

New Ulm Review

JOHNSON & WICHERSKI, PUBLISHERS.

Wednesday Oct. 30, 1895.

Exchange Talk.

President Cleveland evidently mislaid that page of his Atlanta speech in which he was to come out strong for George Washington for a third term.—Minneapolis Times.

The recent discovery of the pre-historic Egyptians in a burying ground only 30 miles distant from the Nile holds out a hope that there is, after all, something more primitive yet than Bourbon Democracy.—Minneapolis Times.

The launching of Senator Allison's boom may not have aroused universal enthusiasm all over the United States, but it has drawn forth less adverse comment than has that of any other man who has acknowledged the possession of presidential aspirations.—Omaha Bee.

The sentiment grows that the Cubans in arms should not be looked upon by us as mere rebels. And it is within the range of the possible that this sentiment may be crystallized before long. Spain has quite enough on her hands at home. She has little business to be bothering about in these regions.—Philadelphia Record.

Last week added a battle-ship and two gunboats to the American navy, and the Monroe doctrine may be regarded as in pretty good shape in spite of the Cleveland Administration.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

A new 13-inch gun tested by our Navy Department at a distance of 4,000 yards sent a projectile weighing 1,100 pounds through a sheet of steel, 15 inches thick, and 12 feet into the earth beyond. It is safe to say that somebody will get hurt in the next great sea fight.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Kentucky is short of water, but there is no place in the country where they are so well prepared to stand a drouth.—Minneapolis Journal.

There isn't so much said about demoralized silver these days as there was a few months ago, but the discussion of the demoralized woman goes on just the same.—Minneapolis Journal.

Political slates have been broken many a time and oft; now it is the school slate that is to be smashed. The sanitary scientist has concluded that it is one of the favorite roosting places of dangerous bacteria, and that it must be banished from the school room. These continued inroads of the new schools upon the careless and happy ignorance of the old times makes lots of trouble, but it may be all right.—Minneapolis Journal.

It is a funny time we have dropped into. The West is full of produce, lower in value than for many years, and yet the factory operative and city laborer haven't the wherewithal to purchase even at such figures. Notwithstanding the palaver of politicians, there is something badly out of joint in our political economy system.—Winnebago City Press News.

Senator John Sherman in a speech made at Massillon, Ohio, charges Cleveland's administration with the responsibility of the money panic of 1893, in having paid out the gold reserve for the current expenses of the government. This attitude of Mr. Sherman is a surprise, as it was thought he was on friendly terms with President Cleveland and concurred with him in his financial policy. He gives the country another surprise in opposing Cleveland's purpose of retiring the greenbacks and in defending that kind of currency. Sherman is just now attracting a great deal of attention. The review of his new book from advance proof sheets has stirred political waters to their depths. He criticises dead and living politicians and statesmen with a sting that hurts and that will damage the prospects of the Republican party in the coming election more than can now be estimated.—Moorhead News.

Ex-Gov. Merriam wants to get rid of the greenbacks badly. He wants to relieve the government from the banking business and expresses the opinion that the dreaded greenback are a constant menace to our prosperity, because they are redeemable in gold on demand and used by bankers as a means of obtaining gold from the United States treasury for shipment abroad. There seems to be a unanimity of opinion among the bankers upon this point, apprehensive about the welfare of the people, patriotic and eager to assist them to get out of the dilemma, and yet they seem to overlook one thing: If the bankers are actuated by an honest desire to assist the government in its endeavor to keep the gold reserve fund intact without resorting to any more issuing of bonds, why don't they discontinue their mischievous practice of accumulating greenbacks for the very purpose of harassing the government? As soon as the bankers commence treating government notes the same as their own, all difficulties will be at an end.—Nicollet County Independent.

Mr. Edison is at work on the problem of using the great accumulation of refuse at the coal mines to generate electric power for transmission to distant points. He says there is no difficulty in sending power from the Niagara Falls plant to Buffalo, fifteen miles distant, unless the low cost of coal at Buffalo is economically in the way. The inventor has not given up his idea of producing electricity directly from coal without the use of fire, steam or machinery, but the utilization of the culm banks at the coal mines need not wait upon the solution of that fascinating problem in science.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Justice White, of the United States supreme court, startled the street gazers in Washington the other day by appearing on a bicycle, which he managed with much skill and grace. He was induced to take up the exercise by his wife, who has been riding a wheel for several months. The justice is a large and heavy man, but he learned to ride well in three weeks. After this example nobody need refuse to take up cycling on the plea that it will be lowering his dignity—for where can we naturally expect greater dignity than in a supreme court judge?—Minneapolis Tribune.

A circular letter, signed by 100 prominent business and professional men, has been issued to the voters of Massachusetts advising them to vote "no" on the question of municipal suffrage for women. The main reason advanced for such action is that women are not experienced in business, and that therefore, "the rights and property of our citizens, female as well as male, are now better protected and more intelligently cared for than they would be if the mass of voters should be doubled by establishing woman suffrage." Among the names signed to the letter are those of President Eliot of Harvard, T. Jefferson Coolidge, Richard H. Dana, Prof. Charles Eliot Norton, and ex-Govs. Robinson and Russell. These are imposing signatures; but somebody points out with a suggestion of irony, that equally imposing ones were attached to the Boston indorsement of Webster's 7th of March speech in support of the fugitive slave law.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Hood's Pills for the liver and bowels act easily yet promptly and effectively.

To the Ladies of NEW ULM & VICINITY

We respectfully invite you to attend our

FALL OPENING,

which will commence on Sept. 21st, and continue throughout the month, when we will display our unequalled line of Pattern Hats & Bonnets.

Our stock of Millinery and Fancy Goods is complete in all the different departments.

Mrs. B. Follmann.

Star Clothing Hall

On Monday, October 21st, there commenced at the Star Clothing Hall a

GREAT SLAUGHTER CLOTHING SALE

Of Men's, Boy's and Children's Suits and Fur Coats.

Next Saturday, a special sale on Boys' Suits.

B. Behnke & Co.

John Hauenstein,

Brewer & Maltster.

Chas. Hauenstein, Manager.

Our Brewery is one of the largest in the Northwest. It is also splendidly equipped and the product is of the finest quality. Ask for Hauenstein's beer if you want a good-tasting healthful drink.

New Ulm, Minn.

CLOSING OUT SALE.

Have you been in our store?

Did you read our advertisement?

You can save money by doing so.

Do not buy anywhere else before examining our Goods and Prices.

We want you to call soon, as the stock is complete now and you can get just what you want for but very little money.

Our Closing Out Sale has already commenced on Oct. 1st., '95, and will continue until Jan. 1st., '96.

We do not mention any prices here as we want you to come and convince yourself.

Don't forget the place, the new store of

J. F. NEUMANN.

No Shelf-worn Goods,

Beware of goods that are at present being offered in large quantities. Crone Bros. are not selling out, but are selling good honest Goods at prices as low as any offered by our competitors for cheaper goods.

Barnum Once Said:

"The people like to be humbugged and I am going to do it." It seems that there are still people who believe as Barnum did. But we have an idea that the public are through being fooled.

This Selling Out Disease

Is contagious, and who wants to be used as medicine to satisfy it? Now we want you to visit our various departments and see our large lines. Then you will appreciate our prices.

We Guarantee All Prices.

Crone Bros. guarantee to return all money on goods bought of them if the prices do not compete with those of our competitors.

Permit us to prove our argument by calling around.

CRONE BROS.

A Pretty Foot.

"Her feet, like little mice,
Steal in and out as if they feared the light."

What a Pretty Little Foot she has!

How often you hear that from observing men and appreciated women. Most everyone likes to see a pretty foot and most every lady would like to show one THAT'S RIGHT. Now then, when you get a pretty, well made, easy fitting shoe on a pretty foot, what a combination! Oh, say! Life is worth living, after all! Well, we have in stock just that kind of goods. We lead and others follow.

Your Obedient Servant,

H. LOHEYDE,

THE SHOE MAN

"I want Savon de la Rose soap, and no other and I want it quick. There's no reason why this hotel should have it for it only costs 10 cents, 3 for 25 cts., a cake." That's the way to talk when you're travelling. Talk in the same way when you're offered a substitute for Savon de la Rose. Better yet, come straight to our store and get what you want without having to ask twice.

W. G. Alwin, City Drug Store.

F. H. BEHNKE,
PFEFFERLE & FENSCKE,
JOHN F. NEUMANN,
G. F. DONGUS,
GEO. GRAFF,
Sell Angelina Flour,
NEW ULM ROLLER MILL CO.