Chas. Dietz, the Blue Earth county candidate for treasurer, was in the city Friday and Saturday. In talking of the situation down there he falls into a hopeful strain and insists that both Bryan and Lind will carry the county with satisfactory majorities, the newspaper reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

A. G. Anderson, the Springfield lumber, grain and hardware dealer, died last Wednesday night after an illness of many months. Mr. Anderson was one of the best known men in the western end of Brown county, prominent in business, prominent in politics and prominent in social circles, and his death will cause general regret.

Mr. Lind's dates for next week are as follows: Window, Oct. 17th; St. James, Oct. 19th; Slayton, Oct. 20th; Currie and Tracy, Oct. 21st; Mankato, Oct. 22nd; Little Falls, Oct. 23rd; Crow Wing and Brainerd, October 24th. Mr. Lind is making a wonderful canvass and is everywhere being greeted with large and enthusiastic audiences.

The two bicycle robbers, who have occupied the attention of the papers for the past few days, were undoubtedly visitors in this city a day or two previous to their escapade at Shereburne. They hung around the town for several hours, and were seen, to step into the Citizens Bank and look things over. Their action, however, aroused no suspicion.

The Maennerchor will give a public concert at Turner Hall on the 25th of the month. Upon this occasion they will present an operetta on which they have been steadily rehearsing for some time, entitled "Politische Wahlversammlung." The operetta is a take-off on the election methods of the present day and is replete with satire and humor. Prof. Geo. Kuss will also make his first appearance with the violin in this city on that occasion.

Mr. Reuter went from here to the Twin Cities, intending to make a speech in each of the towns. He arrived here Sunday afternoon and was highly pleased with his visit to New Ulm.

The decoration in the Union Hall for the Reuter meeting on Monday evening was the work of Mr. Stablein, the insurance man, assisted by Herman Schmidt. It was something that drew forth compliments from everybody.

Herman Frenzel, who has been working in Scheibel's pop works the past summer, resigned his position and left for New Ulm last Monday. Augustine Unger will address both of the meetings in the Norwegian Language.

The muddy weather of the past week has again demonstrated the need for changing our street crossings. They are altogether too low and make it terribly unpleasant for pedestrians. Change them to the proper height and our streets will be all that could be asked for. The people will have no kick to register against the expense that will be connected with making the change.

The ladies of the Congregational church will give a New England supper at the church parlors next Friday evening, commencing at 6 o'clock. Daniel W. Lawler, the Minnesota representative of Hanna's side-show, will speak at Sleepy Eye tomorrow evening and at Union Hall in this city next Saturday. It is to be presumed, of course, that he will talk for McKinley, but it will be through the medium of those wonderfully inspiring backnumbers, Palmer and Buckner. We can imagine the cheering now as we hear their names mentioned.

Beginning at three o'clock in the afternoon of October 18th, the day classes of the Turnverein will go through part of their regular exercises as an examination. After this, supper will be served to all who are present—both young and old. In the evening a gymnastic exhibition and entertainment will be given and at the conclusion a social dance. The friends of physical culture should not fail to attend this event and become acquainted with what the Turnverein is doing in this line of work.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

A Young New Ulm Boy Has a Narrow Escape From Death.

Shot Through the Neck with a Charge from a Gun.

John Fussner, a young man of this city had a narrow escape from death near St. Cloud a few days ago. In company with two other New Ulm boys—Biebel and Roeder—he was on his way to the northern part of the state to hunt deer. They stopped in St. Cloud to buy a gun and provisions needed on the trip, and the Times of that city tells the rest of the sad story as follows: Three miles north of Rice's they were shooting pheasants from the wagon as they drove along, and in passing over a stump in the road the jarring of the wagon discharged the gun in the hands of Fussner, and the whole charge passed through his neck. The attending surgeon said that the shot actually cut off a quarter of the man's neck, and the gash which is on the right side close to the shoulder, is large enough to lay a hand in it. That the young man did not bleed to death is a miracle. He stuffed his handkerchief in the wound and his companions bandaged it as well as they could. At Rice's they got a doctor who dressed the wound, and then he was brought to this city and taken to St. Raphael's hospital. Great fears were entertained yesterday as to his recovering, but the doctor now thinks that he will pull through.

A Golden Wedding.

Saturday and Sunday were happy and memorable days in the lives of Dr. and Mrs. Albert Marden. These parties were united in marriage in Maine fifty years ago and Sunday was the anniversary. Saturday evening the friends of the couple concluded to spring a surprise on them and accordingly a large gathering was arranged for at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Peterson. About eighty of the old residents of the city were present and at the proper time Mr. and Mrs. Marden were taken thither without the slightest presentment of what was in waiting for them. It proved to be a very pleasant affair and one long to be remembered. Many beautiful gifts were tendered the happy couple and congratulations and well-wishes without number.

On Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marden was besieged with visitors who came to pay their respects and express congratulations on their long career of wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Marden have been residents of Minnesota for thirty years, twenty-seven of which have been spent in New Ulm.

The Review desires to add its best wishes to those of a host of others and trusts that many more years may be added to the lives of both.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Marden and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Koehler came up from St. Paul to assist in adding cheer to the occasion.

County Attorney Davis was in the city on legal business Monday.

Mrs. Wicherski and son, George, arrived home from her European visit last evening.

The New Ulm Roller Mill started up again yesterday after being shut down for several weeks.

John Selr of West Newton and Miss Vait of this city were united in marriage yesterday afternoon.

Allin Larson, a hired man of J. K. Peterson in Lafayette, had his leg broken yesterday while hauling water for a washing machine. He was brought to this city and is under the care of Dr. Strickler.

Congressman James Tawney spoke to an audience of about 125 people at Union Hall last Thursday evening. The audience was not at all enthusiastic and the speaker did not succeed in leaving an effective impression. He dealt but little with the money question, and spent most of his time in discussing the tariff and the plank in the Chicago platform which deals with federal interference with state affairs.

Grinnell, Byrnes & Co. shipped a full train load of Michigan apples into this city on Monday. The train left Chicago at 11 o'clock Saturday morning and arrived in New Ulm at 6 o'clock Monday morning. The entire train consisted of Chicago & Northwestern furniture cars, six of which were switched out here for own local merchants. Grinnell, Byrnes & Co. are evidently selling a few apples.

During the past two days hundreds of postal cards have been received by the voters of this city asking them to state how they voted two years ago, and how they intend to vote this year. The request comes from the Chicago Daily Record, and is accompanied by the suggestion that if the voter does not desire to have his name known, he need not sign it, but simply send it in, stating his preference. The Review urges the friends of Mr. Bryan in this section to pay no attention whatever to these requests, for, whether the name of the voter be signed or not, the cards are so numbered and registered that the Chicago Record and the machine which it represents will know the preference of every voter who makes reply to their postals. It is one of the most contemptible schemes to spot people that has ever been tried in any campaign.
