CORRECTION FROM MADIGAN

The Indicted Attorney Asks for Correction
Regarding Certain Articles in the Review.

The following letter has been received at this office from County Attorney Madigan of Redwood county:

Editor Review: I have recently been handed your paper of the 3d inst. and was surprised to notice that you had some items published derogatory to me, but after careful perusal believe it was unintentional on your part and beg you to correct the same in your next issue, as I believe you, being in another county, would not be influenced by any of this county's interests and would only like to see justice done.

As to the item "Some more of Madigan's work" the affidavit for change of venue is on file in your county and you will notice that not one of the affidavits in the city of Redwood Falls were subscribed and sworn to before me, but the same were subscribed and sworn to before N. V. R. Hunter, and I do not believe there is a man in either Redwood or Brown County who will question his integrity. Each of the parties who swore to it swear that they had read the same before swearing thereto. I could not help it if some of the parties did not read the affidavit before swearing to it, as I was not present when they swore to it. The thirty-five persons who swore to the affidavit from this city subscribed and swore to the same in one half day, while the state took two days with a lawyer, the chairman of the Board of county commissioners, the Clerk of court and the county auditor, trying to pull them off, and they got but very few. In fact they did not dare to oppose the motion or introduce their affidavit, as I had in the short space of two hours seen nearly all of the persons to whom they had misrepresented the real meaning of the affidavit to get them to subscribe to a much stronger affidavit than the original.

So the prosecution comes in and gracefully submits to the change and offers to consent to have the change to Brown Co. I always had a good opinion of the people of Brown County, taking them to be broad-gauged and fair-minded and not governed by spite or prejudice and consented. I have had no reason to change my mind since.

As to your article referring to information filed in the Supreme court by Commissioner Pease, it shows weakness on the part of the state for if it had a good case against me, a conviction would disbar me without any other or further proceedings; then why this useless proceeding? I have nothing to say for or against any person or persons. All I ask is a fair and impartial jury without any monkeying or put up jobs. Certainly the loss of my profession should be a very severe punishment, but the loss of liberty much worse. I ask therefore from newspapers and people in general, square dealing. When I come to go before the Supreme Court I expect that the prosecution will use everything fair and unfair to gain their point. As I cannot help it, I submit. Please put me right where you have unwittingly wronged me. Having been informed that I had resigned and that the state had dropped the prosecution, of course you supposed that no wrong would be done or you would not have published what you did.

M. M. Madigan.
