

New Ulm Review

By W. R. HODGES and ASA P. BROOKS.

Wednesday, May 14th, 1902.

A Tracy paper heads its editorial column with a cut of M. J. Dowling and in another place explains that the space is paid for and the paper is not supporting Mr. Dowling. That is a pure political transaction and shows what the primary election is going to cost those who are anxious for the nomination. With three or four candidates seeking the same nomination Redwood County papers should do well this summer.

Redwood County papers contain little else than congressional political matter and the papers are about evenly divided between Young and Dowling with the strength apparently in Dowling's favor. Young is an abler man than Dowling though he lacks the push that comes with the constant public life that Mr. Dowling has had and which has had a tendency to give him an altogether too exalted opinion of himself.

For the money which the city gets on the bonds issued to pay for the electric light the city will pay the limit 4 per cent. No wonder it was thought necessary for the assessor to assess everything at its full value. The bonds are well disposed of however and the city can now go ahead without fear and complete its plant. As has frequently been remarked by people who expect better light through this service "what do I care, I don't pay any taxes." The permanency of the improvement should make the service the very best, if it is not there will be time then to complain.

The date of the Republican state convention has been set for July 1st. This rather early date accords with the wishes of Gov. Van Sant, who expects and doubtless will get the nomination for governor on that ticket. By holding their convention this early the party is starting a long, and what to most people will be a tiresome campaign. The whole Philippine war will have to be fought over and the Merger tried on every public platform in the state usually by men who know more about staying at home than about helping the army out, and about the merging of their own interests than the justice of the railroads. A month of state politics would have been sufficient to have tired out the people and to have exhausted the arguments of both sides.

Robert A. Smith was re-elected Mayor of St. Paul by the democrats last Tuesday. The shameful campaign and misleading, mudslinging statements put out by the republicans was enough to drive decent people from the city for all time. The Review has no sympathy with any organization that depends to such tactics. The official acts of one set of officials are usually as virtuous as those of another and everybody knows this. If crime exists the court and not the political field is the place to settle it. If crime does not exist such statements as were made in the arguments of the opposition to St. Paul democracy were a disgrace to any party and it is time that the party was learning that such tactics drive votes from it instead of injuring the opposing party. St. Paul is a democratic city and was expected to go democratic.

It isn't real nice of Editor Liesch to be so rude in his malignment of Congressman McCleary. It is hardly fair for a man to say behind an editorial pen what he would not say directly to the man. Mr. McCleary has not been so bad, in fact he furnished most of the sound money speeches for the last two presidential campaigns. He rose from behind the mountains of great difficulty in the morning of the Republican party's dire necessity, and preached redemption by gold until the land was noisy with his praises; and now because, forsooth, the editor of the Journal was not found to be worthy of the honor bestowed upon Mr. Krook there comes this great exposition of weakness. It isn't fair. Men don't even shoot horses when they have outlived their usefulness. Brown county would like to see Geo. Somerville in Mr. McCleary's place but abuse of McCleary will never put him there, for McCleary's record is better than the average and if he would go to work and get the duty off of lumber and sugar he should be given another term without opposition.

VALUE OF REAL ESTATE MEN.
Among the various classes of men whose business it is to make a living by hustling the real estate man is probably the least appreciated by the community in which he lives. Supposing he does make some one believe that he can sow tares on rocks and bring forth wheat the fact remains that he is the best advertiser of the place in which he holds land. What is making the rise in the value of lands in Northern Minnesota and the Dakotas? It isn't that greater crops have been raised. It is because real estate men have got after them and properly advertised them. The demand for an article fixes its value and when men like John Lund go after settlers for lands they have for sale, they make the waste places to blossom as the rose and lands adjoining immediately rise in value. It was the Land and Colonization company that made Brown County famous and put a house on every quarter. And it is the real estate men of this city and other places, who are making a business of selling land, who are doing more to raise the price of real estate than any other one agency. Most of the real estate advertising is done by means of pamphlets and letters and people would be surprised at the amount of money expended in this way. The railroads also employ the same methods and keep persistently at it and the result is that people are coming into the western country at the rate of nearly 100,000 a month. It is really working too well and the price of land is getting beyond the real value and no crop is of sufficient worth to pay interest on the investment.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.
Wm. F. Wendt today takes possession of the Grand hotel, succeeding Mr. Wood. Mrs. F. H. Behnke is attending a meeting of the Grand lodge of the Eastern Star. She is a candidate for grand conductress.
On Tuesday evening last the school board elected Susan B. Hohmann of Henderson principal of the high school in this city. She is said to be an excellent instructor and a teacher whom the students learn to respect an admire. She succeeds D. A. Grussendorf who goes to Appleton as superintendent.

Two of B. Gruenfelder's recent compositions "Freedom" and "Elegance" have been accepted by the celebrated music publishing house of Lyon & Healy and will soon be on the market for sale. Mr. Gruenfelder has some pieces of band music that have gained a wide reputation.

Hans Mo of Sleepy Eye was in the city Thursday afternoon. He, like all other Sleepy Eye people who have business at the county seat, was complaining about the disagreeableness of having to wait until midnight to get back home. He says they are going to make an effort to have an earlier train.

Hon. S. D. Peterson has taken the agency for the Phoenix Life Insurance company. This is one of the very best companies in existence and has the best policies, covering almost every form a man desires to take. Men who are desirous of taking out insurance will find Mr. Peterson's company to be the one they are looking for.

On Tuesday last occurred the marriage of Miss Katherine Lycum to Frank Dauer at Holy Trinity church, Rev. Father Sandmeyer officiating. The newly married couple will make their home on a farm in the town of Cottonwood where their many friends will wish them all the blessings of married life.

Monday the authorities got out the road grader and gave Minnesota street a good scraping, taking off about three inches of accumulation. The constant sprinkling has held all the dust and refuse on the street until it has created quite a deposit and the use of the scraper became almost a necessity. The street is now in good condition.

Cashier W. G. Frank of Springfield was in this city last week on business. He is at the head of a corporation which will start a bank at the new town of Milroy, where the company has purchased a lot for which $1375 was paid. A. C. Kinman of Morgan is to be cashier.

The village of Lambertson last week voted $5000 bonds for putting in a municipal lighting plant. The plant to be installed is a gas lighting apparatus and will furnish gas for fuel for those who desire it. If the light is good the village is getting a very cheap power. There were only eight votes against the issuing of bonds.

The past week has seen a patch of side walk in nearly every street in the city torn up to make room for a cement walk and Nagel & Co. have about all they can do at the present. Before the summer ends no one in the city will have opportunity to complain of the condition of the walks. The Lutheran church property in particular is to be greatly beautified by the building of new walks and the grading to be done.

Sunday evening Rev. S. G. Updyke spoke of the causes leading up to the revolt of the Indians, prior to the Massacre. His contention is that the Indian race, being inferior and not willing to take up with the ideas of civilization, was destined to be crowded out and that the uprising was a revolt against the advancement of a superior race rather than revenge for mistreatment. Mr. Updyke didn't touch on the details of the Massacre, reserving that for another address in the near future.

The excursion on the St. Louis to Minneapolis Sunday was well patronized, a train of nine coaches went through here and all were well filled. Quite a number of people from this city took advantage of the cheap rate. Saturday the North-Western runs an excursion to Minneapolis at the same price, giving people an opportunity of spending the entire day in the city Sunday. The train will leave New Ulm at 11:40 a. m.

THOSE OTHER DAYS
Back to childhood's happy hours
A truant memory flies,
And through the open folds of life
The thoughts of boyhood rise.
Fragrant winds from nature's green
Refresh the mind anew
And childhood joys, in visions seen,
Are fresh as morning dew.
As day-dawn kissed the tips of night,
And faint the starlight glittered,
An' thoughts remote, in dreamland bright
Cared not to be embittered.
We hear in accents loud and clear
Our fathers' insty shout
Echoing up the attic stairs,
"Boys, it's a time you're crawling out!"
What though we knew we had to rise
"Twas sweet to lay and snooze
Perhaps to sleep an hour or more
With not an hour to lose;
For father thinks we've fed the stock,
And have the buck saw humming—
When mother calls in frightened tones,
"Quick boys, your father's coming!"
Then up we jump and like a shot
We're out the kitchen door
For woe betide us if we're caught—
As once we were before.
We reach the barn and feed the stock
And then we hear him shout,
"Say, don't you fellows intend to come!
It's time the cows were out."
Then while he smokes his corn cob pipe,
And mother clears the table,
He bids us get the horses out
As fast as we are able.
For o'er the hills the daylight creeps
The neighbors teams are plowing,
And on our farm there's no one sleeps
When morning's beams are glowing.
Swift fly the hours till "chores" are done;
Then mother's voice we hear:
"Come boys get washed, or you'll be late!"
The hour for school is near.
Three miles, across the fields we go
With little time to "fool"
And though we hurry all we can
Are still "late" for "keeping school."
Out from that humble parent home,
Into a broader field,
Drawn by glittering promises—
Tempted often to yield;
No one whispers a warning word—
Drifting with the tide—
Reforming, only to fall again—
Losing manhood's pride,
Till now there comes before my eyes,
The vision of what was;
Thoughts of what might have been,
Dreams of broken laws,
Hands outstretched to help me up—
No more they seem to be.
Unstained by broken promises
The lips that speak to me.
—ASA P. BROOKS

The firemen are having an old building moved from Minnesota street to the vacant park property north of German park, which is to be used when the convention is here in a fire drill. The building will be fired and the company will have all the elements of a real fire to contend with in their exhibition. Work for the entertainment of the guests goes on smoothly. The usual begging for funds is not noticed because of the preparation made some time ago and it is one of the agreeable features of the convention. So far it appears to be a well managed affair and will no doubt be carried through with the same precision and thoughtfulness. One thing is sure nothing is being left undone that will add to the pleasure of the visiting firemen and their friends.

DON'T MAKE A PAINT MISTAKE.

The many years' experience we have had in handling paints is worth much to us and just as much to you. We buy paints with absolute knowledge as to quality and prices.

We know there is nothing better than the goods we handle, and we are in position to make bottom prices. Buy buying close and selling close we are able to match the prices often asked for vastly inferior goods.

We want to furnish everything you will need in the paint line this season.

We've handled the celebrated Heath & Milligan Paints for 20 years, and every year become more certain they are the best for all purposes.

A COLLEGE PROFESSOR.

One of Georgia's Useful Educators is Grateful For What Pe-ru-na is Doing For Suffering Humanity.

F. A. Curtright, A. B., Principal of the Georgia Normal and Industrial Institute, and editor and proprietor of the "Georgia Helping Hand" writes the following glowing words concerning Peruna, and its efficacy in the cure of catarrh.

He says: "I was induced to try Peruna by the advice of a friend, and certainly believe that suffering humanity would be relieved if they only gave Peruna a fair trial. Would that I could frame words sufficient to express my gratitude for the benefits derived from its use."—F. A. CURTRIGHT, Greensboro, Ga.

Hon. W. N. Roach, United States Senator from North Dakota, in a letter written from Larimore, North Dakota, says:

"Persuaded by a friend, I have used Peruna as a tonic, and am glad to testify that it has greatly helped me in strength, vigor and appetite. I have been advised by friends that it is remarkably efficacious as a cure for the almost universal complaint of catarrh."—W. N. Roach.

Senator Roach's wife recommends Peruna also. She says: "I can cheerfully recommend your excellent remedy, Peruna. Indeed, I know of no other remedy as good as yours. It is a grand tonic, and many of my friends have used it for catarrh with good results."—Mrs. W. N. Roach.

The most common phases of summer catarrh are catarrh of the stomach and bowels. Peruna is a specific for summer catarrh.

Mr. Wm. Hebley, Duquesne, Pa., writes:—"I am cured of catarrh of the stomach of two years standing. I had it so bad that I could not eat anything but milk. I doctored with several doctors and they could give me relief for a short time only. I saw Peruna recommended and thought I would try it, and I now think I am cured of catarrh. I have worked two months and did not lose a day."—Wm. Hebley.

Mr. Moses F. Merrill, Columbus, Cherokee Co., Kansas, Rural Route No. 3, writes:

"I had been troubled with systemic catarrh, which affected the lower bowels especially. I was troubled with running off of the bowels and troublesome catarrh of the bronchial tubes which caused spitting of thick mucus. Since taking Peruna my improvement has been wonderful. My bowels are regular as clock-work. I can now eat like other people and my vitals digest."—Moses F. Merrill.

Hon. Willis Brewer, Representative in Congress from Alabama, writes the following letter to Dr. Hartman:

House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O.; Gentlemen—"I have used one bottle of Peruna for lassitude, and I take pleasure in recommending it to those who need a good remedy. As a tonic it is excellent. In the short time I have used it it has done me a great deal of good."—Willis Brewer.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
