A Deserved Tribute.

It is rather paradoxical to say that a man's friends took particular pains to express their pleasure upon the occasion of his departure from the city in which he has lived the greater portion of his life, but that is just exactly what the scores of friends of W. H. McLennan did last week when he left to take up his new work with the C. & N. W. at Winona. "Havey," as he is familiarly called, was for three or four years employed by the M. & St. L. as telegrapher, but resigned his position with that company about six months ago to accept the more responsible one of cashier and operator at the Northwestern passenger station in this city. Last week, however, the news came from headquarters that his superiors realized and appreciated his worth and he was ordered to report at Winona for a more responsible position in the train dispatcher's office, and it was this promotion which caused his friends to rejoice, even though sorry to lose him from New Ulm's social and business circle's. Upon his departure he was presented with an elegant gold watch case, in which had been placed the old reliable movement which he had been carrying, and a fine gold chain, and was tendered the following testimonial signed by about fifty business men and personal friends:

Mr. W. H. McLennan: A number of your friends in this city desire to express their regret at your departure and at the same time to congratulate you upon a just and deserved promotion and to express the hope that this promotion may be followed by others, equally well merited. As a testimonial of their regard and esteem they beg leave to present you with the accompanying article which they trust may prove useful to you and serve to bring your New Ulm friends to memory occasionally.

The marriage of Jerry Reardon, of Essig, and Miss Anna Gulden, of New Ulm, was solemnized at the Catholic church yesterday morning. The groom is well known in this city, having until his recent promotion to the formanship of the Essig section of the Northwestern, been in the employ of the company here. The bride is the popular young daughter of John Gulden, the local section foreman of the Northwestern. The happy couple will make their home at Essig and take with them the best wishes of The Review and a large number of friends.

Who Pays the Tax.

Reference to the personal property tax list which appears in another column it will be seen that of the total tax to be collected in this city, $9,213.66, over one-third, or $3,406.50, is paid by six parties, as follows:

Citizens Bank, $1,157.48.
Brown County Bank, 744.62.
Eagle Roller Mill, 667.92
Crone Bros., 412.02
New Ulm Roller Mill, 358.16.
B. F. Webber, 265.30.

There are 32 individuals and firms who pay over $50 each, while the smallest contributors to the fund, four in number, pay but seven cents.

The first attraction to appear at the new Turner hall will be Eiler's Uncle Tom's Cabin company on Tuesday evening, Jan. 29th. Everyone knows what Uncle Tom's Cabin is and of this particular organization the Cedar county, Neb., News says:

Uncle Tom's Cabin is rather an old play, but it will never wear out, especially when played as the Eiler company played it at this place on last Thursday. This is one of the finest companies on the road. They transact their business in a business-like manner. The company is composed of ladies and gentlemen, no fakes following them, and they give a first-class performance. The reproduction of the battle of San Juan Hill is one of the most realistic scenes ever reproduced from the opera house stage.

Seats now on sale at Alwin's City Drug Store.

The Hanska and Linden Creamery Co held their annual meeting last week, the following is a summary of the business transacted. Total pounds of milk received 5,341,983, total pounds of butter produced 248,182, total receipts from all sources, $50,196.25, total expense $5,060.13, the amount paid to patrons for milk was $45,136.12. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, Theo. Thormudson, Vice Pres., Nels Erickson, Sec. and Manager C. Ahlness, Treas., Albert Amudson, Directors John K. Johnson, Martin Paulson, A. M. Anderson and Anton Zeig. The year just closed was the largest in point of receipt and the smallest in expense of any year in the history of the Hanska Creamery Co.

New Ulm Gets the Turn Fest

District Meeting Unanimous on that Point.

New Ulm also Named as District Headquarters and will Name Officers.

The delegates of the New Ulm Turn Verein to the district meeting held in Wahpeton on the 19th and 20th returned last night and report one of the best meetings that has been held in many years. The meeting was a very active one and accomplished considerable business. It was resolved to have a Turn Fest this year and the delegates voted unanimously to accord the New Ulm society the privilege of holding the same. This Turn Fest will probably be held during the latter part of June. The next annual business meeting of the district was tendered the West St. Paul society, whose representation accepted the same and assured the Turners of a hearty welcome in January, 1902.

The meeting decided to continue the holding of "Turn Tage," every three months. These are days when the active turners meet and engage in social turning, exchanging ideas as to exercises, etc. The next Turn Tag will be held in the hall of the Saint Anthony Turn Verein in Minneapolis the latter part of March. The reports of the district officers showed an encouraging condition. The interest in the societies had increased considerably and the district treasurer reported a very good financial condition.

The New Ulm Society was named as head of the district for the coming year and will have the naming of the officers of the district.

In connection with the annual meeting a gymnastic exhibition had been arranged for Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon. Forty active turners participated, representing the St. Paul, West St. Paul, St. Anthony and New Ulm societies. The exercises consisted of mass wand drills, exercises on parallel and horizontal bars, and on the horse, marching, fencing, jumping, etc. This was the first exhibition of its kind ever given in the state of North Dakota and great interest was shown. The attendance of visitors was very large. The social side of the meeting surpassed anything ever offered at previous meetings. The Wahpeton society had done everything in their power to make the stay in Wahpeton a pleasant one and they accomplished this result.

The delegates were welcomed by the mayor of the city who tendered them the freedom of the city in a very pleasant address.

Everybody was so well pleased with the reception and entertainment in Wahpeton, that the time for parting came too soon, but we were due to leave at midnight Sunday and many a hearty "Gut Heil" was tendered Wahpeton as the train pulled out of the station.

TURNER HALL OPENING.

Saturday evening of this week will witness the formal opening of the new Turner hall, one of the most complete and well-appointed modern theatres in the state. While not entirely complete in all its details it is yet so far advanced as to make it inadvisable to longer delay the dedication. No set program of ceremonies has been prepared other than the formal dedication exercises will take place upon the stage and will consist of speeches in both English and German, the former by A. J. Alwin and the latter by Col. William Pfaender, one of the original founders of the local Turnverein. Music will be furnished by the Turner orchestra. Following the ceremonies of dedication thirty minutes will be taken for inspection of the building after which the assembled company will repair to the large gymnasium in the basement and partake of an elegant banquet served by the ladies of the society. During the banquet the seats will be removed from the parquet by a mechanical contrivance which carries the entire parquet back underneath the dress circle, and those who care to do so will be given the opportunity to dance. Large numbers of Turners are expected to be present and the citizens of this city generally should not be slow in showing their appreciation of the enterprise shown by New Ulm Turnverein in giving to the city such a beautiful and commodious play-house.

The Platform Meeting.

The platform meeting at the Congregational Church last Sunday evening fully met the expectations of a large audience, in interest not falling below the former one at which Mr. Hoidale acquitted himself so finely. The first address of fifteen minutes was given by E. R. Barager, and treated the subject, the business man in the church. It was a fine setting forth of the subject, thoroughly adapted to any of the churches, and was received with signal favor, both for its instructiveness and for a vein of humor continually running through it, that bubbled clear and sparkling as a mountain brook. The second address was given by C. E. Roe of the New Ulm Business College, upon the subject: "The Business man in Business" and from the first was a very great success. Mr. Roe is a rhetorician of perspicuity and power and he is also a man of force and thought and learning. He understands business men, known how they think and what they think about and is equally instructive whether talking of the aims and methods of the business man or of the pedagogic ideals that should be cherished by the community and especially by the teachers of youth in respect to the formation of business devotion and character. Mr. Updyke closed the meeting quite on time with a few words on the christian man in business by way of spiritual improvement of the occasion, and after a hymn pronounced the benediction, completing a secular service as he had begun it with devotions so impressive and acceptable that the entire lump seemed to have been entirely leavened.

When we see boys on the streets and public places we often wonder if they know that business men are watching them. In every bank, store and office there will soon be a place for some boy to fill. Those who have the management of that business house will select a boy in whom they have confidence. When they select one of these boys they will not select him for his ability to talk "sassy," swear, use slang, smoke cigarettes or tap a beer keg. These men have little to say, and some may have a few of these habits themselves but they are looking for boys that are as near gentlemen in every sense of the word as they can find, and they are able to give you the character of every boy in town. They are not looking for rowdies, and when a boy applies for one of these places and is refused they may not tell him the reason why they do not want him but the boy can depend upon it he has been rated according to his behavior. Boys cannot afford to adopt the habits and conversation of the loafers and rowdies if they ever want to be called to responsible positions.—Tomahawk Leader.
