ST. VITUS DANCE.
 A Physician Prescribes Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
 My daughter Mattie, aged 14, was afflicted last spring with St. Vitus dance and nervousness, her entire right side was numb and nearly paralyzed. We consulted a physician and he prescribed Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. She took three bottles before we saw any certain signs of improvement, but after that she began to improve very fast and I now think she is entirely cured. She has taken nine bottles of the Nervine, but no other medicine of any kind.

C. E. CONVENTION
 The One at Washington Promises to Be the Largest One Ever Held.

Will Also Be Notable for the Number of New Features Introduced.

Proposed to Pay Particular Attention to Evangelistic Work.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—It seems to be assured that the Christian Endeavor convention, which is to be held in this city within two months, will be, so far as human preparation can make it, the greatest gathering of the kind ever held, and it is reasonably certain that the attendance this year will be greater than ever before.
 But the convention will be notable also for the number of new features in the programme and the number, extent and character of these enlargements is remarkable. They will have a large part in influencing the character of the convention and in deepening its spiritual effect. More than has been the case at all prior annual Christian Endeavor gatherings, everything possible will be done this year to Secure a Spiritual Profit from the convention, and to extend practical evangelistic effort. These twin thoughts, spirituality and evangelism, will be manifested from the very beginning of the meetings.

 It is proposed also to pay particular attention to evangelistic work during the convention. The delegates will go forth as they did at Boston to the missions and other evangelistic outposts and hold services in the remote and dark corners of the city as well as in public places where men congregate. The unrivaled facilities of the Central Union Mission will be utilized in this work. For the first time in the history of these annual gatherings gospel wagons will be used by the delegates.
 An entirely new feature of the programme will be daily Bible readings in one of the large churches conducted by some student of recognized ability.
 A Unique Procession.
 The convention could not well come to the nation's capital without having a decided Christian citizenship flavor. One unique feature will be an open air demonstration at the foot of Washington monument. There is room at this place for tens of thousands of people to congregate. After this service it is proposed that the Endeavorers march down Pennsylvania avenue to the Capitol, where with added significance the good citizenship demonstration will be continued. Not to the beat of drums nor in cadence with the strains of martial music will this march be made, but to the notes of song from the lips of those in line. On all the pageants and imposing ceremonies that the world-famed Pennsylvania avenue has witnessed, possibly none can compare in novelty with the expected parade of the Christian Endeavor hosts.
 There will also be a Sabbath observance rally, and the last novelty, as well as one of the greatest, will be the first convention of the World's Christian Endeavor union.

Naturally it is expected that the increased attendance and attractive novel features which have been introduced in the programme will have the effect of swelling the size of the convention meetings, yet provision has been made for 40,000 seatings, all of which can be utilized simultaneously.
 Prayer and Practice.
 The endeavorers will come to Washington not merely to visit the nation's capital, to see the magnificent public buildings, to enjoy the excursions and bicycle runs, or to take the delightful journeys to Mount Vernon and Arlington. Prayer and practice are closely allied, and as this is to be the most spiritual and devotional of all Christian Endeavorers' conventions, so also it is the intention to devote more time to practical Christian Endeavor problems than is usually given at the great annual mass meetings. Workers from societies the world around may come to Washington armed with great note books, assured that here they will find material to inspire and revivify their local societies throughout the year to come.
 The always helpful committee conferences that have been a feature of the annual gatherings will be present this year with certain improvements.
 In the open parlaments of the convention sessions proper will be developed much that can be applied practically to society needs.
 Time for Sightseeing.
 When the convention season has closed, and at odd times out of convention hours and between meetings, time will be taken to visit the many memorable spots in and around the city. Although the gathering is for a religious purpose and the results to be striven for are spiritual results, nevertheless incidental to the convention itself there are many attractions of educational and patriotic interest that will receive the attention of the delegates.
 In order that no time may be taken from the convention sessions proper for purposes of sight seeing, Monday afternoons have been kept largely free from other important convention engagements, so that most delegates may avail themselves of the excursions provided by the committee of '96. These will include the various places of interest, such as the government departments, the Capitol, the museums, the White House, the monument, Mt. Vernon, Harper's Ferry, Pen-Mar, Arlington, the soldiers' home, Gettysburg, Alexandria and other spots of interest in and near the city. Special excursions with reduced rates have been planned to all of these places under the guidance of the excursion committee.

 In addition all riders of the wheel will be given opportunity to enjoy many of Washington's attractions in connection with their favorite recreation. Early morning bicycle runs have been arranged by the excursion committee to Brightwood and the soldiers' home, and afternoon runs are contemplated over the Woodley, Longborough and Conduit roads. A bicycle trip to Arlington and Fort Myer has been planned for Saturday afternoon, and in response to the committee's request an special cavalry drill will be given at Fort Myer on this occasion. The bicycle dealers have promised to keep on hand during the convention season a special supply of bicycles for visitors from a distance, and they have also promised not to overcharge for the rental of these to delegates.
 So complete are the arrangements for the convention it is confidently believed that when convention time arrives there will be no reasonable grounds for dissatisfaction, and that the gathering itself will be the greatest in the history of the Christian Endeavor organization.

EX-GOVERNOR MELETTE.
 South Dakota's ex-Governor Dies at Pittsburg, Kan.
 PITTSBURG, Kan., May 26.—Hon. A. C. Mellette, ex-governor of South Dakota, died at his home in this city after an illness of about five weeks. Death was, however, brought on by a complication of diseases of four or five years' standing. The remains will be shipped to Watertown, S. D., for interment.
 The deceased leaves a family of a wife and three grown sons. He moved to this city about a year ago and commenced the practice of law. He was a prominent Knight Templar.

WINDING UP AFFAIRS.
 Lower House of Congress Getting Ready for the Final Adjournment.
 WASHINGTON, May 26.—The house is rapidly clearing the decks for final adjournment. Conference reports are likely to consume a large portion of the time of the house this week, as they did last. In the last days of a session little indulgence is given members, and by the operation of the rules in matters of high privilege, like conference reports, questions can be brought to a vote at the will of the leaders. The general clamor for unanimous consent legislation, which becomes louder as the session draws to a close, promises to be entirely checked at this session by the action of Mr. Kem (Pop., Neb.), if he persists in his threat. He demanded the "regular order" at every opportunity last week and Threatens to Continue to Do So to the end of his congressional career unless the speaker recognized him to move the passage of a bill to grant an abandoned military reservation to his state. If he carries out his programme he will relieve Speaker Reed, whom he is seeking to embarrass, of the immense pressure to which a speaker is always subjected at such times. The Phillips labor commission bill and the Erdman arbitration bill, which were crowded out by conference reports last week, will be brought up this week if time permits. The bill to repeal the free alcohol clause of the present tariff law in the shape of the compromise proposition agreed on by the friends and foes of the measure will, however, be allowed the right of way before these two bills.

LI HUNG CHANG TALKS.
 May Conclude to Introduce Foreign Customs Into China.
 Moscow, May 26.—Li Hung Chang, special envoy of the emperor of China to the coronation of the czar, has submitted to an interview on the subject of his mission in Russia and in other Western countries which he will visit when he leaves Russia. He said that he intended to go to America, France and England. The mission entrusted to him, he continued, aside from the coronation was to study the European and American systems of government with a view of inducing foreign customs into China. He formally denied that any treaty had yet been concluded with Russia as has been so often asserted in the last few months. He also said that he had no projects for the conclusion of treaties with any power.

GENERAL FAIRCHILD GONE.
 End of the Eventful Career of the Honored Son of Wisconsin.
 MADISON, Wis., May 26.—General Lucius Fairchild died Saturday evening after an illness of several weeks. His end was sudden, for, although quite low, dissolution was not expected for several days, at least. He was 65 years of age.
 General Fairchild was a native of Ohio, coming to Wisconsin with his parents in 1846. He spent six years in California during the gold craze, but returned to Wisconsin in 1855 rich in experience but as poor in pocket as when he set out. When the war broke out he promptly enlisted in the Second Wisconsin, which formed part of the famous "Iron Brigade." He lost an arm at Gettysburg, where he led a charge at Seminary Hill.
 Soon after the war he was elected secretary of state. He was later elected governor and served six terms. He was United States consul at Liverpool for six years and was later United States minister to Spain, resigning in 1882 and returning to Wisconsin. He has been commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic and has been prominent in public affairs until a very recent date.
 General Fairchild will be buried with all of the military ceremony which his rank as brigadier general entitles him to. Governor Upham has charge of the arrangements and has selected Adjutant General Charles King to look after the details. General King will have personal charge of the military escort.

WEYLER BACK IN HAVANA.
 His Campaign Against the Insurgents Was Very Brief.
 HAVANA, May 26.—At 11 o'clock Sunday morning Captain General Weyler, General Ochoando, his chief officer, and Colonel Ahumado, the aide de camp, with other staff officers returned to Havana after visiting Bahia Honda and Cabanas.
 After leaving Cabanas, the cruiser Enseld, which was conveying Captain General Weyler ran ashore and General Weyler was obliged to return on the gunboat Alenter, which was cruising on the coast near Cabanas.

Dungans Again Rebel.
 Pekin, May 26.—The Dungans are again in rebellion. They have captured Kiaku-Wan and are advancing westward.
