Herman Keller, formerly of this city, is now employed as an operator near Helena, Montana.
Fritz Behnke has bought the team owned by Chas. Pingle, deceased. The purchase was made Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jac. Klossner, Mrs. H. Lillie and Mrs. Mowry drove over to West Newton yesterday afternoon.
John Sturm of Cottonwood has had five children sick with scarlet fever but they are getting better gradually.
John Albert will leave for Great Falls, Montana, this week, where he has been offered a good position in a clothing store.
E. G. Pahl returned from a business trip to Pittsburg, Pa., Tuesday morning. He did not tarry to take in the inauguration.
Geo. Bevier contemplates moving to Montana with his family. His mother-in-law, Mrs. Keller, will also accompany him.
County roads are in a bad condition and to meet or pass a team is almost sure to result in an upset as the roads are so much higher than their sides.
Port Gibbs and wife who moved to Montana from Golden Gate three years ago, were in the city Saturday. They will return to Helena in a few weeks.
An elderly man by the name of Dusch of Milford was treated by Dr. Schoch Saturday for cancer in the ear and to remove it, the ear was amputated.
A new smoke stack at the Eagle Mill will be built as soon as spring appears. Contractor Hanschen estimates that 125,000 bricks will be used in the course of its construction.
A. N. Paas, it is understood, has skipped the country leaving behind him numerous creditors who would much prefer to have him here. His whereabouts are as yet unknown.
It is quite likely that Chas. Wagner will give the building occupied by Wagner & Saverien a new front this year. The improvement, if brought about, will be a creditable one.
Dr. Pease and wife of Redwood Falls, Miss Mamie Heusel of St. Paul and Mr. Voight of Hastings were among the people from abroad who attended the Pythian banquet on Monday evening.
Gustav Sell, who has been a faithful employee of Martin Penning, the well-known Brown County farmer, for three years past left yesterday afternoon for Milwaukee, where he intends to locate.
John Shoemaker who was incarcerated in jail two weeks ago on the charge of stealing a keg of beer at Springfield was released Monday on $500.00 bail, to appear at the next term of the District Court.
An action has been commenced in the district court in which J. W. Cleary, of Ridgley, is plaintiff, and Denni O'Shea, of Lafayette, is the defendant. The action is to recover certain pieces of land in Ridgley.
Wm. Quandt returned last Saturday from his visit to Batavia, New York. While east, he visited several prominent centers of attraction and wonder. Among other sights he beheld the grandeur of Niagara Falls in winter time. He also spent some time at the World's Fair grounds.
Thursday afternoon the contract for building the tower of the Catholic Church was let. Schapekahn & Hanschen were the successful bidders, their bid being about $5,400. Work on the same will be begun as soon as the weather will permit and July 15th is the time allowed for finishing the job.
Three young men are giving a very clever exhibition in glass-blowing at Union Hall every afternoon and evening of this week. Without molds or models they spin delicate network and manufacture designs of all sorts, such as wine glasses, pipes, deers and dogs. The workmanship is artistic and well worth looking at.

The crows are with us—a sure sign of spring.
Ferdinand Crone went to St. Paul yesterday.
Dr. James reports a good business on Sunday.
Philip Runk of Springfield is visiting in town.
Architect Thayer of Mankato was in town Friday.
Sheriff Block was in town Monday evening on his way to Fort Rigely.
Miss Annie Dietz of Springfield is here taking the teachers examination.

To-day occurs the wedding of Henry Kanokowitz to Mrs. Bertha Pingel, who was formerly Bertha Giese. The Review offers congratulations and wishes for a long life of happiness to the groom and bride as well.
A large sleigh load of young gentlemen and ladies went out to Christ. and Andrew Backer's Saturday evening and made themselves at home. The Backer boys were equal to the occasion and want another party in Milford most any time.
Self-possession in critical times is worth a good deal. In the grammar class at school the other day one of the girls who is not known as a close student was asked to compare "sick". She hesitated a moment and exclaimed "sick, worse, dead."
Mrs. James Newton of West Newton had the misfortune to break her arm at the wrist some days ago. It was not known that it was broken for several days but increased pain and swelling led the lady to consult a physician who informed her of the nature of the injury.
A good move was initiated at Turner Hall by the theatre management on Sunday evening, when those who are in the habit of leaving the hall between acts were not allowed to re-center during the time the curtain was raised. This habit of disturbing the players, whether intentional or not, is a bad one, and it is a source of gratification that a stop has been put to it.
Werner Boesch and Chas. Silferson will leave to-morrow for Hot Springs in Arkansas. They will remain there some time in search of improved health and their friends here will wish for the realization of their hopes. On the way back they will visit the World's Fair and spend some days in the Windy City, both for pleasure and business.
On Monday Judge Webber of this city received from Alex Harkin, who is now in Melrose, Scotland, a plain but artistic cane which is all the more valuable because it was made by Mr. Harkin's teacher in childhood from a holly tree growing on the pleasure grounds of Sir Walter Scott. The Judge prizes the token highly, and we do not blame him, for it would have somewhat of the same effect on ourselves, we believe.
Col. Wm. Pfander of this city has been honored with an appointment on the World's Auxiliary Congress or rather with a membership in that department which will seek to advance physical culture. The honor is one that is well placed for Col. Pfander represents one of the few living representatives of the old association which came to Minnesota from Cincinnati and which had for its chief principles freedom of thought and physical development.

Andrew Buelow will have charge of Dr. Schoch's stock farm.
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jahnke were given a surprise party Saturday evening.

Alimony and attorneys fees have been granted Sophia Wilfahrt during the pendency of her action for divorce against Joseph Wilfahrt.
A surprise party was given to Oscar Kemp, the popular teacher in Lafayette, Saturday evening. Quite a few from New Ulm were "in it."
Messrs. Krook and Pfander have made a duplicate town plat of the village of Springfield which will be used in the Court House. It is a copy of one drawn up a week or two ago by Geo. Boock and C. Heller, the artist.
John Ubl will bring suit against Christian Kumm for injuring and abusing one of Ubl's horses, so says the complaint, Ubl claims that Kumm used a club to the horse and in an inhuman manner put out one of the horses eyes.
The Eagle mills are putting in new fronts in their boiler rooms to replace the ones recently adopted. These latter were self-feeders but were unsatisfactory and the old method of shoveling in coal by man power will again be resorted to.
The annual city election occurs on the first Tuesday in April at which time it will devolve upon the citizens of each ward to choose a representative in the council. The retiring members are Chas. L. Roos, F. Schubert and John C. Rudolph.
Mrs. Guetling celebrated the anniversary of her birthday Tuesday by inviting a number of her friends to her home. On Wednesday, another party took place, so, in fact, the birthday anniversary was doubly celebrated. On both occasions the ice-cream was, of course, delicious.
Mr. Albert Bartelt of St. Paul will recite some of Fritz Reuter's choicest bits of prose and poetry at Turner Hall on Sunday evening March 19th. Mr. Bartelt has the reputation of being one of the best interpreters of Reuter's writings in the United States and his recital will in a great measure be a fine treat.
A brother of Carl Johnson of Lake Hanska was examined before Judge Bertrand Thursday afternoon for insanity but was discharged for lack of evidence to prove mental disorder sufficient to commit the man to the hospital. The bringing of this matter into court was rather uncalled for and reflects somewhat upon the party or parties who instigated it.
At a meeting of the Board of Education Friday evening, H. Eger was engaged to take charge of the three ward school buildings at $22 per month during the winter and $15 per month during the summer. The meetings of the Board will be held in the Brown County Bank hereafter. Prof. Nix was instructed to get prices on a suitable flag for the Union School building.
Dr. Schoch has brought suit against the Railway Company to recover for professional services performed upon an employed by the name of Woratschka who was injured some time ago. An amputation was performed and considerable treatment of the patient followed. The bill amounts to sixty dollars and the company offers to pay fifteen dollars for the services. The case will come up in justice court.
E. B. Morrison of Winona, Minn., was the fortunate guesser on the late presidential election and gets the gold watch at Hauenstein's jewelry store. His guess on Cleveland's plurality was 403,647 while the right number is 393,688 so he missed it by 9,956. There were a large number of guesses some as high as 800,000 and some as low as 100,000. Ernest Wicherski was the second nearest on the list and he came within 17,791 of the talismanic number.
Ten years ago a party living not far from New Ulm run a store bill of ten dollars with one of our merchants. That the party did not make it a debt of twenty-five dollars was no fault of his but the merchant did not care to take such large chances and gave credit to the amount of only ten dollars. This was ten years ago and during this time the indebted party never came near the store; the merchant sent many tender reminders of the bill to the guilty party but without avail. The account was finally sent to the Sprague Bad Debt Collection agency at Chicago and a few days ago a letter from the debtor was received enclosing a check for the amount

Notice of Guardian's Sale.
Notice is hereby given that the Probate Court of Redwood County, State of Minnesota, in the matter of the guardianship of George, Louis, Martha, Carl, John and Bertha Wotschke, minors, made and entered an order dated Feb. 8th 1893, appointing undersigned guardian of the aforesaid minors, to sell at private sale all the right, title and interest of the said minors in and to the following described real estate in Brown County, State of Minnesota, to-wit: An undivided one-seventh (1/7) part for each of said minors (the said minors being eight (8) in all) of a part of the south east quarter of the South West quarter and Lot Six (6) of Township No. 32 North (32) of Township No. One hundred and eleven (11) North of Range No. Thirty-one (31) West and described as follows: Commencing at the center section corner of said section thirty-two, thence running North seven (7) chains and ten (10) links; thence North seven (7) chains and ten (10) links to the township line to the quarter section corner; thence North forty (40) chains to the point of beginning.
As an undivided one-seventh (1/7) part for each of said minors to the remainder in fee in eighty (80) acres of the following real estate and an undivided one-seventh (1/7) part in the remaining one acre thereof (being an undivided six-seventh (6/7) of the remainder in fee in eighty (80) acres and an undivided one-seventh (1/7) of the remaining one acre in all) to-wit: Commencing seventy nine (79) rods East of the North West corner of the North West quarter of Section No. thirteen (13) of township No. one hundred and ten (10) North of Range No. Thirty-two (32) West, thence East eighty-one (81) rods to the North East corner of said North West quarter; thence South one hundred and sixty (160) rods to the South East corner of said North West quarter; thence West eighty-one (81) rods; thence North one hundred and sixty (160) rods to the place of beginning.
Now therefore, notice is hereby given, that pursuant to the aforesaid order of license, at the right, title and interest of said minors in and to the aforesaid real estate will be sold at private sale, at the office of Jos. A. Eckstein in the City of New Ulm, in the County of Brown and State of Minnesota on March 24th 1893 at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, or at such time thereafter when an acceptable offer is received by said guardian.
The terms of sale are cash, that is from the amount of the offer accepted by the guardian, there will be deducted the amount then due on a mortgage now on said premises and the balance only will be payable in cash. The purchaser is to assume the mortgage and pay the same when due. All taxes due will be paid by the guardian.
Dated New Ulm, Minn., Feb. 28th, 1893.
