SOME SLEEPY EYETEMS.

People Move About and Furnish Items of Interest.

Items partake largely of the nature of the buckwheat spoken of by the "female relative" in The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table—they are "skerece and high."

Mr. and Mrs. D. Bangs returned from the White City Friday evening. They report having spent an exceedingly pleasant time and say that the reports of extortionate prices are rather exaggerated; also that no one can form an adequate conception of the grandeur and colossal proportions of the exposition from written or printed descriptions.

George Pickle returned Thursday from his Dakota trip.

C. B. Blake is building a 16 x 20 addition to his residence and otherwise materially improving his property.

Miss Augusta Anderson has returned from Pillsbury academy for the summer vacation.

Sleepy Eye will celebrate the glorious 4th in an appropriate manner. A $50 purse has been put up for a game between the Fort Ridgely and New Ulm nines. Other amusements galore will be provided including a bowery dance for the worshippers of Terpsichore. Everybody is invited and a general good time is assured.

Mrs. C. L. Lehnert died at one o'clock yesterday morning of puerperal fever. Funeral services were held at the church at 10 a. m. yesterday after which the remains were taken to Le Sueur for burial. Mrs. Lehnert was a most estimable christian lady and the community sympathizes with Rev. Mr. Lehnert in his sore bereavement. The deceased was in the 29th year of her age. She was a prominent member of the W. C. T. U. and Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, both of which organizations attended the church in a body. Her loss will be deeply felt.

Bishop Bowman of Chicago preached at the Evangelical camp-meeting Sunday morning and afternoon to large audiences. The Bishop is a powerful speaker.

Morris Christiansen moved into his new house on Friday.

Messrs. Rinke, Hays, Hodges and James went to Morton yesterday afternoon with a view to securing the Indian B. B. club of that place for a match with the local nine on the 4th.

The street sprinkler began its rounds yesterday morning. Quite a refreshing feature. Unohoo.

Milford.

C. G. Schramm has returned from his Oregon trip. He speaks well of that country and contemplates locating there.

Mr. and Mrs. Haengartner were surprised last Sunday night by a large number of New Ulm and Sleepy Eye folks.

The Milford Farmer Club held a picnic in Paul Lehman's grove last Sunday. A great number were in attendance.

Irving Bros. have erected a large tubular windmill for A. Heyman. It is 60 feet high.

Another big gathering took place at P. Hengel's place the early part of the week. All who were present claimed to have passed an enjoyable time.

Some Milford folks attended the camp-meeting of the Evangelical Association at C. Moll's place, one mile east of Sleepy Eye, on Sunday. Bishop Bauman of Chicago was present.

C. G. Schramm will go to Redwood Falls next Thursday to attend the M. E. campmeeting.

Lafayette.

The World's Fair guests have returned. All were very much pleased with the sights.

R. D. Lillie has bought a top buggy for $95 of O. M. Olsen of New Ulm.

Emma Glaseman paid a visit to Springfield folks last Sunday.

Willie Quandt spent Sunday near Stewart with relatives.

Jos. Klinger Sr. is building a residence on his farm.

Paul Quandt made a business trip to Evan last Saturday.

Herman Durbahn and family and Gabriel and Lizzie Gebhart were the guests of Henry Grabau of Morgan over Sunday.

Linden.

Mrs. Nelson closes her school on the 24th of this month with a picnic.

Mrs. Iver Mickelson and daughter returned to their home in Mankato last Saturday.

A basket party was given by the Ladies' Society last Saturday evening at Mr. Schaleben's place.

Hanna Johnson left for Yellow Medicine County to visit with relatives, last Friday.

Mr. Peterson and family of Cottonwood County visited with relatives last week.

Superintendent Steinhanser was visiting schools in Linden last week.

Springfield.

Up to date $300 has been raised to celebrate the 4th.

Miss Lillian Anderson went to Lambertton Tuesday to assist in a concert arranged by the Busy Bees of that village.

John Bagen has sold the Exchange hotel barn and lot to Narramore & Works. These gentlemen will immediately erect an addition to the barn and establish a livery and feed stable here.

Joe Epple has lost his valuable trotter. He got caught in the culvert just east of the station by the passenger train last night and was killed instantly, the body being cut into pieces.

Adolph Eckensburg, the new cigarmaker who recently located in Springfield, has packed up his goods and will leave for more congenial fields. Poor patronage seems to have been the cause.

M. C. Robertson returned from Indiana Wednesday evening. His trip was a sad one for he was called there by the illness of a sister who died soon after his arrival. His other sister, the only member of the family besides himself now left, accompanied him on his return and will make her home with the attorney's family.

The Advance is in receipt of a letter from Ed. Halpin, Marion, Ohio. He has graduated from the Ohio university with the degree of Bachelor of Commercial Science, and is now in the employ of the Huber Manufacturing Co. at Marion.

Principal Covell left Wednesday for Rochester. From there he will go to Chicago to attend the World's Fair. He expects to return to Springfield in about a fortnight and will then spend the remainder of the summer here.—Advance.

His Name.

A colored man once sued a neighbor for damages for the loss of his dog which his neighbor had killed. The defendant wished to prove that the dog was a worthless cur, for whose destruction no damages ought to be recovered.

The attorney for the defense called one Sam Parker (colored) to the witness stand, whereupon the following conversation ensued:

"Sam, did you know this dog that was killed by Mr. Jones?"

"Yes, sah; I was pussonally acquainted wid dat dog."

"Well tell the jury what kind of a dog he was."

"He war a big yaller dog."

"What was he good for?"

"Well, he wouldn't hunt, an' he wouldn't do no guard duty. He jes' lay round and ate. Dat made 'em call 'im wat dey did."

"Yes. Well, what did they call him?"

"Well, sah, I don't want to hurt yer feelin's sah, an' I is mighty sorry yo' ax me dat, sah, but de fact is dey call 'im 'Lawyer,' sah!"—New York Mercury.

Eibners Ice Cream Soda is unexcelled.

Bad Memories.

A memory is a good thing to cultivate most people have passably good memories, many have extraordinary ones, and some have none at all. One of the causes of the popularity of the late James G. Blaine was his remarkable memory for names and faces. It is said that Mr. Blaine could recall the face and name of persons he had met only casually 10 years and more after the first meeting, not having encountered them in the interval, says Harper's Young People.

In regard to bad memories, an amusing incident happened at the White House not many weeks ago, if the reports are truthful. A clergyman was presented to Mr. Cleveland, and as the president extended his hand the reverend gentleman blushed slightly and, leaning forward, whispered to the president: "Ah—what name, please?"

It was doubtless, nervousness attendant upon personal contact with a man holding so high an official position as Mr. Cleveland's that drove the name out of the unhappy clergyman's mind. At any rate, it was not so bad a lapse as another case that is recorded. What it was that caused the loss of memory in the hero of the following anecdote it is hard to state. Certainly Fritz must have had a queer head if the German story-teller has not exaggerated in his anecdote. It seems that a probably very dull young man named Fritz had been ordered by his master to take four horses and a lurry—which is a sort of car much used by coal miners and others who have need of vehicles for the conveyance of very heavy articles—and fetch a steam-boiler from a neighboring town. Just as he was about to start his master's wife called him in and said: "Fritz, here's 3 pence. I want you to bring me a packet of pins, and please don't forget it."

"No, ma'am," said Fritz, and off he started. Some hours later Fritz came back, drove up to the house, unharnessed the horses, stepped into the house and delivered the small parcel of pins to the lady.

"I say, Fritz," said his master, who was standing at the window, "what have you done with the boiler?"

"Boiler, sir?" answered Fritz. "Donnerwetter, sir, I hope you won't be vexed, but I clean forget it."
