

NEW ULM REVIEW.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 18, 1901.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Otto Baarsch is spending Christmas with his parents at Bird Island.

Miss Lou Baasen left on Thursday to spend the week with friends at Winona.

Miss Anna Salfer of Maakato is spending the week with her sister Mrs. Oliver Quan.

Ed. Gieseke of Sleepy Eye is spending today at the home of his parents in this city.

Frank Webber is home from Minneapolis having arrived in the city yesterday afternoon.

Jos. Vogel is home from his school work at Chicago to spend Christmas with his parents.

Dr. Kilbride of Sleepy Eye has signified his intention of leaving that city and will locate at Canby.

Otto Seifert and Alex Henle are home from St. Johns College to spend the holidays with their parents.

The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Grussendorf of Lafayette took place on Thursday last.

Misses May Mowery and Adelaide Olsen who are students at Carlton are home for the Christmas vacation.

Col. Mallahan of the Journal force is taking a few days vacation at his daughter's home in Jackson, this state.

At the Christmas tree Monday night H. L. Beecher was presented with a toy engine and the suggestive inscription, "warranted never to be late."

Darwin Schuetz of the engineering department of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co., Duluth, is spending a few days with his mother in this city.

Hugo Gieseke of Minneapolis was in the city Thursday, having been in Sleepy Eye to attend a party given there. He is connected with an advertising agency in Minneapolis.

Prof. Brooks furnished music on Saturday and Monday at the People's Store. He is an artist on the zither and his music was much admired by the many patrons of that store.

Wm. Stork traveling salesman for the Burg Cigar company is in the city and will take a rest for a week or so, this being the only real vacation he has enjoyed in the past three years.

The New time lock and burglar proof safe has arrived and been placed in the State Bank of New Ulm, so that bank is now thoroughly provided with all the modern conveniences in the way of safe security.

P. Herian has sold his saloon property in this city to John Hetlinger, and will leave for Sleepy Eye the first of the year to take charge of the property leased from Mrs. J. J. Bier.

The teachers of the public schools have presented Prof. Crichton with a beautiful Morris parlor chair as a Christmas gift. It is an elegant present and highly appreciated by the professor.

Ed. Silge, editor of the Estherville Democrat, was in the city on Friday to meet his sister who has been attending the New Ulm Business College. The young lady returned with him to Estherville on the evening train.

Miss Lueck who has been the guest of her uncle, Fred Backer, was given a pleasant reception on Friday evening. A number of her friends gave her a surprise party. She left for her home at St. Leo on Monday.

Next Wednesday, morning, being the first of the year the carrier will deliver with the Review his annual address. The custom of contributing to the new years greeting for the carrier has become so well founded in this city that it is only necessary to call attention to it. The delivery of the papers to the houses has been no small task and we trust that those who have been the recipients of this favor will recognize it in a substantial way.

Christmas exercise at the Congregational church on Monday night were considered the best that have been given in that church. A large old fashioned brick fireplace was constructed out of boxes of candy and three trees adorned the front of it. Presents were prepared for all the Sunday school children and in addition each one was given a box of candy. The exercises consisted of the usual Christmas songs and recitations among which was a duet by Misses May Mowery and Adelaide Olsen that was especially pretty, it was "The Bird's Christmas Carol."

AN EVANGELIST'S STORY.

"I suffered for years with a bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but did not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkman, evangelist of Belle River, Ill. "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from maladies of this kind." One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and all kinds of throat and lung troubles. For croup it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to take. Never fails and is really a favorite with the children. They like it. Eugene A. Pfeiffer.

Eurist Wicherski was a visitor at Sleepy Eye on Monday.

Attorney Hoidale was in Sleepy Eye Monday afternoon to conduct a suit in justice court.

Peter Heinen of Minneapolis is in the city to spend a few days with his parents and friends.

If you are in need of furniture, carpets or wallpaper it pays to get it at Forster Bros.

A good warm cup of coffee with fresh butter rolls for 10 cents at any time at Willibald Eibner's Bakery.

G. W. Murfin spent Sunday with his parents at Sleepy Eye. He will also spend his Christmas there.

Sunday was what is known as "Forefathers' Day," it being the anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Olin of Franklin are in the city the guests of Mrs. Olin's parents Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Peterson.

Capt. Louis Scherer and wife of Ft. Leavenworth, Kas. is spending a few days with his captains mother Mrs. Amalia Scherer.

The Congregational church presented Rev. and Mrs. Updyke with a beautiful set of dinner dishes and also gave Mr. Updyke a purse and sum of money.

The story that the New Ulm Roller Mill is to increase its capacity seems to have had absolutely no foundation. The mill will increase the quality not the quantity of its output.

D. A. Grussendorf leaves today to attend a meeting of the officers of the Second regiment. He will also attend the meeting of the Minnesota Educational association. Miss Lillian Klossner will also be present at the meeting of the association.

At the Congregational church Sunday morning the services were greatly enhanced by an unusual amount of singing. A double quartet rendered the anthems and for an offertory Mrs. A. W. Bingham sang a Christmas anthem. All together the service was of a very high order.

August Strade of West Newton seems to be playing in rather hard luck. Some weeks ago he fell from the scaffold of a building and broke one leg and Monday he fell again from the same building and broke the other. He was brought to the hospital in this city where he is being treated.

The hearing in the case of Ferdinand Trebesch was held before Justice Ray at Springfield Monday. He was charged with assault with a dangerous weapon and not furnishing bail was remanded to the county jail to await the action of the grand jury. The impression seems to be that he will not be indicted for any serious cause as he is not considered in sound mental condition.

Norman G. Lind, son of John Lind has become president of a university stock company capitalized at $10,000 which has been organized among the students for the purpose of issuing a daily paper. The boys will find that the amount will look pretty small at the end of the year, perhaps though they are well enough off to afford as expensive a plaything as a daily paper will be.

The Board of directors of the Interstate Accident and Relief Association met at the president's office in this city on Monday and considered the work of Association for the past quarter and also looked into the future. A policy covering sick benefits only, was considered and a form is to be drafted which will be submitted at the annual meeting in January. The condition of the association was found to be in excellent shape.

This morning the cigar smokers of the city were presented, through the post office, with a neat Christmas present in the shape of a Nan Wilkes cigar, from the Burg Cigar Co. It is one of the few graceful acts that has manifested the disposition of that firm to make all of the people appreciate the value of their products. Probably no firm in the city has spent more on Christmas presents for a general purpose than the Burg cigar factory, and it is making friends for them.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bacon of Pueblo, Col., are in the city visiting Mrs. Bacon's parents, Rev. and Mrs. S. G. Updyke. They came up for the Christmas season. There are also present at the parsonage all of the children. Miss Nina, teacher at Wilmar, Miss Margorie also from Wilmar, Robt. Updyke from Ft. Leavenworth, Kas., and S. G. Updyke, recently returned from Alaska. Mr. Bacon is commercial agent for the Chicago & Rock Island R. R., and Dr. Robert Updyke is dentist for the regular army at Ft. Leavenworth. It has been sometime since the family has been together in its entirety.

The eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Reed was taken to Rochester last Friday to be operated on for appendicitis. At this writing the little one is doing nicely.

The Dode Fisk concert and ball on Tuesday evening was one of the best social events ever held at Sleepy Eye. The concert was very good and the ball was pronounced by all the best for many years. Mr. Decker and his friends who secured the entertainment deserve the thanks of the public.

OF BEGEMIT TO YOU.

D. S. Mitchell, Md.: "During a long illness I was troubled with bed sores, was advised to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and so with wonderful results, I was perfectly cured. It is the best salve on the market." Sure cure for piles, sores and burns. Beware of imitations. Eng. A. Pfeiffer.

Fred Kissner, a well-known farmer met with a painful injury on Monday last. While around the barn handling grain one of his horses bit him in the face causing a bad wound on the nose and right cheek. His nose was nearly bitten off. The animal is an old horse and was never known to be vicious before.

WILL YOU SLEEP WELL

To-night? Not if you have a cough that begins to torment you as soon as you lie down. You can conquer the cough with Allen's Lung Balm, which will relieve the pain in the chest, the irritation in the throat and the hard breathing. Since it contains no opium, this remedy may be given freely to children, and to the most delicate adults.
