* SIGNING THE TREATY OF COMMERCE 1778.

It is stated that a lodge of Catholic Foresters will soon be started here.

Attorney I. M. Olson of Sleepy Eye transacted legal business here Monday.

Chas. Toberer and W. T. Eckstein went to St. Paul on business Saturday morning.

F. H. Dyckman of New York has been looking after his business interests in this county the past few days.

Geo. Kramer was brought down from Sleepy Eye on Saturday and confined in jail. He is to serve ten days for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

A. G. Anderson and wife of Springfield started on an extended western trip Saturday afternoon. They will spend most of their time in California.

Miss Henning, who has been visiting for some weeks with Mrs. Vogel, will leave for St. Paul in a day or two to take a course of lessons in vocal music.

A representative of one of the St. Paul steam-fitting firms will be here this week for the purpose of changing the steam-heating apparatus in Hugo Gebser's building.

Carl Schreyer of Cottonwood and Miss Amelia Zimmermann will be united in marriage in the near future. The prospective groom is a son of Carl Schreyer of this city.

It will interest the militia boys of New Ulm to know that a new company was organized in Albert Lea last week, thus making the second regiment complete—ten companies.

About twenty young ladies and gentlemen rode out to Herman Pfaender's in Milford Friday evening and surprised him by camping there for the evening and enjoying themselves heartily.

The St. Peter Herald is growing facetious. Onto the back of a poor school-boy, it throws the statement that if a man wants to become extinct he should move to Mankato or New Ulm. As we have friends in St. Peter, we will refrain from touching upon that town's qualifications in this regard.

Marshall Galles relieved a young man from the country the other day of a dangerous weapon in the shape of a club, patterned after the style of a policeman's. What about the fellow had in carrying it about his person, we do not know, but evidently he was not aware that he was committing a prison offense.

The wife of Jack Irving is seriously sick.

Fred Wendland has returned from Minneapolis.

The Knights of Pythias will give a public entertainment at their hall in the near future.

A child of Joe. Kunz, living in the north end of town, died from diphtheria on Thursday.

Miss Emma Grebe is at Courtland, the guest of Mrs. Geo. W. Schlottmann. She will remain there several weeks.

At the whist club meeting Monday evening, the highest scores were made by M. A. Bingham and Mrs. Tupper.

Martin Johnson of Albin, while coming home from St. James the other day, was badly injured in a runaway. Among other fractures, his shoulder bone was broken.

Tony Wiesner and Wm. Murnan went to Minneapolis the latter part of the week to purchase new buggies for the livery business in which they are about to engage.

One of the local lodges of Hermann Sons will participate in a masked parade at St. Peter on the 25th, to be given under the direction of the Carl Schurz lodge of that place.

On the first of March, F. W. Hauenstein will remove from his present business quarters and locate in the Eibner building. Considerable change will be made in the building, to accommodate the two departments.

An application will be made at once for a rehearing in the Stoll case, so that the man may be restored to liberty and the right to act for himself. As long as things stand as at present, the man is legally insane, and the mere fact that he is not confined is not much of a concession.

While going into a church in West Newton Friday afternoon, Albert Arhard slipped on the steps and sustained a rupture of one of the main blood vessels. He died soon after and was buried from the local church on Monday. The deceased was a son of John Arhard, the well-known farmer, and was about twenty-two years of age. A few days before the accident he had made application for life insurance, but had neglected to be examined, and accordingly no policy was issued.

An Odd Fellow lodge will soon be started in Springfield.

Frank Gugisberg took a carload of cattle, his own, to Sioux City on Friday.

Mrs. Weiser lost a diamond necklace while going from New Ulm to Windom a week ago.

It is stated that there are only three mercantile firms in the city that will be subject to the income tax.

Fred Pfaender went to Sleepy Eye yesterday and Louie Mueller to Springfield, both on legal business.

M. Mullen will visit the Black Hills this week in company with several Twin City friends and investors.

The Brotherhood of Trainmen will give a dance at Waseca on the 22nd. Nearly all of the local railroad boys will attend.

Mrs. Thos. E. Bowen is reported to be very ill at Duluth. Her mother and Mrs. Von Hagen and Mrs. Burnside, all of Sleepy Eye, have gone there to attend her.

Sheriff Block of St. Peter was up in Ridgely township last week for the purpose of serving a notice of ejectment on Dennis Shea. This is the result of a suit brought against Shea by James Clary.

The Journal says that Representative Severance introduced a bill in the House yesterday to amend existing laws relating to a bridge at Cambria. The changes he would have made are not specified.

Anton Ouren has resigned the presidency of the Hanska and Linden store. In his place the directors have elected Ole Synsteb, with John Torgremson as clerk. Peter Oistad was taken in as a new member.

The following have been elected as officers of the German Methodist Sunday School: President, Fred Haenze; vice-president, Chas. Grusendorf; secretary, C. H. Dirks; treasurer, Miss Hattie Dirks; Librarian, Wm. Durbahn.

The birthdays of Geo. Washington and Carl Heinzen will be appropriately commemorated at Turner Hall on the 22nd. One was the great champion of political liberty—the other the staunch defender of liberty of thought and speech.

Sleepy Eye is to have a creamery and A. W. Schweppe of St. James and Mr. Christiansen, manager of the Sigel Creamery will be the owners. They have received a bonus of $300 from the citizens of our neighbor town and will put up a respectable institution.

A. J. Alvin missed the Northwestern train at Kasota in coming up from St. Paul Saturday evening and was compelled to remain over Sunday in Kasota. It is reported that he spent his time in walking around the quarries, with his great coat wrapped about him cursing the relentless punctuality of some trains and the useless and disgusting delay of others.

Harry Kennedy was in the city Monday. For once Harry has missed it on a political prediction, for while in St. Paul during the senatorial fight he wagered a dinner at the Minneapolis Club with Joel P. Heatwole that he could name the winner. He gave his prediction to the writer, and we are sorry to say that Larry will have to pay for the dinner—for three if you please.

When the Supreme Court reviews the verdict given to Sam Peterson of Brown County, of $10,000 against the Western Union Telegraph Co., for transmitting a message over its wires, not to the liking of Mr. Peterson, it will be a horse of another color. In our opinion, in no other county in the state, considering the grounds upon which the verdict was rendered could such a verdict be obtained. St. Peter Tribune.

A child of J. F. Crowell is quite low with the measles.

Rev. Rosen, the Fairfax priest, was in the city yesterday.

The Turnverein Sewing School has been started up again.

Chas. Stuebe is fitting up his butcher-shop with elegant new racks.

The whist club met with Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Laudenschlaeger Monday evening.

Otto Wicherski returned to Mankato Monday to resume his studies at the Normal.

Thos. Fath and Miss Anne Maribart, both of this city will be married this week.

Masquerade suits for the coming masked ball can be had by leaving orders with Frank Burg Jr.

Louis Irving has just completed a deep well on the farm of Ole Jorgenson. He also erected a fine windmill.

August Wagner has just completed a fine piece of furniture for the K. P. Lodge room. As for workmanship, it is a credit to the maker.

J. J. Rhombert's lecture at Turner Hall next Saturday evening will be either on "State and School" or "Example as a Factor in Education."

Max Reinhart's team indulged in a runaway down Centre Street towards the railroad tracks on Friday. The cutter was pretty roughly handled.

The special car of the Andrews Opera Co. will be sold at mortgage sale at Mankato to-day. The mortgage amounts to $400 while the car is said to be worth $6,000.

Crone Bros. have supplied all of the barbershops with electric light shades, bearing their advertisement. A clever scheme for keeping your name in the public mind.

Emmet Goff, a Minneapolis policeman, who has many friends in New Ulm, was quite seriously wounded while trying to capture a man in the outskirts of the city one night last week.

C. R. Case, the well-known butter and egg man of Sleepy Eye, who has made New Ulm at regular intervals for several years past, will go to California this month to purchase fruit for Smith and Austin, commission merchants of St. Paul.

The Lambert and Williams Theatre Co. concluded their week's entertainment at Union Hall Sunday evening. Their audiences increased rapidly from night to night as the merits of the troupe became known and on Sunday evening the hall was packed. They are one of the best low-price troupes that have ever visited New Ulm.

The Fairfax Crescent says that Luther Nichols and Albert Hornburg, both New Ulm boys now living in that village have devised a new windmill and have applied for a patent on the same. The new mill is said to present many apparently advantageous features, and in case in operation it equals its promises as a model, they will manufacture it at Fairfax for the wholesale trade.

The Sleepy Eye Herald says that a brick and tile manufacturing company has been organized by Wm. Windhorn of Stark and Carl Berg, Dan Moll and R. C. Tosch of Sleepy Eye. Mr. Windhorn is president, Carl Berg treasurer, Dan Moll secretary and Mr. Tosch, business manager and salesman. The yards are located on Mr. Windhorn's farm in Stark, and the brick is said to be of an excellent quality.

Geo. Lechner was in New Ulm last Saturday and Sunday. His mission to that lively town was to garnish the wages due one L. A. Chase, in the employ of the Eagle Roller Mills. The garnishee was granted on a judgment in favor of Lechner for $61.85, out of the municipal court of this city. Chase was at one time proprietor of a restaurant on Washington avenue. He is now at Canby, where he has been buying wheat for the Eagle Roller Mill Co.—Redwood Gazette.

DON'T FORGET TO SEE PAPAGENO NEXT SUNDAY EVE.
