is a Miss Susan B. West of that place.
 Dr. Smith of Lafayette, Ind., brother of W. W. Smith, the genial junior partner of the Merchants Bank, has been visiting here during the past week.
 Dr. Marcellus, P. C. Peterson, Mesdames Arveson and Hodges are at St.
 Paul this week attending the annual state convention of the Minnesota Baptists.
 The grocery firm of Barr and Weber has dissolved by mutual consent. Mr.
 A. J. Barr and son Dave will continue the business under the firm name of Barr & Son. This store has acquired an enviable trade which the new management will no doubt retain if square and uniformly courteous treatment will do it.
 Some 40 or 50 republicans, 1 democrat 1 populist and 1 prohibitionist went to Redwood Falls on Friday evening to attend the rally and hear U. S. Senator C.
 K. Davis speak. Two extra coaches were attached to accommodate the increased traffic from Sleepy Eye, Evan and Morgan. The rally was an enthusiastic success.
 A wave of plug hatitude has struck our town. Grandpa's hats can be seen at frequent intervals bobbing midst the "maddening throng," with here and there a Cleveland tile. The pops appear to have no characteristic capillary tegu-ment.
 Micawber.
Springfield.
 The new bank opens the 15th.
 J. J. Ray was in New Ulm on Monday.
 Mr. Ed Bahe left Friday to spend a few days at Redwood Falls.
 Seats have been ordered for the new school department, which will be opened the first of November.
 Mr. Conrad Zonka is erecting a frame dwelling house on the lot recently purchased of W. H. Rowe.
 Mr. Chas. Cutting of Sleepy Eye, candidate for county superintendent of schools on the People's Party ticket, was in town Saturday.
 The Misses Jennie and Annie Roth entertained a party of young people, at their home Saturday evening. A highly enjoyable time is reported.
 We understand that Willie Anderson has engaged to teach a winter term of school in Sigel township. This is Willie's first teaching and he has our best wishes for his success.
 The address by Professor Tipton on Friday evening was listened to by a large and attentive audience. His topic of discussion was the tariff, and by weaving in a bit of humor here and there, he made this generally considered dry subject very interesting.
 Rev. R. S. D. Preston intends leaving Springfield soon, having resigned his position as pastor of the Congregational Church. Mr. Preston is a very ableman in the pulpit and is popular among almost all denominations. We are very sorry to lose him and feel confident that it will be some time before another will be found who can fill the position as well as he does.
 Mr. Henry Ohlsen and Miss Laura Emmersen, both of this place, were united in the bonds of matrimony last evening at 8 o'clock, at the German Lutheran Church, Rev. Gauschau of Good Thunder officiating. After the ceremony a reception was given by the parents of the bride.
 Many elegant presents were received by the happy couple, which go to show the high esteem in which they held by their many friends.
 The Springfield Choral Society held its first meeting since the summer vacation in the public school building last Tuesday evening. The following officers were elected: L. E. Covell, president; Edgar Elliot, secretary; Carrie Emerson, treasurer; Lillian Anderson, leader and Jennie Burns organist. This society which was organized about eight months ago now has a membership of more than thirty. It was organized for the purpose of improving its members in musical ability and all declare themselves profited by the instruction received. We hope it will prove as beneficial in the future as it has in the past.

AUCTION SALE.
 The undersigned will sell at public auction at his farm in the Town of Cottonwood, 4 1/2 miles from New Ulm, on October 22d, 1892, commencing at 10 a. m., five horses, 14 head of cattle, farming implements of every variety and household goods and furniture.
 Jos. Wiesner.

FARM FOR SALE.
 I offer my farm for sale at a reasonable price. It consists of 151 acres with good buildings and well and four acres of fine timber, grown under cultivation.
 The farm is located half a mile from the Linden and twelve miles south of New Ulm. Call on me for particulars.
 John O. Pladsen.

STEAM RIDING GALLERY.
 There will be a steam swing running west of Turner Hall this evening. Everbody come and see us. It costs but five
