

New Ulm Review.

VOLUME XVII. NO 10. NEW ULM, BROWN COUNTY, MINN., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1895. WHOLE NUMBER 884

The Local News of the Week.

Fred Engelbert is here from Fairmont. Miss Anna Rieck has gone to St. Paul to remain.

There will be another club dance to-morrow evening.

Emil Traeger, the St. Paul insurance agent, is in the city.

The Chautauqua Circle is now discussing the age of Milton.

Ralph Yates will occupy the Hummel building on German Street.

Mueller & Wiesner will receive a novel horse-clipping machine this week.

Chas. Weschke and wife of Springfield spent Sunday here with the former's parents.

F. H. Behnke moved into the Boesch building on South German Street last Saturday.

The Baptists of the city will give a concert at Union Hall on Friday evening, a week.

A little son arrived at Henry Seifert's home on Thursday. Henry has our congratulations.

It is quite possible that Gen. Oliver O. Howard and Gen. Fitzhugh Lee may lecture here late in the year.

A public reading room in the heart of the city is being advocated, and those in charge feel certain of success.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Congregational church will meet next Thursday at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Larson.

Wm. F. Kunze of this county has been elected editor-in-chief of the Gopher, the State University annual. Quite an honor.

The members of Germania Lodge of Herman Sisters surprised Mrs. Jos. Schmucker at her home on Saturday evening.

F. W. Hauenstein removed his jewelry stock from the Masonic Block to Eibner's building last Friday. He now has very pleasant quarters.

Louis B. Krook has been appointed to a position on the governor's staff with the rank of Colonel W. W. Smith retains his old position as Major.

John Baar, an employee in the Empire Mill, found the lucky number "13" in a package of Yum Yum tobacco this week. It entitles him to a gold watch.

Sunday evening's literary entertainment will be confined largely to a discussion of living American poets. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Monday's Globe contains a likeness of Philip Liesch, formerly of this city, and speaks of him as a prominent member of the Typographical Union and secretary of the Co operative Hall Board.

The Ft. Ridgely Lyceum has elected the following officers: President, Lee Pullen; vice-president, H. Stevens; secretary, Miss Cashman; treasurer, N. Nelson; sergeant-at-arms, C. H. Hopkins.

Heller, Gag and Seiter have formed a partnership. This is a combination that everybody knows is able to do the very finest painting, frescoing and paper-hanging, for they are artists all of them.

Mr. Durban of this city received a paper this week that went down with the Elba. Most of these papers were in mailbags that were washed ashore on the south of England and from there sent to America.

Miss Ella Seiter was surprised by about thirty-five of her friends on Saturday evening, that being her birthday anniversary. A continual round of pleasure followed, and did not cease until the early hours of morning.

A party of men with blackened faces entered a house in the south end of town the other night and compelled an old woman to get out of bed and dance with them. Such outrages ought to be severely punished.

Have you seen the Columbia bicycle catalogue for 1895? If not, get one without delay. The riding season is at hand and you should know what superb mounts bearing the name "Columbia" have been prepared for your service.

Col. Pfaender will be accompanied on his trip to Germany by his daughter, Josephine. He will be one of the principal speakers at the 50th anniversary of the Ulmer Turnverein of which he is one of three original founders who still survive.

Otto Melges is working in Loheyde's boot and shoe store.

Klossner & Mueller received a carload of fencing on Monday.

Mrs. F. Grummons of Ridgely is suffering from brain fever.

C. H. Hopkins of Ft. Ridgely was a Twin City visitor last week.

Dr. Bardwell, the specialist, was at the Dakota House yesterday.

Ferdinand Heimerdinger was down from Golden Gate yesterday on business.

Otto Schell is having plans prepared for a fine new residence near the brewery.

Adolph Seiter and daughter, Frida, visited at Mankato last Friday and Saturday.

Anton Gag has turned his attention in his leisure moments to making zinc engravings.

Mrs. Henry Huntress is very ill at Fairfax. She is a sister of Mrs. Chas. Cutting of Home.

J. Havemeyer has sold his butcher-shop to Geo. Schnberich, who will assume charge at once.

Brown County now has nine creameries within its borders. This certainly ought to be enough.

The orchestra of the Concordia Band are preparing for a concert at Turner Hall on Easter Monday.

Schweppe Bros. of St. James commenced work on the West Newton creamery the latter part of the week.

An effort is being made to impeach Judge Ives of the Crookston district. He is a brother of Gov. Ives of St. Peter.

The Milford-Cottonwood Co-operative Dairy Association will establish separating stations at Essig and in Cottonwood.

There will be a German literary meeting at Turner Hall next Saturday evening. A debate will be the principal feature.

Frank Zschunke and Chas. Ambrosch went to Fairfax yesterday. The former will remain there and work on the Crescent.

The county commissioners will hold a special session on the 20th to open the bids for the completion of the court-house.

Gus. Wagner and H. L. Blethen have ordered a Columbia tandem wheel. This will be something of an innovation in New Ulm.

Mr. Geiger, a student at the College, is in charge of Teacher Blauert's school this week, owing to sickness in the latter's family.

The K. P. boys celebrate their fourth anniversary next Monday evening. If the program means anything, it will be a happy affair.

The Fire Department made a formal request to the city council last evening for a fire-alarm system. If granted, it is intended to put in nine alarms.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Roos entertained eight couples at what last Friday evening. An enjoyable time was passed and a delicious lunch served at a late hour.

August Hummel went west the fore-part of the week to look over some second-hand creamery machinery with the view of purchasing it for the Springfield Company.

The K. P. boys surprised H. L. Blethen at his home on Wednesday evening, the occasion being the anniversary of his marriage as well as of his birth. A pleasant time was had.

Wm. Bierbaum fell, head first, into the cistern at the Empire Mill last Friday, but fortunately did not receive any injuries. His recollections of the event will be confined altogether to a cold ducking.

The debate at Turner Hall Saturday evening will treat of the advantages and disadvantages of the Chicago strike. Col. Pfaender will also deliver an address on the principles of the North American Turnverein.

Christian Dahlberg, an employee of J. H. Doty at Courtland met with a serious accident last week. A falling tree struck him on the forehead and occasioned a compound fracture of the skull. The man is under the care of Dr. Strickler.

An important change of time will be made by the Northwestern next Sunday. The passengers from the east will then arrive at about 2:30 in the afternoon and at midnight, and those from the west at 2:00 in the afternoon and 3:00 in the morning.

Dr. Bell is entertaining his friend, C. Becherer, of Milwaukee.

Wm. Flor has gone to Owatonna to accept of employment.

John Lind has been in Chicago all week on legal business.

C. G. Reim has rented residence rooms over Beussmann's store.

Miss Frances Weber died at her home in Lafayette last Wednesday.

Miss Louise Hopt of Fairfax has established a military store at Franklin.

Richard Baasen is home from Gustavus Adolphus College for a few days. John Hauslick of Lafayette sold 50 acres of land last week to Jos. Tauer for $700.

S. R. Arthur, representing the Northwestern Life Insurance Co. is in the city again.

Wm. Winkelmann has purchased the residence of W. H. Neumann on Washington Avenue.

Miss Annie Neumann went to Sleepy Eye Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Andrew Rinke.

Ernst Gieseke of this city is canvassing Nicollet county in the interest of two St. Paul papers.

Jorgenson and Buelow of Sleepy Eye have dissolved partnership. Mr. Buelow continues in the business.

Nels Isaacson of Linden died at the home of his son last Friday after a lingering illness. He was 84 years of age.

Mrs. Iverson of Linden is now 98 years of age and quite well. She is undoubtedly the oldest woman in the county.

Anton Altmann has sold his butcher-shop in Fairfax and will soon become a partner with Louis Palmer in the saloon business.

The widow of the late August Meyer of Morgan passed through here Wednesday on her way to Illinois where her father resides.

Albert Carlson will not remove from his present place of business. The room has been considerably enlarged by the owner, J. H. Tappe.

Ferdinand Fenske of Eden has engaged in the machine business at Morgan. E. Danielson of Home has made a similar venture at Sleepy Eye.

F. W. Hauenstein paid Sleepy Eye a business visit yesterday. He has just concluded a sale to A. C. Von Hagen of a fine Schimmel & Nelson piano.

The petition asking that the saloons be closed on Sunday and that no liquor be sold to habitual drunkards or minors will be presented to the mayor this week.

Editor Hedges of the Sleepy Eye Herald was elected a delegate to the National Editorial Association, to be held at Jacksonville, Florida, in January of next year.

The Supreme Court has rendered a decision in the case of Richard and Elizabeth Pfeiffer vs. Henry Mueller and others, sustaining the decision of the lower court.

The St. Peter Independent says that while Wm. Pfaender was there last Thursday, he attempted to make arrangements for the appearance of the Dramatic Section of the Turnverein.

Jno. N. Jones, the Redwood representative has introduced a bill which calls for the removal of screens and blinds from saloon windows and prohibits the use of chairs or card tables. Knowing John N. as well as we do, this appears to be the height of the ridiculous.

The Springfield Advance speaks very highly of the German play presented by the home talent: actors of that village last week. Among those who participated were the following ex-New Ulmites; Misses Emma and Louise Schmid and Messrs. Forster, Zschunke and Kluegel.

A public debate was held in Redwood Falls during the week on the question of whether or not the district's representatives in the senate and house have acted in compliance with the wishes of their constituents. The decision was in the negative and Senator French was subjected to severe denunciation.

The next meeting of the Brown County Agricultural Society will be held at Turner Hall next Saturday afternoon, March 9th, at 2:30 o'clock. The order of business will include a report of the delegate to the State Association meeting, a discussion of the advisability of holding another Fair in 1895 and papers upon the chinch bugs and other disturbing evils. Everybody should attend.

The geese and ducks are flying north again.

Martin Mueller was down from Essig yesterday.

The St. Peter papers speak very highly of Eckstein's orchestra.

Herman Pless walked from here to Redwood Falls yesterday.

Mrs. Hagel of Chicago is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Schmidt.

Sheriff Blethen was down from Redwood Falls yesterday on business.

Emit Frenzel went to Sleepy Eye and Redwood Falls yesterday on business.

Scott Phillips has gone to Texas to buy cattle for Stuebe's ranch at Pierre.

C. A. Heers has just completed plans for a fine residence for W. T. Eckstein.

J. Havemeyer will open a saloon in the place now occupied by Anton Hartmuth.

English services will be held in the Lutheran church every other Sunday evening.

Mrs. Moll and daughter of Sleepy Eye are the guests of Mrs. John F. Neumann.

The machine business of Hubbard & Larson was sold this week to John Kretsch.

Adolph Klause is sending large quantities of his "pile cure" to Russia where it is in large demand.

Neil Finch and Fred Morgan were among the conductors suspended by the Northwestern a week ago.

S. R. Arthur brought with him from Minneapolis yesterday a check for $1,000 in payment of the Van Patten policy.

Arguments were made for and against a new trial in the case of Stilwell-Bierce & Co. vs. the Eagle Mill Co. on Monday.

A new Methodist congregation has been organized at Lone Tree Lake, this county. The minister will be supplied from Morgan.

Prof. H. C. Hess of Sleepy Eye has been appointed as conductor of a training school to be held at Lake Benton during July.

The members of the Y. P. S. of C. E. will have a social and business meeting at the home of Miss Grace Newhart next Friday evening.

The Springfield Advance invites Mr. Lind to deliver his address on the Ethical Side of the Financial Question to a Springfield audience.

Athenas Henle will erect a new residence on State Street in spring. He sold his residence property in Springfield last week to Mr. Adolfsen.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Peterson vs. The Western Union Telegraph Co. has been denied. That means an appeal on the part of the company.

The new creamery company in Bashaw has elected the following officers: President, Anton Schmid; vice-president, Anton Fischer; secretary, John Roiger; treasurer, John Utz; directors, Anton Fischer and Peter Norell.

The Chautauqua Circle meets next Tuesday with Mrs. Lind. Philosophy and criticism of Renaissance Architecture will be led by Mr. Somson, while Mrs. Lind will review the period from the Restoration to the death of Pope. Miss Herta Weschke will render a piano solo, Mrs. Newhart and Miss Vogel will sing a duet and Miss Schuetz will read.

The Current News Club will meet next Saturday afternoon with Mrs. McHale. The subject relates to partially unknown rulers of nations and Mrs. C. G. Reim will lead. The following rulers will be discussed: Humbert of Italy, Mrs. Tryon; Alphonso of Spain, Miss Nicol; Peixotto of Brazil, Mrs. Wagner; Mustu Hito of Japan, Miss Burmeister; Abdul Hamid of Turkey, Mrs. Henry; Oscar of Sweden, Mrs. Reim. Mrs. Crowell will render a vocal solo with guitar accompaniment.

Otto Seiter has secured the agency for this section for the telephones of the United Electric Corporation. Mr. Seiter has been interested in telephone work for years and claims that this is by all odds the most satisfactory instrument manufactured. It is especially adapted to short lines, and has been designed with the special view to producing an efficient magneto telephone at the very smallest cost. The instrument is absolutely free from infringement of any existing patents and is sold outright under full guarantees. Mr. Seiter is prepared to furnish them and also put them up for any of the neighboring towns.

Come in and inspect our Ladies' Waists for summer. They are pearls.

Crone Bros.

It is a fact worth recording that in the Herian-Schell-Nagel relationship there are about twenty individuals whose birthdays all fall in February.

The legislature has declared against the bill asking for the repeal of laws relating to capital punishment for murder in the first degree.

Speaker Van Sant has appointed Representatives Downs, Mansfield and Cross as a committee to determine upon the disputed points that have arisen over the location of the Birch Coolie monument.

Courtland is all stirred up over the coming village election and there are evidences of a decidedly hot time next Tuesday. J. H. Doty and Henry Schlottmann are the contestants for village president.

After the Grip, diphtheria, pneumonia, scarlet fever, typhoid fever etc., Hood's Sarsaparilla is of wonderful benefit in imparting the strength and vigor so much desired.

Hood's Pills for the liver and bowels, act easily yet promptly and effectively.

Take your choice in Ladies' Waists now, before the nicest patterns are picked.

Crone Bros.

Linden.

Alfred Paulsen and Henry Greenholt were in Mankato last week.

The sons of Mrs. Ahlness have been hauling material from Madelia for a new home.

The young people of this neighborhood surprised Mrs. Greenholt last Monday evening and enjoyed a splendid time.

Sam Harbo and Ole Olson were New Ulm visitors last week.

J. Storm spent the week in Lake Hanska painting T. Thorsen's house.

K. Harbo and brothers are busy hauling wood from Courtland.

Mrs. Severson will build a new residence this spring.

State of Minnesota, County of Brown | ss

In Probate Court, Special Term, March 1st, 1895.

In the Matter of the Estate of David S. Davies, deceased.

Letter Testamentary on the estate of David S. Davies deceased, late of the County of Brown, and late of Minnesota, being granted to Rachel Davies;

It is Ordered, that six months be and the same is hereby allowed from and after the date of this order, in which all persons having claims or demands against the said deceased are required to file the same in the Probate Court of said county for examination and allowance, or be forever barred.

It is further Ordered, that the first Monday in October A. D. 1895, at 10 o'clock A. M. at a general term of said Probate Court, to be held at the Probate Office in the Court House in the City of New Ulm, in said County, be and the same hereby is appointed as the time and place when and where the said Probate Court will examine and adjust said claims and demands;

And it is further Ordered, that notice of such hearing be given to all creditors and persons interested in said estate by forthwith publishing this order once in each week for three successive weeks in the New Ulm Review, a weekly newspaper printed and published at the city of New Ulm in said County.

Dated at New Ulm, Minn., this First day of March A. D. 1895.

By the Court,
Jonas Laudenschlager,
Judge of Probate.

State of Minnesota, County of Brown | ss

In Probate Court, General Term, March 4th, 1895.

In the Matter of the Estate of Zane B. Nichols, deceased.

On Reading and filing the petition of Nancy A. Nichols, as Administratrix of the estate of Zane B. Nichols, deceased, representing among other things, that she has fully administered said estate, and praying that a time and place be fixed for examining and allowing the final account of her administration, and for the assignment of the residue of said estate to the parties entitled thereto by law;

It is ordered, that said account be examined and petition heard, by the Judge of this Court, on the 27th day of March A. D. 1895, at 2 o'clock P. M., at the Probate Office in the Court House at New Ulm in said County.

And it is further ordered, that notice thereof be given to all persons interested by publishing a copy of this order once in each week for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing in the New Ulm Review, a weekly newspaper printed and published at the City of New Ulm in said county.

Dated at New Ulm, Minn., this 24th day of March A. D. 1895.

By the Court,
Jonas Laudenschlager,
Judge of Probate.

MONEY TO LOAN on desirable Farms at 7 per cent., and on the Building & Loan plan on city property; call at office on Broadway. N. Henningsen.

G. A. OTTOMEYER

A Grand Showing of the New Goods at New Prices.

Dress Goods, Silks, Wash Goods, Notions.

FOR SELECT HAVANA CIGARS SMOKE SIGNORTA

My Spring Goods are in. It is the largest line of our goods ever shown here.

Dress Goods.

A fine 36 inch cashmere at 25 cts. A better grade 35 cts., old price 50 cts. An all wool cashmere 50 cts., last year price 75 cts. A fine black Serge at $1. These goods are made from the finest Austrian wool. A fine line of colors in half wool and half silk. The best goods ever brought to this city. Call and see these goods. The are just the goods for wedding dresses. Price $1 per yd.

Wash Goods.

20 pieces of New Summer Goods, Crape Goods in fine shades at only 12 1/2 cts. this year. 2000 yards Pongee light and dark pattern, price only 10 cts. 500 yds. linen Chambray only 12 1/2 cts. a yd. 2000 yds. fine French Gingham at 10 cts. per yard.

White Goods.

The largest and best selected line I have ever shown. Something new. You must call and see these goods. 2500 yds. fast colored print only 4 cts. 5000 yards better goods at 5 and 6 cts.

Muslin.

A fine brown muslin 5 cts. A heavy brown muslin 7 cts. 36 inch bleached muslin 6 cts., 7 cts. and 8 cts. 46 inch pillow case muslin 9-4 and 10-4 sheeting cheap.

Embroidery.

2 cts. a yd. You can get a fine pattern. Call and see the line.

Laces.

Torchon and Linen Laces a big assortment. Black Silk Lace cheap. Laces for trimming dresses. I have just the thing. Dress Button 5 cts. 25 gross pearl Dress Button. This year only 5 cts. The finest line of SILK for waist and trimmings I have just received.

Hosiery.

125 dozen Socks very heavy Goods 5 cts. 125 dozen Ladies Hose 10 cts. 25 dozen seamless Ladies Hose 15 cts. Children's Hose 10 cts. a pair. Heavy Black Goods 15 and 25 cts.

G. A. OTTOMEYER