The Review is in receipt of a copy of the Pan-Partisan Pocket Manual of Political Finance published by Calderwood & Heffron of Minneapolis. As its title indicates it is non-partisan in character. It gives nothing but facts about all parties and the financial question, and does not take sides. The book is a compendium of political information that will be found to be very useful in the approaching campaign. The publishers' price is 15c a copy.

They Leave Their Happy Homes for Him!

Many Influential Republicans Desert McKinley on Account of His Imperialistic Policy.

AND THE LIST STILL GROWS.

From every quarter of the country prominent republicans and former McKinley men are quitting the party of imperialism and giving their allegiance to Bryan. The list of such defections is so large that only a small percentage of the influential men who are leading the revolt against absolutism are given in the following:

Dr. H. Z. Leonard, consul to Clifton Falls, Canada, under President Harrison, appeared at Indianapolis on Bryan day wearing a Bryan badge. "I am for Bryan, body and soul," he said, "and shall do all in my power to aid in his election. McKinley has been a failure. He has no backbone and is completely over the domination of the trusts."

Col. William E. McLean, first deputy commissioner of pensions under Cleveland, announces that he will vote for Bryan this fall. Col. McLean lives at Terre Haute, Ind., where he presided over the gold meeting addressed by Bourke Cochrane four years ago. "I am opposed to the imperialistic policy of McKinley," he says, "and could not think of voting for him this year."

M. Collins, a banker and life-long republican of Peotone, Ill., announces his unqualified support of Bryan this year. "I believe Mr. Bryan's position on imperialism and militarism is right," says Mr. Collins, "and I believe that issue to be the most important one before the American people."

James Alexander, of Lockport, Ill., another life-long republican and president of the Will county farmers' institute, announces that he will support Bryan. "McKinley's colonial policy is a dangerous departure from republican institutions," says Mr. Alexander, "and I cannot support him."

Former Governor Andrew J. Felt, one of the leading republicans of Kansas, announces that he will support the democratic state and national tickets this fall. "In this campaign my duty as a citizen leads me to cast my ballot for Americans who still believe that the legend upon the dollar, 'In God We Trust,' is a nobler ideal than the new Mark Hanna version, 'In the Trusts We Find Our Gods.'"

Herman C. Mueller, a prominent German manufacturer, of Zanesville, O., also quits the republican party. In an open letter to the German citizens of Akron he says: "Millitairism will, if successful, in time create a monarchy. I think, therefore, a standing army is a menace to peace. Monarchies are always created in time of war and national or international friction. Therefore, I am unalterably opposed to the policy of imperialism inaugurated by the McKinley administration."

Former District Judge J. A. Burnette, of Caldwell, Kan., a life long republican, says: "I hope to live long enough to see an American president elected and the last vestige of imperialism forever crushed out of this country; for this reason I shall vote for Bryan this fall."

Paul G. Schub, of Cairo, Ill., head of one of the largest drug companies in southern Illinois and a life-long republican, is out for Bryan. "I cannot endorse the policy of imperialism adopted by this administration. Militarism and all its attendant evils would be the ruin of this republic, and therefore I am for Bryan and Stevenson."

M. C. C. Church, of Parkersburg, W. Va., one of the founders of the republican party, who established and for four years edited a staunch republican organ, the State Journal, says: "There is no republican party in the old sense. Its cycle of use closed with the ruling power back of the throne, the modern master of imperialism, materialism and McKinleyism, Mark Hanna. There is no longer any reason why true republicans should not vote for Bryan, the chosen leader of the people, in this crisis of our country."

John F. Finerty, former republican congressman and leader of the Chicago Irish-Americans and president of the United Irish societies of Chicago, says: "No self respecting Irishman can sup-

A CONTRIBUTION ACKNOWLEDGED.

W. E. Koch, cashier of the Citizens' Bank, has received the following acknowledgement of the receipt of a small donation received by him and forwarded to the Committee of One Hundred on India Famine Relief, which we publish at the request of the committee:

MY DEAR SIR:

Permit me, in addition to our treasurer's formal receipt, to make special acknowledgement of the $7 forwarded by you under date of August 10th. The gift is most timely. As you will see from the enclosed "Statement," the famine distress is increasing rather than diminishing. Nor can there be any real improvement, until after the harvests of next October and November. Accordingly, it is to be most earnestly hoped that there will be no diminution of relief gifts for months to come.

It gives me great pleasure to be able to say that the $7, with other gifts amounting to $10,000, or more, will be cabled to India, Friday, August 17th., without expense. Five days thereafter, the gift may be thought of as providing a day's food for more than 230 hungry person, including not a few famished children, or buying 21 native blankets for the almost naked, or enabling three impoverished peasant farmers to re-seed their fields. I deem it scarcely less than wonderful, how much relief can be secured for each dollar wisely expended in the famine district.

A very pleasant surprise party was given by the ladies of the Herman's Sons Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Helen Roe in honor of Mrs. Velikanje of Minneapolis who is visiting here.
