Teeth on human, mangle on horses, dogs and all stock, cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by Andrew J. Eckstein Druggist, New Ulm, Minn.

Before you buy any crockery this year it will be to your interest to look at the new goods that F. H. Behnke has just placed on his shelves. Nothing like it has ever been seen in New Ulm before. It's simply beautiful.

Everybody wants the best and for as little money as possible. We have chamber sets, for instance, that are sure to please. We have them in all styles from $2.50 to $15. Call around and look at them.

How about lamps. You may want one yourself or you may want to give one to a friend as a present. If either is the case, we can accommodate you and know that our reputation in this line has won us many friends. Our stock includes banquet, hanging, stand, hand and night lamps. Ask for our smokeless night lamp which, once fitted, will burn for 100 hours.

No one is ahead of us on glassware either as to price or quality. Our fine water and wine sets, pitchers, glasses and tumblers are pleasing to everybody. Some of them are beauties.

Kings in older times never used such dishes as we are now offering at extremely moderate prices. Complete china and colored sets, fine bread and fruit plates, in fact anything you might like for your table. See them once and you must admire.

Especially do we pride ourselves on our fancy vases and novelties. F. H. Behnke leads all dealers in this respect. If you will only visit his store before the holidays, he will convince you.

F. H. Behnke.

Mrs. Albert Matke of Eden died early in the week as the result of pneumonia. A physician had been called, but she died five minutes before he arrived.

Anton Eber was arrested last week for assaulting Mrs. Kamolz and was fined $5 and costs. The assault grew out of a dispute over the rental of a house.

Mayor Mo of Sleepy Eye was pleasantly surprised by the citizens of Sleepy Eye the other evening and presented with a handsome diamond pin. Mr. Somerville made the presentation speech.

At a joint meeting of the Agricultural Society and Breeders Association directors on Tuesday evening of last week the desired union was effected and from now on all efforts will be directed to making the coming Fair and Race Meet a gratifying success for all concerned and for the city at large as well.

Gus. Sommers, a well-known conductor on the Northwestern road and who had charge of the yards at this place at one time, is at a hospital in Rochester, suffering from an injured leg. His knee cap was split in a railroad accident several years ago, and from this he has been laid up at times ever since. His leg will be amputated this week.

The Golden Gate Literary Society has been quite busy during the winter months discussing the financial question. Among the prominent anti-gold standard advocates were C. P. Cutting, Henry Heimerdinger and Wm. Dey. The question has been thoroughly discussed and it is said that bimetalism has many new converts in that section.—Sleepy Eye Herald.

The Turnverein has supplied the stage in the large hall with water-works connections, and the building now has, what it has long needed, proper fire protection.

The Brown County Agricultural Society contemplate having a first class race meet in this city on the 4th of July providing the citizens arrange for an old time celebration in other respects.

The Backer Bros. of Redwood Falls lost nothing by the burning of the Delhi mill, the wheat and flour on hand being fully insured. On the building itself, owned by MacMillan & Co. there was no insurance whatever.

The next encampment of the Southwestern Minnesota G. A. R. will be held in this city in June. Inasmuch as twelve posts are included in this association, the Commercial Union should undertake the work of giving them suitable reception.

The literary meeting at Turner Hall Sunday evening proved to be an exciting affair, owing to a lively discussion over the qualities of John Greenleaf Whittier as a poet. The next meeting will deal with Holmes, Lowell and Julia Ward Howe.

The Palmer House in Fairfax was destroyed by fire about one o'clock Thursday morning. Martin Kunz, formerly of New Ulm, was one of the occupants, and in jumping from an upper window was badly bruised. A traveling man in making a similar venture sprained his ankle.

According to the Sleepy Eye Herald, Jens Anderson of Prairieville has sold his farm to Wm. Schultz and will leave for Denmark. Hans Larson has also disposed of his property in the same town and will locate at Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen, who have spent the winter in Denmark, will return in a few weeks.

This is good news indeed. Chas. Leonard has concluded to rebuild his foundry and will replace the old shell, destroyed by fire a few nights ago, with a substantial brick building, the dimensions of which will be 50 feet by 100 feet and two stories high. For this purpose he has leased a portion of the levee for twenty-five years, and will commence the work of construction at once.

Sleepy Eye's new high school building will be dedicated on Friday evening. The program will consist of addresses by Wm. Murlin, State Superintendent Pendergast, High School Inspector Aiton, Supt. Race and Supt. Hess. Mr. Pendergast's address will be on the following subject: "We have the School House—what shall we do with it?"

The College Base Ball Club has been re-organized with the following players: Pitchers, Geo. Henkel and Jehn; catcher, Albrecht; short-stop, Wm. Prahl; 1st. baseman, Reichmuth; 2nd baseman, Sackreiter; 3rd baseman, Zautner; center field, Kannegiesser; right field, Jaeger; left field, Kellermann; manager, Henkel. The boys believe that they have a good team and that they will be able to put a good game. They expect to receive more challenges from clubs in and about New Ulm than they did last year and will make it interesting for all comers.

The Pioneer Press of Thursday says: The people of New Ulm are preparing for a demonstration that will bring together the civil and military officers of the state, as well as thousands of national guard men. Twenty-five years ago next May, Col. Joseph Bobleter organized Company A of New Ulm and it is to commemorate this event in the history of this old military corps, the oldest in the state, that the jubilee is being arranged. Gov. Clough and his staff, Gen. Bend and staff, and all officers of the Second Regiment, have been invited to participate.

Miss Ida Heers will start a kindergarten class next Monday.

Otto Baker of Redwood Falls and A. C. Ochs of Springfield were in the city yesterday.

A literary and social program has been arranged for next Sunday evening at Turner Hall. It will be a private affair, for the members of the Turnverein and its various annexes only.

The Sleepy Eye Herald says that Martin Baumann of Mulligan is gradually losing his mental faculties. For the past few months he has had an hallucination that someone was trying to poison him and his family. He will not eat anything and is fast becoming a mental and physical wreck.

Christ. Hanson, a well-digger, whose only relatives in this country reside near Sleepy Eye, was killed in a well near Fairfax a week ago. After descending fifty feet into the well, he gave the signal to ascend on account of gas, and when within twenty feet of the surface he fell to a depth of 100 feet. Gas was present to such an extent in the well, that a lantern would not burn thirty feet from the top.

A peculiar wedding occurred in Redwood county last week, the parties being James Johnson and Mrs. Olson of Omaha. It appears, says the Gazette, that Mr. Johnson advertised for a wife and afterwards offered to give a farmer a hog in case he would find one for him. Quite a number of answers came in response to the advertisement and there were serious doubts as to which to accept. It was finally agreed to put all the letters in a hat and draw one from the same, the writer to be the lucky person. It happened to be a widow, Mrs. Olson.

The Chicago Tribune speaks of an investigation in that city to ascertain whether or not there was any foundation for the suspicion that the germs of tuberculosis existed in the milk used in that city. Twenty head of dairy cattle, alleged to be afflicted with tuberculosis, were slaughtered for post-mortem examination and the tissues were examined by Drs. Bartlett, Trombard and Behnke, the result being a statement that the evidences of disease were pronounced. The Dr. Behnke referred to is our own Albert E.

The next meeting of the Teacher's Reading Circle will be held in this city on the 11th of April. The program for the forenoon session, from 10 to 12, will consist of a chorus, roll call to be answered by quotations, paper by Supt. Runk, recitation and discussion of White's School Management and The Schoolmaster in Comedy and Satire and a solo by Miss Otterholm. The afternoon session will be spent in listening to a lecture on Emerson by Supt. Race of Redwood Falls. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to all.

The Non-Partisan caucus at Union Hall Friday evening made the following nominations: For mayor, Dr. C. Weschcke; for clerk, Louis Schilling; for treasurer, Anton Zieher; for justices, Ernst Brandt and Geo. Jacobs; for constables, J. C. Geiger and Henry Koehler; alderman for the First Ward, Richard Pfefferie; alderman for the Second Ward, John Henle; alderman for Third Ward, Henry Hauschen. For mayor the names of S. D. Peterson, Wm. Silverson, L. B. Krook, C. H. Hornburg and others were suggested, but all declined. Finally Dr. Weschcke was nominated and he accepted.

The Republican primaries. The Republican primaries to elect delegates to the county convention were held in each of the three wards on Wednesday evening. A certain faction had been doing considerable rustling during the day and the night previous and as no opposition was offered they had no trouble in naming the delegates. A slate had been prepared for each ward and nearly everybody who attended the caucuses brought with him a mimeograph ticket written in a well known hand. The caucuses were conducted on the regular primary plan and a list of all those voted was taken down.

In the First ward the following delegates were elected: G. F. Dongus, Fr. Auferheide, E. T. Critchett, Wm. Silverson, John Kretsch Jr., C. W. A. Krook, C. H. Hornburg, G. A. Ottomeyer and S. D. Peterson. G. A. Ottomeyer had served notice on the authors of the ticket that he would not accept and refused to go to the convention.

The Second ward delegation was made up of the following: F. H. Retzlaff, Herman Schapekahn, Wm. Schroer, Wm. Ruenke, Henry Beussmann, Alfred Boock, C. A. Hintz, N. Henningsen and Gustav Boock.

The Third ward presented the following names: H. Hauschen, Chas. Grussen-dort, John Larson, Jos. Vogel, L. Riederer, J. H. Weddendorf, L. B. Krook and Jonas Laudenschlager.

It was a McKinley delegation throughout and they easily succeeded in controlling the county convention.

There will be a creamery separator contest at St. George on the 1st of May, Chicago and Mankato firms are the contestants.

Reserved Seat sale for Remenyi Concert opens at the City Drug Store next Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. First three days reserved for signers.

Rev. Simmons of the First Unitarian Church of Minneapolis will speak in this city, Tuesday evening, March 31st. More particular announcements will be made later, but suffice it to say that Simmons is one of the best speakers in Minnesota and as his lecture is free to all, no one should fail to here him.

At the last meeting of the Woman's Literary Club at the home of Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. Otto Seiter read a sketch of the life of Edward Everett, Mrs. Webber gave a reading from the same author, Mrs. Bingham favored the club with a piano solo from Mendelsohn and Mrs. Seiter read a second paper on Cold Baths. The next meeting will be with Mrs. F. P. Behnke.

For a profound and accurate declaration upon any question of state or financial importance the resolution makers of the Brown County Republican convention are unquestionably the fountain-head of wisdom—the evolutions of their minds being tuned to the perfect movement of the spheres. The currency question can be considered as good as settled. The vast army of sincere bimetalists from Philadelphia to the Golden Gate might just as well abandon all hope. H. G. Hays, prophet, seer and boss, has spoken.

His eyes have all the seeming of a demon that is dreaming.—Poe.

Like clocks, one wheel another on must drive; affairs by diligent labor only thrive.—Chapman.

That are absolutely correct.
